Secretary of the Commonwealth.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

E. White, No. 2729 Girard Avenue, has been awarded contract for painting and glazing of the alteration to be made to building for Mrs. Annie E. Maegern, 229 Lodge Street. Also contract for painting and glazing dwelling and stable to be erected at Stafford, Pa., for M. Frederick Wambach.

Wm. G. Price, Jr., dealer in lime, etc., Twenty-sixth and Sedgely Avenue, has received contract from J. E. Eastwick, plasterer, for supplying lime for the following operations: Warfield's, Thirty-first and Columbia Avenue and Kensington Avenue and Clearfield Street; Robert Buchanan, Twenty-second and Dauphin Streets, and Scott & Roberts, Twenty-fifth and Norris Streets.

Although several months have elapsed since Horticultural Hall was destroyed by fire arrangements have just been completed to adjust the insurance. Builders George F. Payne, A. L. Pennock and George L. Harvey are the adjustors selected by the parties. The insurance was $40,000, and it will depend entirely upon the amount allotted whether or not the society will rebuild.

Thomas Little & Son, contractors, 217 Pear Street, have been given the contract to erect the new wards and additions to the Episcopal Hospital, Lehigh Avenue and Front Street. These consist of a three-story iron and brick structure 54 x 135 feet, a laundry 33 x 45 feet and a one-story carpenter shop, 20 x 35 feet. The whole cost will fall not far short of $100,000. Work will start at once.

The United States engineers are now engaged in an exhaustive survey of the channel of the Delaware River near Schooner Lodge, where a ledge of rock is reported to exist. Last winter the German steamer Elise Marie, outward bound, drawing 26 feet of water, struck this unknown obstruction and was damaged, to the extent of $50,000. As a result of the survey made, rock has been discovered to exist in the locality and Major Raymond is having a more extended survey made with a view to the removal of all obstructions at this point.

Bids on the proposed buildings for Charles C. Harrison, at the northwest corner of Tenth and Market Streets, were announced on the 17th inst. Some of them were very close, as the following list shows: Lewis Havens, $194,330; William C. McPherson, $194,900; Stacy Reeves & Sons, $198,000; William R. Dougherty, $199,500; Little & Son, $199,962; Samuel Hart & Sons, $200,800;

Kister & Orem, 203,000; Charles McCaul, $210,308; B. Ketcham & Son, $216,710. Unless re-estimates are desired, which is probably not the case, the contract goes to Lewis Havens, the lowest bidder.

The roofing paper mill of John Lang & Co., on the northwest corner of Twenty-fourth and Vine Streets, was almost destroyed by fire Friday afternoon, August 18th, causing a loss of about $40,000. It was only due to the energetic work of the firemen and police tug King that the fire did not spread to the adjoining properties, as for a time it looked as though the flames had gained the supremacy. This was owing to the inadequate water-supply, and a half dozen fire engines were forced to abandon the water plugs and pump direct from the Schuylkill river. It is understood the work of reconstruction will be started as soon as the insurance matters have been adjusted.

Architects Cope & Stewardson, who prepared the plans for the Harrison Block, corner Tenth and Market Streets, will probably award the contract to Lewis Havens, who is the lowest bidder. The building at Tenth and Market Streets will consist of three stories. The facade will be of mostly brick and terra-cotta, similar in coloring to the Rogers Building on Walnut Street just east of Tenth. Two of the stores will front on Market Street and one on Tenth, the latter being 66 feet square, with frontage on Hunter Street. The corner store will have 40 feet frontage on Market Street and the one adjoining will have a 26-foot front, all being seven stories high. Work will be started upon the block at once.

An important real estate deal, following in the line of the Drexel operation, has just taken place between the Overbrook Land and Improvement Company and John H. Myers. At a consideration of $10,000 the company transfers to Mr. Myers ten acres of ground, between Sixty-second and Sixty-third Streets, Lancaster and Lebanon Avenues, in the Thirty-fourth Ward, adjoining the Overbrook property, upon which the purchaser proposes to commence, in a few days, the preliminary work for the erection of 15 separate stone and brick dwellings of artistic appearance. The scheme involves the opening and grading of streets, laying of sewers and water pipes and other improvements. The houses are to be constructed on lots 80 x 150 feet.

The Hale Kilburn Manufacturing Company, 48 and 50 North Sixth Street, have made plans for a handsome residence to be erected by Mr. Henry S. Hale, of that company, at 1510 North Broad Street. The superstructure is to be of brown stone, mottled Pompeian brick and terra-cotta. The plans provide for four stories, to embrace over twenty rooms. The interior work will be of the finest, as it is intended to make this a sample of the product of the company, yet effectiveness will be the great consideration without extravagance. There will be passenger elevators, five bath rooms, heat not decided upon, red slate roof, stained and leaded glass. The house, with back building, will be over 100 feet deep, with an extreme width of 28 feet, cemented cellars and yard. Ceilings: First story, 13 feet; second story, 11 feet; third story, 10 feet; fourth story, 11 feet, with air chamber to the roof of 6 feet. No contracts yet let and now receiving bids. Electric lights and all modern convenience, etc.

Mayor Stuart has sent the following letter to Secretary Carlisle, acquainting him with the action of the City Councils in the matter of the Mint site:

Dear Sir:—Referring to your letter of the 7th inst., I beg to advise you that I called a special meeting of the Select and Common Councils of the city of Philadelphia, and laid before them the correspondence passed between yourself and this office concerning the disposal by the city, to the United States Government, of certain properties belonging to the city of Philadelphia, situated on the south side of Race Street, east of Broad Street, and on the east side of Broad Street, south of Race Street, as a portion of the site for the proposed new Mint building. City Councils to-day adopted, in strict accordance with law, the necessary ordinance, which has received my approval and a certified copy of which, duly attested by the proper officials of the Select and Common Councils, is herewith inclosed. In case I can be of any service to you in connection with the acquisition of the remaining properties, I trust that you will not hesitate to command me."

The Mint Site Committee of the various trade organizations held an informal meeting yesterday in the office of W. W. Foulkrod. Messrs. Foulkrod, French and McKean expressed themselves as very much pleased with the action of Councils, and look upon the acquisition of a new Mint as an assured fact.

Just as soon as they are completed there will be a meeting of the board, and definite arrangements as to the new work will be completed. The breast of the new dam will be a decided improvement on the old one. There are now two plans of modern dam breasts before the board for their consideration. The first one is to substitute for the old puddle ditch a solid concrete wall. This wall is made of stone and cement. In a breast of the size required for the new dam this wall should be 15 feet thick at the base and 4 feet thick at the top, running along the middle of the breast for its entire length. This kind of wall is as compact as adamant and is entirely impervious to water. About this wall on both sides earth is tamped and then rolled with a two-ton roller. Scientific engineers say that this is the strongest kind of a breast that can be built. The other plan which the directors are considering is similar to the one just mentioned, with the exception that blue clay is used as a substitute for concrete. Both are good plans and the company will decide in a few days which one to adopt.

A Few Quiet Words with House Builders and Owners.

If the kitchen of your house is small, you need to economize room. You can do this by using a range with elevated boiler, such as the

"FIDELITY."

It will reduce the cost of plumbing also. We make them with seven inch or eight inch boiler holes, ovens on right or left of fire, with or without hot closets, and also to heat an upper room. Splendid bakers. Hot water in abundance. The latest and best of their class.

FIDELITY HOT AIR RANGE WITH HORIZONTAL BOILER.

Excelsior Double Oven Range.

If the kitchen is roomy and large, cooking capacity is sought. You will want a brick-set range with a vertical circulating boiler, set in the usual way. The

are acknowledged all over Philadelphia, in which city and vicinity some 75,000 have been sold as the standard brick-set range. They are furnished with ventilated ovens, oven-door pedals, rocking grates, and all modern improvements. Made in seven and eight inch sizes; single, double and hot-air ranges. Send for descriptive pamphlet, entitled "PERFECT COOKING."

AND

Builders' Guide,

No. 17 NORTH TENTH STREET,

Philadelphia,

, 189 .

GENTLEMEN:

We want to contract with you for an advertisement in this journal on the following basis:

To wit: Independent of our subscription list, we will contract to send a copy of the paper containing your advertisement, weekly and continuously, to every architect in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Washington, D. C. Most of the Philadelphia architects are subscribers, and as we report their work weekly we must send a copy when reported.

Also, a copy containing your advertisement to every builder or owner obtaining a building permit in Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., during the entire year.

Also, a copy containing your advertisement to every builder, owner, contractor and agent in Philadelphia, Pa., New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and Washington, D. C., and, in fact, anywhere and everywhere whom we report in our columns as building or going to build. This means that we reach more builders and owners who will erect mills, factories, churches, warehouses, schools, country and city residences, court houses, contract work of all kinds, in our territory than any journal devoted to building published in the whole world.

To make this proposition sufficiently specific, we desire it understood that this is a part of our contract with advertisers. We have been doing this for years to the satisfaction and profit of our patrons. In fact, our method of distribution makes our advertising the most practical and profitable obtainable, for it needs no argument to prove that the man who must buy is the available customer, if you sell the wares he requires.

The success of this journal is based on honorable dealing. We do not cut our advertising rates. First, because we cannot afford to do so, and at the same time conscientiously carry out our contract with the advertisers to reach the greatest possible number of buyers. Second, we hold that the journal that will take your neighbor's advertisement (size and time being equal) for half the price at which yours was taken, merits neither your respect nor patronage, and must soon lose both.

We ask to be included in your advertising list of papers. We are sure that you will find ours the most profitable advertising you have ever done.

Yours Respectfully,

JOHN N. GALLAGHER,

Proprietor.

Architect Notes.

Boyden and Taylor, architects, 413 Walnut Street, Phila., are engaged on plans for a large hall and borough building, for Swarthmore, Pa., to be stone and frame, slate roof, two stories high, with a basement. The hall will seat about 350 persons and will be heated by hot water. Estimates will be invited at once on the work.

Horace Trumbaur, architect, 310 Chestnut Street, has made plans for two store buildings, two-stories high, stone and frame construction, at Wyncote, N. P. R. R., to be fitted with all modern conveniences. Also, plans for a handsome residence for Mr. Walter B. Smith, to be erected at Overbrook Station, P. R. R., 72 x 76 feet, and erected of stone, white Pompeian brick and terracotta work; the interior will be fitted with hard woods, electric work, best sanitary plumbing, steam heat, and every modern convenience.

Isaac Pursell, architect, 119 South Fourth Street Philadelphia, is preparing plans for the First Baptist Church of Chester, Pa., who have purchased a lot at corner of Seventh and Fulton Streets, and will erect a large and more commodious church than the older one; the new one will be 72 x 135 feet, of Port Deposit or Avondale stone, with a tower at one corner. The auditorium will have a bevelled floor and seat 500 persons; open timber roof and hard wood on the interior; a marble baptistry will be placed in the chancel; a chapel will adjoin the main building, and so arranged as to be thrown together when desired; this will contain a main room, an infant room, sixteen class rooms and young peoples' association room, a ladies' parlor and library and other toilet rooms; the basement will contain a kitchen, etc.; the structure will be heated throughout with steam, lighted by combination gas fixtures and have all modern features. Mr. Pursell is also building a fine house at Jenkintown, Pa., for Theo. B. Culver, of local stone and hard wood interior in oak and cherry. F. L. Horner has the contract; also plans have been completed for the United Presbyterian Church at Oxford, Pa., for which the contract has been given to Milton Walker, of that place.

A resume of the recent work in the various architects' office finds the profession fairly busy considering the financial condition of affairs. Work completed in detail as well as plans now in course of preparation for construction, and recently noted may be summed up as follows:—The large C. C. Harrison stores at Tenth and Market Streets, plans by Cope and Stewardson; also, for the stores at Tenth and Filbert Streets, same owner and architects. The stores at 1220 Market Street, built by N. Snellenberg. Plans by Wm. MacCollin, architect, 913 Walnut Street. Quite a number of operations are being pushed under supervision and plans by T. Frank Miller, 1221 Arch Street. Will. H. Decker, architect, Hale Building, has under way quite a number of operations in course of construction as well as plans being matured. Walter H. Geissinger, Twelfth and Chestnut Streets, may be noted as one of the busy men in the construction of several large factories and mills in which he is quite a specialist. Horace Trumbaur, architect, 310 Chestnut Street, is very busy upon a few large country houses and several pieces of city work; also alterations and additions of a minor character in preparation. Work has been started upon the Bank of North America; George Watson and Son, contractors and J. T. Windrim, architect. The hotel at Twelfth and Arch Streets, for which plans were made by Angus S. Wade, is well advanced, and a number of other jobs under his supervision are progressing finely. Public schools are being built, others improved from drawings by the architect, Jos. D. Austin and his able corps of assistants. Perhaps one of the offices to be noted as being "rushed" in the way of work is that of P. A. Welsh, architect, 429 Walnut Street, there being in course of preparation plans for at least a dozen different structures of various kinds, all of which receive Mr. Welsh's personal attention.

Boyd & Boyd, architects, 235 South Third Street, are engaged on plans for some of the houses at Overbrook, Pa., as well as a number of minor pieces of work. The completion of "Gilmore's Auditorium," under supervision and plans of Mr. John D. Allen, is a tribute to his genius and industry, the house after inspection by the public officials and others, having been pronounced as complete in every particular, and the handsomest building of its kind in this country.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Sub-bids are being received by George F. Payne & Co., for the work upon a large house to be built near Morton, Pa.

William R. Dougherty is receiving bids for work upon a new school house to be erected at Seventeenth and Tasker streets.

H. P. Castor will build a two-and-one-half story frame dwelling, 16 x 40 feet, on the southwest side of Comly Street, southeast of State Road.

James Kinnier's Sons will build two three-story brick and stone dwellings, 19 x 53 feet, on the north side of Mill Street, east of Chew, Twenty-second Ward.

The permit for the Mercantile Club House, on the west side of Broad Street, above Master, was issued to J. E. & A. L. Pennock. The estimated cost is $200,000.

Two two-and-one-half-story brick dwellings will be erected by Herman C. Kuehn on the northeast side of Knox Street, south of Seymour, Twenty-second Ward.

Andrew Moore, builder, will at once erect seven two-story houses on Fifteenth Street, west of Thompson Street, all to be of brick, with stone trimmings, and best modern conveniences, etc.

The F. A. Poth Brewing Company will make extensive alterations to the six-story brewery and grain house on the south side of Jefferson Street, west of Thirty-first, at a cost of $10,000, and will also build a three-story brick and iron stable, 17 x 34 feet, to cost $40,000.

Lewis Havens, contractor, has begun excavation for three seven-story stores, to be erected at Tenth and Market Streets, for C. C. Harrison. These plans were made by Cope and Stewardson, architects, and have been noted in full in a previous number of this journal.

Woelfl & Schmunk, builders, 614 Columbia Avenue, about to start the erection of fourteen two and three story dwellings on the north side of Indiana Avenue, west of Eighth Street, to be of fine press brick, stone base and steps, with all modern conveniences on interior.

John W. De Long, 36 North Fourth Street, will at once erect seven fine dwellings, 15 x 46 feet, three stories high, on the north side of Mantua Avenue, east of Forty-second Street, all to be of fine press brick with stone trimmings and steps, best improvements on interior.

Joseph M. Serrill, of Wyncote, Pa., is about to erect nineteen houses and two to contain stores on the eastside of Thirty-three and three-quarters Street, north of Arlington, all to be of brick and brownstone, two stories high, 14 x 37 feet, interiors to have all modern accommodations.

At the northeast corner of Spring Garden and Thirty-second streets H. D. Buckley will build a modern hotel at once. The building will be three stories high, with a frontage of 32 feet on Spring Garden street and 100 feet on Thirty-second street. Every modern improvement will be introduced in the construction of the hotel.

Geo. F. Payne & Co., contractors, 401 Juniper Street, have taken out their permit for the construction of the Lorraine Apartment Hotel, to be erected at Fairmount Avenue and Broad Street, in this city. A full description of this structure has been given in a previous number of this journal, from the plans by Willis G. Hale, architect, who will supervise the work to completion.

Paul J. Essick & Sons have the contract for the new structure for the Tioga Baptist Church, to be erected on the west side of Broad Street, south of Tioga. The building will be 78 x 85 feet and will be in the Byzantine style, of brick and terra-cotta. The front will be ornamented with two towers, each seventy feet high. The interior will contain all the modern fittings. Previously noted in this journal.

John G. Ruff, the operative builder, and his associates, have secured the old hog yard, which fronts on Thirty-second, Thirty-third, Haverford, and Rockland Streets, upon which they will at once build 60 dwellings. Twenty-five years ago, Henry Gehring's brewery occupied the site, but later Harry Glass has been using it for a hog yard. The dwellings will be large and contain all the modern improvements.

The corner stone of the "Parker Memorial Home," an addition to the Home for Indigent and Aged Colored Persons, was laid on the 23d inst. Ex Judge Paxson presided and delivered the chief address on the occasion. The plans were prepared for the structure by Charles Balgerston, architect, 314 Walnut Street, and have been fully noted in this journal in a previous number. The building will cost about $75,000.

Finley, Acker & Co., are about to make another extension of their large store on Eighth Street, near Cherry. They propose to get about 1300 square feet of first-floor space by adding to the rear of their main store the first floor of the buildings 729-31 Winfield Street. The new part will be in the rear of Nos. 117-19-21 North Eighth Street. The upper stories of the Winfield Street buildings are already occupied by the firm.

President Charles Roberts of the Apprentices' Library Association, has examination the preliminary sketches for a building for the Library. He found that while a large sum of money is now available for the purpose, a much larger sum must be raised before the improvements can actually be put under way. The matter of securing a proper site is also receiving much consideration. It must be centrally located, accessible, roomy and, above all, cheap. Such sites are not to be found every day, and the matter of putting up a new library building will be held in abeyance until a site is secured, or at least until the association is in position to secure a proper site. This work was noted in this journal about one year ago.

A Few Quiet Words with House Builders and Owners.

If the kitchen of your house is small, you need to economize room. You can do this by using a range with elevated boiler, such as the

"FIDELITY."

It will reduce the cost of plumbing also. We make them with seven inch or eight inch boiler holes, ovens on right or left of fire, with or without hot closets, and also to heat an upper room. Splendid bakers. Hot water in abundance. The latest and best of their class.

Excelsior Double Oven Range.

Whether large or small, your house will require a heating apparatus of some kind. It will pay you to put in a really good hot air furnace. The has no superior. Perfectly self-cleaning, with fewest joints, free from dust and gas, largest radiating surface, heavy steel plate, drum casings, easy on fuel, and of superior durability, it will always give satisfaction. A descriptive circular will be mailed upon application.

FIDELITY HOT AIR RANGE WITH HORIZONTAL BOILER.

If the kitchen is roomy and large, cooking capacity is sought. You will want a brick-set range with a vertical circulating boiler, set in the usual way. The

are acknowledged all over Philadelphia, in which city and vicinity some 75,000 have been sold as the standard brick-set range. They are furnished with ventilated ovens, oven-door pedals, rocking grates, and all modern improvements. Made in seven and eight inch sizes; single, double and hot-air ranges. Send for descriptive pamphlet, entitled "PERFECT COOKING."

Nuts For Advertisers to Crack.

$500 will be paid by the Proprietor to any one proving that this journal does not reach yearly more buyers of Building Material, Machinery, etc., in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and the District of Columbia, than any other paper, devoted to building, published in America.

Builders' Guide,

NO. 17 NORTH TENTH STREET,

Subscription, $5.00 per year, always in advance.

Philadelphia,

. 189 .

GENTLEMEN:

We want to contract with you for an advertisement in this journal on the following basis:

To wit: Independent of our subscription list, we will contract to send a copy of the paper containing your advertisement, weekly and continuously, to every architect in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Washington, D. C. Most of the Philadelphia architects are subscribers, and as we report their work weekly we must send a copy when reported.

Also, a copy containing your advertisement to every builder or owner obtaining a building permit in Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., during the entire year.

Also, a copy containing your advertisement to every builder, owner, contractor and agent in Philadelphia, Pa., New Jersey, Maryland, Delaware and Washington, D. C., and, in fact, anywhere and everywhere whom we report in our columns as building or going to build. This means that we reach more builders and owners who will erect mills, factories, churches, warehouses, schools, country and city residences, court houses, contract work of all kinds, in our territory than any journal devoted to building published in the whole world.

To make this proposition sufficiently specific, we desire it understood that this is a part of our contract with advertisers. We have been doing this for years to the satisfaction and profit of our patrons. In fact, our method of distribution makes our advertising the most practical and profitable obtainable, for it needs no argument to prove that the man who must buy is the available customer, if you sell the wares he requires.

The success of this journal is based on honorable dealing. We do not cut our advertising rates. First, because we cannot afford to do so, and at the same time conscientiously carry out our contract with the advertisers to reach the greatest possible number of buyers. Second, we hold that the journal that will take your neighbor's advertisement (size and time being equal) for half the price at which yours was taken, merits neither your respect nor patronage, and must soon lose both.

We ask to be included in your advertising list of papers. We are sure that you will find ours the most profitable advertising you have ever done.

Yours Respectfully,

JOHN N. GALLAGHER,

Proprietor.

Architect Notes.

Horace Trumbaur, architect, 310 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, has been engaged to prepare plans for a business block on Greenwood Avenue, Wyncoote, Pa. These are owned by Dr. Peters, who recently purchased the grounds and were noted in a previous issue of this journal.

Chas. Barton, architect, 132 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, is preparing plans for an addition to the Western Home and Infirmary for Children, Forty-first and Baring Streets, to be of brick three stories high and will contain three ward rooms, a kitchen and a nurses' room. Geo. Hirst, of Germantown, has the contract.

J. Elvin Jackson, architect, 804 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, has made plans for a number of dwellings to be erected in the upper part of the city by A. A. Harmer, builder and owner, Freeland Avenue, Wissahickon. These are to be three stories high of Pompeian brick and terra cotta trimmings; interior to have steam-heat electric work, and best sanitary plumbing with every modern convenience; work to start at once.

Thomas P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, Fourth and Walnut Streets, Philadelphia, has in course of preparation plans for a large eight-story store and manufacturing establishment to be built for William Mann Company, now located at 529 Market Street—also 515 Arch and 521 Commerce Streets. The structure will be of brick with stone trimmings. Interior will be fitted with freight lifts and passenger elevator, speaking tubes, steam heat and power, electric work, in fact, every modern improvement.

M. B. Bean, architect, of Lansdale, Bucks County, Pa., has made plans for the new First Reformed Church, of Quakertown. The walls are to be of brick with Rockhill granite trimmings. It will be surmounted with a spire, in which a chime of bells is to be placed. Besides a main auditorium, suitable Sunday-school rooms and rooms for Bible class will be provided. Cost about $10,000. Also plans for a new chapel to be erected at East Greenville, Montgomery Co., Pa., by the new Goshenhoppen Church. It will be 40 x 60 feet, and cost $5,000.

Addison Hutton, architect, 400 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, has made plans for the Centre or Administration Building for the Pennsylvania State Lunatic Hospital, at Harrisburg, Pa. A full description will be given, in our next issue, of the structure, as estimates are to be received until noon of September 25th, 1893. Also plans for an additional cottage to the Jane Robinson Training School, at Vineland, N. J. This structure will be four stories, brick with stone trimmings, and the interior to have all modern conveniences, etc. Estimates are being made on the work.

Franklin Keagy, architect, 576 North Main Street, Chambersburg, Pa., sends the following: "Am preparing plans for extensive alterations and addition to the church of the the German Reformed Congregation of Alto Dale, Franklin Co., Pa. These alterations will be of a very radical character. There will be a semicircular end addition; the floor will be raised 18 to 24 inches higher, the walls will be made 4 feet higher; an entire new roof and roof timbers covered with best Peach Bottom slates; stained glass windows throughout; entrance doors changed to enter from the bell tower porches; new bell turret made higher; heating to be done by hot-air furnace; ceilings to be hardwood with hard oil finish; and side walls frescoed in a neat design. The work is to be let by contract, and will be begun at an early day.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Anson, Shelly & Garton will build five three-story dwellings, 17.2½ x 60 feet, at Forty-first Street and Westminster Avenue.

The report of the architect, John Ord, to the Public Building Commission, with regard to the amount necessary to complete the Public Buildings, will approximate four million dollars, which will likely be embodied in an ordinance to City Councils at an early day.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, SEPT. 6, 1893.

An Example for Calamity Howlers.

There is one man at least in this great city who has an abiding faith in the future prosperity of the American people, and while the calamity howlers have been doing their utmost to upset the whole business structure he has been quietly at work all summer preparing for a heavy fall trade that will surely come, besides perfecting the necessary preliminaries for still larger business on new lines.

As a manufacturer of wood mantels for builders and owners, Matthew Hall has for years justly merited full recognition as the leader; in fact, we doubt if there is another establishment in the city that presents such extensive show rooms, embracing such a variety of mantels in styles and woods as are on exhibition at his stores, 1927-29 and 31 Market Street, and while we aim to fully emphasize the importance of his Market Street establishments, which also include in their vast business interests, tiles, grates, fireplace furniture, as well as heating and ventilation, we desire to particularly impress upon our readers the fact that, notwithstanding the magnitude of Mr. Hall's mantel business, his manufacturing facilities are fully in keeping with his business, as can be clearly demonstrated to all who will visit his factory at Nos. 2, 4, 6 and 8 South Twenty-third Street, this city, which is under the management of Mr. Chas. C. Bonnet.

Established successfully for thirty years, and with resources similar to those of the large Trenton manufacturers, Mr. Hall has succeeded in demonstrating that artistic mantels of high and medium grades could be made in the business centre of Philadelphia, and marketed at prices no higher than those of equal quality made in the lumber districts of the far West.

The new lines referred to above include picture and mirror frames, all kinds of mouldings for the trade including many original designs, in white and finished, beside which particular attention will be given to fine hardwood interior work.

The present display of mantels and wardrobes embraces many new features, some of which express high artistic ability on the part of the designers as well as fine mechanical skill on the part of workmen.

A visit to Mr. Hall's establishments, with the view of meeting the newest and richest in his various lines, will prove time well spent.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

At Forty-Sixth and Chestnut a Baptist church, 34 x 66 feet, is to be erected by H. E. Cooper, contractor.

F. N. Forsyth will build two two-story brick and stone dwellings, 15.6 x 45 feet, on the south side of Venango Street, east of Ninth.

The contract for the erection of the annex to Emmanuel Methodist Episcopal Church of Manayunk has been awarded to Sylvester Yardley.

W. Milnor & Co. will put up a two-story brick dwelling, 16 x 54 feet, on the west side of Tacony Road, north of Margaret Street, Twenty-third Ward.

Wendell & Smith are still improving the Overbrook tract. Now they have two three-story stone and brick dwellings, 53.2 x 59, to erect on Lancaster avenue, east of City Avenue.

A two and one-half story stone and frame dwelling, 19.2 x 47 feet, will be built by George H. Minner, on the east side of York Road, south of Champlott Street, Twenty-second Ward.

Charles E. C. Warfield is to at once begin the erection of seventeen two-story brick dwellings, 14.5 x 37 feet each, on the north side of Clementine Street, east of E Street, Thirty-third Ward.

The Building Inspectors recently approved the plans of the Saxonia Maennerchor Society's club house to be erected on Second Street below Huntingdon, which has been heretofore described.

A three-story stone and brick home is to be erected for Presbyterian orphans at Forty-first and Baring Streets. George Hearst has the contract and the building will measure 21.6 x 42.6 feet.

William R. Dougherty secured the contract for the two-story brick and stone St. John's Orphanage, 42 x 103.2, on the west side of Forty-ninth Street, south of Wyalusing Avenue, work to start at once.

M. E. O'Brien, will erect a 2-story brick dwelling, 16 x 35, northeast corner of Thirty-sixth and Reed Streets; also a two-story brick store and dwelling, 16 x 38, northeast corner Reed and Grove Streets.

Nine two-story brick dwellings will be built by T. W. Smaltz, on the east side of Hancock street, north of Cambria Street; also a two-story brick store and dwelling at the northeast corner of Hancock and Cambria Streets.

Plans have been made for alteration and addition to the largest store of the Dempsey Brothers at Twenty-first Street and Columbia Avenue, these will be done under supervision of August S. Wade, architect, Hall Building, who prepared the drawings. Much interior work will be done.

Doyle & Doak, contractors, 1511-13 Moravian Street, have been awarded the contract to erect the new patrol station on the north side of Queen Street, west of Front. It will be of brick and stone, two stories high, fitted with electric work and all modern conveniences and appliances, considerable iron work will be involved.

A. A. Harner has outlined work in the Twenty-first Ward which comprises three three-story brick dwellings, 17 x 58 feet each, on the north side of Sumac street, east of Ridge Avenue; also a three-story brick store and dwelling, 24 x 70 feet, at the northeast corner of Sumac Street and Ridge Avenue; also four three-story brick stores and dwellings, 19 x 65 feet each, on the northeast side of Ridge Avenue, north of Sumac Street.

W. J. Shedwick & Bro. will build a three-story brick hotel on the northeast corner of Thirty-first and Spring Garden Streets. It will have a front of 30 feet and a depth of 70, and will contain about twenty rooms. It will be of Pompeian brick, and will contain all improvements. A handsome tower will ornament the corner. This operation follows out the handsome work of the Messrs. Shedwick in the way of building in West Philadelphia, and they will shortly start another large dwelling operation.

Chief Eisenhower, of the Bureau of City Property, lately issued a warrant for $13,000 to Francis McBride for the transfer to the city of thirteen properties on the lot ground Nos. 1215, 1217, 1219, and 1221 North Fourth Street, and extending through to Charlotte Street. The dimensions of the lot are 60 by 160 feet, and the transfer was made by authority of an ordinance of City Councils. Upon the site will be erected a large and handsome combination truck and engine-house for the use of the Bureau of Fire, to take the place of the truck-house on Lawrence Street below Girard Avenue, rented by the city from St. Peter's R. C. Church.

The damage done by the fire of the 2d inst., to the Heywood stores 1010-12-14 Race Street will at once be repaired by the owner, William Weightman. The entire structure was damaged but the upper floors sustained the heaviest loss.

The Eleventh Baptist Church has sold to William G. Patton a property containing 85 x 130 feet at the northwest corner of Twenty-first and Diamond Streets for $20,000. Mr. Patton has transferred the same property to William Gorman for a consideration of $22,500.

In the matter of the reported declination of Secretary Carlisle to accept the site for the U. S. Mint as proposed by Mayor Stuart and the Committee of the Board of Trade we append the result of a conversation with W. W. Foulkrod showing rather astonishment at the action of Mr. Carlisle. Mr. Foulkrod said: "When we went into the question of a site we secured the prices that the owners held on their property and gave them to the Secretary. We obtained definite figures except in the case of one small building and the Wister estate. Making a liberal allowance for these two the total figures did not reach $750,000, the amount of the appropriation available. At the same time the prices demanded for the properties were much too high. We knew this, and so did Mr. Carlisle. The Secretary was much annoyed about the matter, and for that reason he has as yet taken no action. There was never any trouble in securing figures. I am not inclined to think that the Secretary has declared the negotiations off because he could have received no figures except through us, and they were, as I said, under the appropriation, though some what excessive. Even if the properties held by private individuals were valued in the neighborhood of $800,000, the city could by reducing its terms to a nominal figure bring the total below the amount on hand. The value as given on their lots, $110,000, leaves a considerable margin. But even with this apportionment and with the high demands the total cost for the site is below the sum on hand. In the Sixth and Walnut Streets case $40,000 was spent on the condemnation on proceedings. If similar action is necessary in this instance it would not cost that sum, for the site is owned by fewer holders." Secretary Carlisle, in an interview on the 5th inst., said: "There is absolutely no foundation for that story. There is nothing determined and not likely to be anything determined immediately. That is a story as baseless as the current stories concerning the condition of the Treasury and what I am going to do about it. There are reports in newspapers nearly every day portraying my alleged inmost thoughts upon all manner of topics; usually upon topics to which I have given no thought whatever. I can trace these rumors to no reliable source, and hence pay no attention to them. You can state most positively that there is no ground for the story that the Broad and Cherry St. site is abandoned. I have heard nothing of the kind, and have given no indication to anybody that I have entertained such a thought."

A Few Quiet Words with House Builders and Owners.

If the kitchen of your house is small, you need to economize room. You can do this by using a range with elevated boiler, such as the

"FIDELITY."

It will reduce the cost of plumbing also. We make them with seven inch or eight inch boiler holes, ovens on right or left of fire, with or without hot closets, and also to heat an upper room. Splendid bakers. Hot water in abundance. The latest and best of their class.

FIDELITY HOT AIR RANGE WITH HORIZONTAL BOILER.

Excelsior Double Oven Range.

If the kitchen is roomy and large, cooking capacity is sought. You will want a brick-set range with a vertical circulating boiler, set in the usual way. The

are acknowledged all over Philadelphia, in which city and vicinity some 75,000 have been sold as the standard brick-set range. They are furnished with ventilated ovens, oven-door pedals, rocking grates, and all modern improvements. Made in seven and eight inch sizes; single, double and hot-air ranges. Send for descriptive pamphlet, entitled "PERFECT COOKING."

Architect Notes.

Superior Architect Lindermann, Assistant Architect Meier and Engineer of Public Works Caspar, all of Berlin, Germany, called upon Mayor Stuart on the 6th inst. They are visiting American cities with a view to examining into the American method of conducting public works and the possible adoption of such features as are superior to their own methods.

G. W. and W. D. Hewitt, architects, Bollitt Building, Philadelphia, having completed a revision of the drawings for the Bourse Building, have invited new estimates on the construction, which are to be in by September 14th. The designs are on exhibition at the office of Mr. Allen B. Rorke, general contractors, 1221 Spring Garden Street, where sub-contractors are making estimates.

Robert A. Pitts, architect, 224 South Third Street, has completed plans for seven fine dwellings, to be erected by John Airey, builder, on Chestnut Street west of Thirty-third. Also two others on Chestnut Street east of Thirty-sixth. These are to be of Pompeian brick fronts, with Indiana limestone trimmings, Spanish tile roofs; interior to be in hard woods, the work, best sanitary plumbing, electric bells and light, and the most recent improvements and comforts throughout. Cost about $6000 to $8000 each.

H. D. Dagit, architect, 706 Walnut Street, has made drawings for furnishing a very handsome bar-room at Coombs Alley and Chancery Lane for Mr. T. Callaghan. This will include bar in hard fancy wood as well as frames and glass work in rear, plumbing, copper work, etc. Also, preliminary sketches for a large seven-story office building to be erected in the vicinity of Seventh and Walnut Streets, to be of stone, brick and iron construction, furnished with elevators, steam heat, electric work, and will be thoroughly fireproof. The best system of plumbing and ventilation will be adopted. We shall note more fully in future.

John T. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut Street, has now completed plans and specifications for alterations and additions to the Capitol Building at Harrisburg, Pa. Also plans for the Executive and State Library Building at the same place. The latter will be of stone, brick and iron construction, heated by steam and furnished with every improvement and convenience, electric work, elevators, speaking-tubes, etc. The structure will be practically three stories high, state roof, and quite ornamental in design. Estimates are invited to be in by September 19th, 1893, addressed to "Gov. R. E. Pattison, Chairman of Building Committee, Harrisburg, Pa." The bids for the stone will be confined to several kinds of the product of this State.

Joseph D. Austin, architect to the Board of Education, 713 Filbert Street, has completed the drawings for the proposed new Boys' High School, and they were inspected by that body on the 12th inst. The new school will consist of a main building, which will be erected on the west side of Broad Street, and an annex extending in the rear to the residences on Fifteenth Street. The main building will front on Broad Street and also on Green Street, and this, as well as the annex, will be built of granite. The style of architecture is Gothic, which admits of an imposing structure on the corner of these important streets of the city. Buttresses will extend from the ground to the top of the buildings, where they will form turrets and pinnacles. An attractive roof will complete the beauty of the structure. The main entrance will be from Broad Street through a large doorway. The main hallways will be laid in tiles and mosaics. The upper floors will be reached by broad stairways. A side entrance leads from Green Street. The main assembly hall, or auditorium, will be in the main building, as will also the offices of the president and members of the faculty. These offices and the library will be on the first floor, easy of access. The upper floor will be devoted to class rooms so arranged that they may be opened into one large audience room. Laboratories completely equipped, a gymnasium and all needed accessories for a first-class school will be provided. The annex will be separated from the main building, but the second and third floors will be connected with an ornamental bridge. The Green Street side of the annex will follow the same style of architecture as the main building if the original plans are adhered to, and from that point of view the structure will be very handsome. The buildings will be set back from the regular building line, so as to give a greater width to the pavement and add to the character of the structures as a whole. "Every available help has been used in preparing the plans," Chairman Kavanagh, of the Property Committee said when speaking of the work entailed. Other similar school buildings have been visited and plans studied so that the Boys' High School in this city might not only contain the best of them all, but with such added advantages and facilities as to make it second to none other in the country.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

A three-story brick dwelling will be erected by James H. Heiser at 1328 South Front Street.

All the properties in the vicinity of Broad Street and Lehigh Avenue are being affected by the hump now being constructed by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Co., especially the hotel on the northeast corner of the above-named thoroughfare. All kinds of work will be done inside and out as well in order to make these stores and dwellings habitable and profitable.

In the Bureau of Water, on the 6th inst., Director Windrim opened proposals and awarded to Henry C. Nichols, for the sum of $39,222, the contract for erecting a new engine house at the Spring Garden pumping station, the building to be completed in four months. To Whetston & Co. was awarded a contract for supplying curb stops at $1.05 and $1.10 each. Bids for overflow basins and special castings were ordered to be scheduled before awarding the contract.

All of the major contracts for the masonry at the Pennsylvania Railroad Station, Broad and Market Streets, have now been let, George W. Roydhouse & Co. having just received the one for the upper story and roof, as well as about 500 feet of brick wall extending along Market Street as far as the Adams Express office. The same firm is about completing the work on the extension of the Provident Life and Trust Building, at Fourth Street and Ransdell Place. It will be some time before any further work will be contracted for, owing to certain unexpired leases of the property affected and owned by the company.

When Select Council assembled on the 7th inst. the communication from the Building Commission in reference to an appropriation was read and referred to the Finance Committee. The Commission also sent in a requisition. In accordance with the Act of Assembly of August 5, 1879, for $1,832,360.52 to carry out the work during the year 1894. The estimate of expenses for next year is itemized as follows: Salaries of architect and superintendent, $33,175; stationery and printing, $1750; bricks and brickwork, $25,000; cast and wrought iron work, $75,000; carpenter work, $25,000; labor, $80,000; lumber, $4000; hardware, $10,000; painting and glazing, $35,000; marble and marblework, $12,500; dressed stone, inside finish, $150,000; incidental material, $22,500; labor and cement, $5000; fitting and furnishing rooms for departments, $200,000; heating and ventilating, $80,000; vulcanite paving and asphalt flooring, $50,000; copper work, $5000; elevators, $100,000; electric lighting, $90,000; plastering, $75,000; plumbing and gas fitting, $50,000. PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, SEPT. 13, 1893.

"The Book of Philadelphia," the name chosen by the Trades League for its recent publication, is so thoroughly honest as a title to a collection of articles written by capable business and professional Philadelphians that no other title would half way express the great mass of information the book contains.

As a typographical production the book is a masterpiece, and yet its many beauties, both in print and in illustrations, are so greatly eclipsed by the masterly manner in which each subject has been handled, that the reader soon ceases to admire the book itself owing to the deep interest the reading of the respective articles excites. The book treats of so many interesting subjects and imparts such a vast amount of information about the city in which we live that an adequate criticism is almost impossible without a serious loss of space, that could not be afforded even by a daily journal. Let it suffice, therefore, to say that no subject touching upon the greatness of the city seems to have been omitted.

Mr. Frank H. Taylor as editor and artist of the work is really entitled to great credit for the excellent manner in which he has accomplished the difficult task allotted to him, for while he received the full support of the Trades League in every particular, yet it is largely due to his labors as well as judgment that the great success of the work has been attained.

The book is a most creditable acquisition to any library, and must command the attention of every one fortunate enough to meet it. It is to be largely distributed by the Trades League.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The burned paper mill at Twenty-fourth and Vine Streets is to be rebuilt by Contractor W. L. Atkins.

Michael Magee secured the contract to erect a six-story brick storehouse, 30 x 80 feet, on the east side of Hope Street south of Girard Avenue.

A one-story extension, to contain the organ of St. Stephen's Church, on Terrace Street west of Hermit, is to be built by Amos W. Barnes, engineer.

C. R. Kohl & Bro. will build a three-story brick and stone dwelling, 16 x 49 feet, on the south-east side of Miller Street, south-west of Mower, Twenty-second Ward.

An additional lot of ground has been bought by Edward Brill, at Sixty-first and Yocum Streets, for the purpose of increasing the car works at that point. Price paid was $14,000.

The power house of the Traction Company at Sutherland Avenue and Dean Street is to have an addition of nearly equal the size of the present plant, and the contract has been awarded to Samuel Hart & Sons, general contractors.

Henry G. Schultz, builder, 2633 Germantown Avenue, will build twenty-four two-story brick dwellings, 14.3 x 26 feet, on the north and south sides of Lippincott Street east of Park Avenue, also four two-story brick dwellings, 16 x 26 feet, at the four corners of Lippincott Street and Park Avenue.

Chief Engineer Brown, of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, on the 11th inst. notified George W. Roythouse & Co. of the acceptance of their bid for the construction of the remainder of the new depot above the eighth story, which will approximate $100,000.

The Lawyers' Club has secured a suite of rooms in the new Betz Building, and intend to fit them up in a very handsome manner. Hon. F. Carroll Brewster is the president, and Emanuel Furth, Esq., one of the very active gentlemen interested in the formation and prosperity of this organization.

W. F. Albrecht, the builder, will erect fifteen dwellings at once. All will be of brick. There will be two of threestories, 14 x 48 feet, on the west side of Thirty-one-and-a-half Street, North of Norris, and six three-story stores and dwellings, 15.6 x 60 feet, on the east side of Twenty-first Street, north of Susquehanna Avenue.

Chairman Gilbert, of a sub-committee of Councils' Committee on City Property, presented a report to the committee at a meeting yesterday recommending the property 4553 Germantown Avenue as a desirable location for the new fire truck house which is to be built in Germantown. It can be bought for $12,500. After some discussion, action upon the report was postponed until the Germantown Councilmen have been heard from.

After opening the bids, on the 5th inst. for the new school house to be erected at Seventeenth and Tasker Streets by the Committee on Property of the Board of Education, it was found that even the lowest bid, that of W. R. Dougherty, $66,100, was above the amount set aside for its construction. For the construction of the main building, without the wings, Charles O'Neil bid $58,900. The appropriation is only $50,000, hence no award could be made.

Messrs. Wm. Krause Sons, 1621 and 1623 North Fifth Street, assure us that this has been, thus far, their banner year for cement and asphalt work. They have recently become contractors for the new market house at Broad and Olive Streets; the new building, 831 Arch Street; also floors and pavements for new building for Jacob Miller's Sons, 926 and 928 Market Street; 20,000 feet of cement flooring for the Franklin Sugar Refinery; 6000 feet of cement floors for the cold storage warehouse, Delaware Avenue and Pine Street; 20,000 feet for the new building of the Segal Manufacturing Company, Cooper's Point; also pavements, yards and cellars of the new parochial house of Rev. Charles J. Ward, Third and Reed Streets. This firm has had all Summer twenty-five gangs of workmen constantly employed.

Through Pennsylvania.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Architect Notes.

Charles Balderston, architect, 320-24 Walnut Street, has completed the plans previously noticed in this journal for a two-story structure for H. E. & D. G. Yarnall, at 1029 Race Street, and estimates have been invited upon the work.

Cope & Stewardson, architects, 320-24 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, have made plans for an addition to the Pennsylvania Institute for the Deaf and Dumb, at Mt. Airy. Estimates are to be invited during the month of September, so as to make an early start this fall.

Walter Smedley, architect, 435 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, has made complete drawings for the alteration of the Geo. F. Lasher Building, 1213-15 Filbert Street. This will consist of entirely interior work, which will be very complete, electric work, steam heat and power, elevators, and best systems of plumbing and ventilation. Estimates have been invited upon the work.

Edwin F. Durang, architect, Twelfth and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, has prepared plans for a parochial residence for the parish at Wayne, Pa., under the care of Rev. Father Hand. The structure will be built in keeping with the well-established rule in that place, that nothing but the best workmanship and material will be used; it will be three stories high, stone and frame, electric work, and all modern improvements introduced.

Wagner & Reitmeyer, architects, Williamsport, Pa., have completed drawings for a handsome school building at Renovo, Pa., to be of brick, stone and open timber work, heated with hot air. The rooms will have slate black-boards; interior finished in Georgia pine. Have also completed plans for a double frame dwelling house for Mr. Lewis Gross, Bloomsburg, Pa., exterior to be shingles and clap-boards; to have good hardware and best plumbing, plate glass, and all modern improvements. Have also made plans for remodeling the Lutheran Church at Bloomsburg, Pa., to have a new tower and spire and stone arches over door and windows. They are now engaged in making drawings for remodeling the Music Hall Building, Lewisburg, Pa., to be arranged in amphitheatre style with horseshoe gallery; the third floor front will be fitted up for lodge purposes. The building will have new roof, and everything will be done to make the interior handsome and comfortable.

A syndicate of gentlemen have formed in Baltimore, Md., who will erect a very handsome theatre which will be under the immediate management of Nixon & Zimmermann, of this city. The projected theatre is to be erected on the north side of Lexington Street, at the corner of Kimmel Alley, and will extend westward 96 feet. The building will be on the west side of the street, below Eutaw Street, and will cost about $200,000. Mr. Martin Lehmayr, attorney for the company, says he has secured the last outstanding option, and Mr. Geo. C. Haskell, the well-known architect, has prepared plans for the new theatre. The builders will be William Ferguson & Bro., all of Baltimore, Md. The plans prepared by Architect Haskell, as stated, indicate a handsome structure. The style will be Italian Renaissance; the front being of Pompeian brick, with buff terra cotta trimmings. The front elevation will be from 70 to 80 feet in height, with a frontage of 93 feet 5 inches and a depth of 126 feet. Mr. Haskell has just returned from a tour of the Eastern cities, and the new theatre will be modeled after the most modern and best institutions of the kind in the country. Every means to secure prompt egress in case of fire have been looked after, and there will be at least eleven means by which people can pass out from the building in case of anything extraordinary happening. The lobby will be 15 x 43 feet while it is intended that there shall be hat, cloak, toilet and other rooms for the convenience of the public on the lower floor of the building. The stage will be a large one, the dimensions being 72 x 40 feet. There will be eleven private boxes. Mr. Haskell's plans do not contain any orchestra circle. The balcony will extend over the orchestra chairs a considerable distance, and will reach within thirty feet of the stage. There will be an asbestos curtain, while the entire building will be heated by steam. The seating capacity of the contemplated building will be about eighteen hundred, with standing room for several hundred more.

We have now a more detailed statement of the specifications and plans for the new State Library and Executive Building at Harrisburg, Pa., after drawing by John T. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, and which have been noted in brief before. Estimates are being made now. The building is to be far more commodious and elaborate than is generally supposed. It is to be built of stone with massive pillars, broad steps, alcoves, and recesses. The basement is perfectly finished and the rear of it will be used as a reading room in connection with the library in it. Files will be found of all the leading papers of the country as well as all prominent magazines, periodicals, etc. The first floor contains the Lieutenant-Governor's, State Treasurer's and Auditor-General's Departments. Each of these main rooms is provided with numerous side rooms for clerks; there is ample space for every one, all arrangements being made on a liberal scale. The first floor also contains two passenger elevators, and a public telegraph and telephone office. At the rear is the library, which occupies the basement, two stories and loft. The library now contains 98,000 volumes; space is in the new building for 250,000. The library, like all new ones is provided with small winding staircases reaching all the way to the ceilings of each room, and the second floor contains the library at the rear, the museum, the Governor's room, the Adjutant-General's Department, the Attorney-General's and the Secretary of the Commonwealth's Departments. Each of these, like the first floor, contains some half dozen side rooms for the use of clerks. In the loft are storerooms and skylights for the use of the museum and library. Running through the centre of the building is a magnificent arched driveway. Mr. Windrim is also architect for the improvements to be made in the main capitol building, for which $125,000 was appropriated by the last Legislature. These improvements embrace the raising and decorating of the ceiling in the House and Senate; the raising of the galleries in each place to the second floor; the increase of seating space 25 per cent. and the addition of some four rooms at the rear of both Senate and House. These improvements are made with the idea that the main building is of sufficient historic interest to be left standing always, even when the two smaller ones are torn down.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Wendell & Smith are to build a three-story stone and brick dwelling, 49.5 x 30.10, on the northeast side of Emlen Street, northwest of Franklin, Twenty-second ward.

John S. Stevens & Sons will enlarge their plant at Ninth Street and Montgomery Avenue, if the land adjoining can be secured upon satisfactory terms. Negotiations are now pending for the land.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, SEPT. 20, 1893.

ALTHOUGH Philadelphia has a magnificent park, of which we are justly proud, it must strike an ordinary observer that a very foolish and short-sighted policy is pursued by the majority of builders in building up so closely the newer sections of the city. With the exception of a few places where a specialty has been made of small lawns, row upon row of dwellings are erected yearly with no provision for air space save that afforded by a back yard—as small as the law allows—and the street in front. This method is all wrong, and might easily be changed were builders satisfied with less profits, and Council alive to its duty of buying up desirable tracts of ground, now vacant in different parts of the city, and thus providing breathing spaces for those who cannot find time and money to make frequent trips to Fairmount Park. Nothing more depressing can be imagined than the sight of these rows of brick dwellings of the same design, flanked by artificial pavements, and not a living green thing in sight; and yet ground is not so valuable in such parts of Philadelphia as to justify any such state of affairs. The trees along the sidewalks are dying year after year for lack of proper treatment, and outside of a few squares, scattered here and there, the ground is occupied year after year, without that provision for open spaces which characterized the far-seeing policy of William Penn. It should be a rule, rigidly enforced, that in all newly opened sections for building purposes, a certain amount of ground should be reserved for park purposes, and when the time comes—as come it will—when certain cemeteries must go, don't encounter that ground with row upon row of solidly built brick houses, but turn it into parks for the people, who will rise up and call blessed the man—or men—who shall cause such things to come to pass.

The sentiment of the whole community is for one dollar gas, and his Honor, the Mayor, will make a serious mistake if he does not unequivocally announce himself in favor of a 33.3 per cent. reduction. There are mountains of statistics available, such as the price in other cities remote from the coal centres, the cost of manufacturing in our own city, the enormous dividends paid by private companies to stockholders, all of which are too forcible and conclusive to be offset by groundless fears of a deficit.

The Trades League through its committee has analyzed the gas question most effectually, and the following resolution, adopted by the Board of Managers at its regular monthly meeting, held September 15th, 1893, specifically defines its position as well as sentiment:

WHEREAS, The Director of Public Works, and his Honor, the Mayor of Philadelphia, have both recommended to Councils the advisability of reducing the price of gas from $1.50 to $1.25 per 1000, thus recognizing the fact that the present rate is too high. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Board of Managers of the Trades League the reduction ought to be made to $1.00 at once, believing that the increased consumption and decreased cost of production at this popular figure would more than make up the difference; and be it further

Resolved, That our Committee on Municipal Affairs be requested to present the matter to Councils, using their best influence in having an ordinance to this effect presented and passed.

THE Board of Education has given a contract for type writers to be used in the commercial department of the city schools to Messrs Wyckoff, Seaman & Benedict, manufacturers of the world-renowned Standard Remington. This is certainly a very creditable victory for the Remington, as the competition among the different makers for such a prominent endorsement was exceedingly lively.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

A three-story brick stable, 40x80 feet, for boarding and sale purposes, will be erected by John W. DeLong, on the east side of Thirty-fifth Street, north of Haverford.

The Geo. W. Blabon Oil Cloth Co. will add another story to their already extensive plant, facing on the Reading Railroad, between Twenty-first and Twenty-second Streets.

Contractor Caldwell is building a large dwelling, patterned after Manheim's Colonial Club House, on West Walnut Lane, for Dr. Norton Downes, at a probable cost of $30,000.

William C. Mackie has the contract to construct a handsome stone stable, two stories high, 23 x 48 feet, on the west side of Stenton Avenue, north of Bell's Mill road, Twenty-second ward.

David Roberts has commenced what promises to be the finest house in Moorestown, at Chester and Maple Avenues. It will be principally of frame. Walter Smedley is the architect.

Wendell & Smith have secured permits for two more large houses on the land of the Carpenter estate. The contractors expect to have fifty houses under roof on this tract before Winter.

Mount Zion Baptist Church has paid for and transferred the old Almshouse property in Germantown, upon which, as previously noted in this journal, they intend to erect a new church.

Plans were approved on the 18th inst. by the Building Inspectors for the power house to be erected at Delaware Avenue and Race Street for the People's Traction Company. The building is to be of brick, two stories high, 84 x 150 feet.

Walter P. Stokes is adding to his greenhouses on Chester Avenue. The Moorestown Electric Light Company is building a 16-foot addition to the station to accommodate a 200 horse-power Corliss engine, and other improvements are contemplated.

Alexander Cowan will build three two-story brick stores and dwellings, 16x45 ft each, on the east side of Second Street, south of McKean; also two two-story brick stables, 14x22 ft each, on the west side of Hancock Street, south of McKean.

Plans are now in course of preparation for a six-story addition to be built to the plant of the Thorn Structural Iron Company, on Callowhill Street, east of Thirteenth, where a lot 35 x 90 feet has been secured. The new building will conform architecturally with the one now occupied by the concern.

The proposition to enlarge the Hotel Vendig, at the northwest corner of Market and Twelfth Streets, has again come up for consideration. The house has proved a success, and the plans prepared by Architect Stuckert have been approved, and it is understood that the work will proceed at an early date.

The new house for the Bachelors' Barge Club on the river drive, East Park, will be begun within a very few days by Arthur H. Williams' Sons, who have the contract. The old structure has been torn down and the new house will cover the former site and additional ground. It will be two stories high, of stone and brick, 40 x 84 feet in the main building and a side building 9.6 x 42 feet.

A. J. Foster is building a two-and-a-half-story frame double cottage on South Church Avenue, Moorestown, N. J. One side will be occupied by himself. Bartholomew Sutton is building a house on similar plans, immediately adjoining. William Mortland is building a nice cottage on Second Street, to cost about $2800. Elmer Maines is building a cottage on South Church Avenue, and his father, George Maines, is building a residence on West Main Street.

LEARY'S OLD BOOK STORE,

No. 9 South Ninth Street,

(First Store below Market St.) PHILADELPHIA

The rooms of the Columbia Club are to be entirely renovated and considerable additions made in order to add to the comfort of the members. Franklin M. II arris is the indefatigable chairman of the Entertainment Committee, and is assisted by a number of other members in making this a cozy club home.

Henry Spare, 1344 Ridge Avenue, has been awarded contracts for painting, frescoing, etc., on the following: Dwelling N. E. cor. Fifteenth and Thompson Streets, Mr. Chas. Holzer, owner; dwellings, 1924 and 1926 Spring Garden Street, Mr. Frank Pierson, owner; dwelling, N. E. cor. Thirty-seventh and Chestnut Streets, Mr. M. Errisman, owner; dwelling, 1608 Wallace Street, Jas Lyons, owner.

The contract to build the Bourse has been awarded to Allen B. Rorke. This action was taken after considerable discussion by the managers and a modification of their requirements. It was found when the original bids were opened that all were above the limit of price set by the managers, and these gentlemen finding Mr. Rorke's bid nearest in consonance with their funds, concluded to scale the work so as to bring it within the limits of the bid. The exact amount has not been made public owing to some slight figuring among sub-contractors, but Mr. Rorke has the contract, and with his usual energy will prosecute the work to speedy finish.

Twenty-second Ward builders are busy finishing up. Some of them have new contracts to dispose of. Contractor Gruhier is completing a large factory, a boiler house, stable, shedding and offices for the Ellwood Ivans Metal Pipe Company, at Oak Lane, cost $5000; a colonial house on Gravers Lane, Chestnut Hill, for E. F. Hoffmann, cost $12,000; alterations and additions to the residence of Mr. A. G. Elliott, on West Johnson Street, near Jefferson Street, Germantown, cost $5000; six houses on Mt. Pleasant Avenue, Mt. Airy, for Barton Gemmi, cost $25,000, and a house on York Road for Mrs. E. M. Davis, cost $10,000. Mr. Gruhier is constructing a house for E. H. Hance on West Washington Lane, cost $7000, and a stable for Mr. Freed on Wissahickon Avenue near Queen Lane, cost $3500.

Contractor Hearst is completing an odd-shaped building for H. K. Cummings on West Tulpehocken Street, which will cost about $30,000. The building is of colonial, Spanish and Italian style of architecture, with brick walls with limestone trimmings. An attractive feature is the second story balcony, extending from the dwelling a distance of 27 feet over the porte cochere, and other balconies supported by colonial pillars. The front is 112 feet. The roof is Spanish tiled, and mahogany and quartered oak are being used in the interior finish. A large stable is in the rear of a similar style of architecture. Mr. Hearst has been awarded the contract for a three-story stone and brick addition to the Presbyterian Home for Orphan Children, at West Philadelphia. These have been noted at length in previous numbers of this journal.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Architect Notes.

David B. Provoost, architect, Elizabeth, N. J., sends the following report of building operations in that city: "The new improvements now in course of construction by the Central Railroad has caused quite a number of residents above the line to remodel their dwellings and places of business. Many of these are now in process, while plans are being prepared for others. The First National Bank will make large improvements, new vaults, and general internal work. The city is at present building two new engine and fire houses, with all modern improvements. Quite a falling off has been noticed in this locality of new structures as compared with last year.

Walter Smedley, architect, 435 Chestnut Street, has made plans and specifications for the new office building of Norris J. Scott, 1213 and 1215 Filbert Street; when finished it will have eighty-seven rooms in all, the halls will be mosaic work, side halls all tiled, toilet-room on every floor, two high speed hydraulic elevators, hot and cold water in every office, electric light. He expects to have his own electric plant. The whole building will be fitted throughout with all the latest improvements for a complete and attractive office building, and being so conveniently located to both the great railroad depots and to the Public Buildings he thinks that the offices will be readily disposed of. Estimates have been asked for the work.

Bolton & Hibbard, architects, 1510 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, have made plans for alterations and general interior work at 1811 Vine Street, for D. B. Martin. This will include steam heat and best plumbing, stained glass and decorations, tile work—best of work in all particulars. Also plans for four houses and stores to be erected on Columbia Avenue, above Twenty-first Street, to be of Pompeian brick with English red-stone trimmings, large glass windows for stores, best of interior work, electric wiring, hardwood, plumbing, heating and ventilation. Re-estimating is going on in their office for the Methodist Church, previously noted, at Long Branch, N. J. The Baptist Church, at Forty-sixth Street and Chester Avenue has been changed to another lot of ground than the one first purchased, and for which excavations had been made.

David S. Gendell, architect, 2219 Chestnut Street, has prepared the plans for a new church building, which will seat about 700 persons. It will soon be erected by the congregation of Mt Zion Baptist Church, colored, on the site occupied by the old Germantown Almshouse, on Rittenhouse Street, near Main. The building is expected to cost about $20,000. The congregation now worship in the old Axford building, nearly opposite the newly purchased plot. The pastor of the congregation, the Rev. Morton Winston, announces that the arrangements for carrying out the project are about completed. The new edifice will be of stone, with a brownstone finish, and will be two stories high. The dimensions are to be 50 x 90 feet. The first floor will be used for regular services, while the second floor will be arranged for Sunday school purposes, pastor's study and library. Previously noted in this journal in Building Notes.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

James Creighton is to build three two-story houses on Garnet Street, southwest of Somerset.

Three two-story brick dwellings, 15 x 30 feet each, will be built by Wright & Dager on the north side of Jefferson Street, east of Wood.

J. Franklin Moss, builder, will at once begin the erection of twenty two-story dwellings on the north and south sides of Herman Street, west of Thirty-second Street, all to be of pressed brick with stone steps and trimmings, and interior improvements.

A builder, having secured the two properties on the north side of Christian Street, west of Third, on the west side of Ebenezer Methodist Episcopal Church, proposes to erect thereon a Hebrew tenement, with a front of 39 feet and a depth of 100 feet, having an arched opening from the street leading into a courtyard. Plans for such a structure have been drawn, but the church people are making a vigorous protest.

Secretary Carlisle, of the Treasury Department at Washington, D. C., has determined upon the location of the site for the U. S. Mint at Broad and Cherry Streets, and will direct the proper officers of the government to proceed at once to the task of transfer of such property as may be needed. This action is mainly due to the special efforts of Mayor Edwin S. Stuart and P. A. B. Widener, of this city, who went upon a special mission, with the results above noted.

The new Epiphany Lutheran Church, at Wood and Green Streets, Manayunk, is now under roof, and work upon the interior will be pushed with vigor. Previously noted in this journal. Also the new Grammar School for Boys at the same place has been started, and the superstructure is being pushed forward. This ward will be largely improved in the way of main and branch sewers; $40,000 will be spent in addition to the completion of work now under way in this locality.

The corner-stone of the new building of the Northeast Branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, Frankford Road and Norris Street, was laid on Saturday, the 23d inst., by ex-Postmaster General Wanamaker, with impressive ceremonies. This structure has been fully noted in previous numbers of this journal. The plans were prepared for the building by Hazelhurst & Huckle, architects.

A dispatch from Harrisburg, Pa., on the 20th inst., announced the fact that the commission on building the new State Library at that place had awarded the contract to Doyle & Doak, general contractors, 1511 Moravian Street, and work would be started by October 1st. A full description of the structure was given in previous numbers of this journal. John T. Windrim, 1107 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, prepared all plans, and will supervise its construction as well as the repairs and additions to the State Capitol Building, which has been also noted.

Builder J. C. Moore has made application to the Bureau of Building Inspectors for a permit for five dwellings to be built on the west side of Belmont Avenue, south of City Avenue, the beginning of an operation of about 200 houses which he proposes to erect in that neighborhood. The houses are to be of brick, two stories high, 14 x 28 feet, with back buildings 10 8-12 x 12 feet. The ground on which they are to be built is the Haubert property, near that of Budd Doble, the horseman. The site contains ten acres, and the operation as mapped out will necessitate the opening of several streets.

The Board of Surveyors, on the 18th inst., heard witnesses for and against approving a number of proposed changes of street lines, the most important being that for the contemplated enlargement of the Cramps shipyard. This plan provides for the vacation of Delaware Avenue from the Aramingo Canal to Cumberland Street; Ball, Norris, Plum and Rush Streets east of Richmond; Beach Street from a point near Aramingo Canal northeast to Cumberland Street; Clayborne and Atisan Streets, from East Norris to Ball Street. Richmond Street is also to be widened to 110 feet from the north line of Cumberland Street to Aramingo Canal. A number of property owners, who will be affected by the change, were present to protest, but the majority made it merely as a formality, being satisfied if they got the full value of the properties. After hearing all those present the further consideration of the plan was postponed until the first meeting in October.

Roofing Plates 60 Feet Long.

The American idea of going the "whole length" in everything, was never more forcibly exemplified than it is at present in American roofing plate. Messrs. Merchant & Co., of this city, are announcing, through a special card to the trade, that they have now on sale American tin roofing plates 60 feet long and 20 inches wide, each containing 100 square feet.

These plates are formed and joined automatically, and are soldered while in process of coating.

This is an original American idea, and intended to save labor to roofers.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

William Chambers will build eight two-story brick dwellings, 14 x 28 feet each, at Twenty-fifth and Clarence Streets.

The Vulcanite Paving Company will put up a one-story brick and stone engine house and kiln at the foot of Commerce Street, Eighteenth Ward.

Joseph Timalo has the contract to erect a three-story brick dwelling, 19.9 x 55 feet, on the northwest side of Woodland Avenue, north of Cemetery Lane.

Quin & Crosta will build two two-story brick and frame dwellings, 15 x 40 feet each, on the northwest side of Salmon Street, southeast of Leiper, Twenty-fifth Ward.

Eli Leach has secured the contract for a three-story stone dwelling, 20 x 40 feet, on the northeast side of Bellfield Avenue, north of Penn Street, Twenty-second Ward.

Four two-story stone and brick dwellings, 16 x 40 feet each, are to be erected by Ludwig Lambrecht on the southeast side of Glenwood Avenue, between Reese and Fairhill Streets.

J. Frantz will erect three three-story dwellings at 1425-7-9 Susquehanna Avenue.

Lloyd Bailey will at once begin the erection of twenty-three two-story houses on Dennis Street, west of Wayne Avenue. All to be of press brick, stone trimmings and best interior work.

A set of ten tubular chimneys have been presented by Miss Riegel to St. Peter's Protestant Episcopal Church, Germantown. It is expected they will be in place in the tower by All Saints' Day, November 1st, when they will be rung for the first time.

Wendell & Smith are prepared to go ahead with three more of their handsome new residences, at Lancaster and City Avenues, Overbrook. These are of stone and frame construction, hard wood in interior, with the best of accommodations and improvements.

A permit was issued on the 23d inst. for the improvements Dempsey Bros., furniture dealers, propose to make to their store and adjoining properties at Twenty-first Street and Columbia Avenue. Several adjoining properties are to be enlarged and altered for store purposes.

The Arnholt & Schaefer Brewing Company has completed arrangements for the erection of a large new stock house in the vicinity of Thirty-first and Thompson Streets. The contract has been awarded to J. R. Wiggins, and it is understood that he will commence building at once.

Germanic Artificial Stone Pavement Co. Frank Brennan, proprietor, 1541 South Fifteenth Street, has secured contracts for all cement work on the following: 40 houses for Wm. McCarter, Forty-first Street and Girard Avenue; 40 houses for John McConaghy, Forty-seventh Street and Woodland Avenue; 25 houses for Andrew Miller, Twentieth and York Streets; new dwelling for Mr. Raggio, northeast corner Broad and Mifflin Streets.

William S. P. Shields, the real estate operator, has secured an option upon six lots near Ninth and Locust Streets, upon which he contemplates erecting a mammoth flat house, wholly different in scope and arrangement from the apartment house known hereabouts. Perhaps the word tenement better describes the building. It will be fourteen stories high, with a cafe in the basement and roof garden. The rooms will be arranged en suite, and the rentals will range from $20 to $35 per month, according to location and size.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

They will be of brick, with stone trimmings, handsome interior finish and modern conveniences and improvements.

Sauer, 547 Liberty Avenue.—Longfellow, Alden & Harlow, 89 Vandergrift Building, will prepare plans for three colonial dwellings, to be erected for W. C. Stewart. The estimated cost is $30,000. They will be handsomely finished on the interior, and all modern conveniences and improvements will be introduced.

At Haddonfield, Camden Co., F. N. Evans has purchased two lots on Peyton Avenue, and will erect dwellings next Spring.

At Delair, Camden Co., the dwelling of David Taylor, of the National State Bank of Camden, was destroyed by fire last week at a loss of about $4000.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

The firm are still on a quiet hunt for a site on which to build an immense structure, but at present matters are in embryo.

Albert W. Dilks, architect, 1001 Chestnut Street, has made plans for alterations and additions to residence 1919 Spruce Street for Simon Gratz, Esq. These include almost wholly interior work, new dining-room, sitting-room, library, pantry, laundry, baths, electric work, the finest of culinary arrangements, heating and ventilations. Estimates are now being considered.

These are to be of Roman brick and frame construction, shingle roof, furnished on interior with hard wood, fine stairways, best of sanitary and electric work, and improved ranges as well as steam heat. The same architects have made plans for a house at same place for Mr. Reed, to be of stone and same as the above described houses as to interior work. Estimates are being made for the work.

T. Roney Williamson, architect, 136 South Fourth Street, is making plans for a number of buildings for a stock farm at Bryn Mawr, Pa. Owner, B. Frank Clyde. These consist of three large breeding stables, storehouse, etc., all to be fitted with electric work, steam heat, by the Jas. P. Wood Heating Company. The structures are of frame and stone. Also plans for a new residence for W. W. Hood, at Ardmore, Pa., to be of stone, three stories high, shingle roof, best of interior work and accommodations, including hard wood, electric work, best of sanitary plumbing, etc.

Also plans for a dwelling house operation of a fine class. Particulars later.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Ground has been broken for an addition to the Ambler Methodist Episcopal Church. It is to be 28 x 32 feet, and will about double the seating capacity of the church.

Repairs are being made to the large three-story stable belonging to William F. Albrecht, at Thirtieth and Diamond Streets. The building was seriously damaged by fire on August 15th.

J. O. Ashenfelder, builder, will erect eleven two-story stone and brick dwellings on the east side of Ninth Street, north of Indiana Avenue, to have all modern improvements on interior.

A permit has been secured by Contractor Aschbacher for the erection of eleven two-story stone and brick dwellings on the east side of Ninth Street, north of Indiana Avenue, all to be of press-brick and stone facings, best interior work.

The Polish R. C. Church has had plans prepared for a new building of worship, a school house and parsonage. These buildings are to be of frame, and are to be constructed on the west side of Thompson Street, north of Orthodox. The church is to be a one-story building with a frontage of 40 feet and a depth of 60 feet. The school house is to be constructed of the same material and will be 20 feet wide by 40 deep. The parsonage will also be two stories high, and will have a frontage of 17 feet and depth of 40 feet. In a few days Frank I. Wintz will begin work on the construction of these buildings.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Five handsome stone and brick dwellings will be built by McCoach & Johnston, at Forty-seventh Street and Windsor Avenue, Twenty-seventh Ward. Each house will be three stories and mansard, and will measure 24 x 50 feet on lots 37 x 80 feet.

For $10,000, Joseph Fitzell, the well-known real estate operator, has transferred to Owen McArdle the property, 100 by 333 feet, fronting on the northeast side of Somerset Street and on the northwest side of Mephis Street. Upon this lot Mr. McArdle will erect about 60 houses.

It is altogether likely that Hugh Boyd & Son will secure the contract for the plastering upon the new library building to be erected by the State at Harrisburg. The general contractors, Doyle & Doak, have not yet closed with all the sub-contractors, but will do so within a week.

Work is soon to be started on the new church to be erected on the north side of Green Street, below Twenty-fourth Street. The lot is 100 x 125 feet, and the structure will be of stone, with a front of Indiana limestone. The name of the new parish is St. Francis Xavier R. C., and under the patronage of the Augustinian Fathers.

Contractor Joseph Bird is to commence work on a three-story brick paint warehouse for H. E. & D. G. Yarnall, at 1028 Race Street. The building is to be 30 feet in front by 176 feet in depth. This work has been noted in "Architectural Notes" of a previous number. Plans by Walter Smedley, architect, 435 Chestnut Street.

Doyle & Doak's securities were approved by the State Commission for building the new State Li vary at Harrisburg, Pa., and active work began on the 2d inst. A full description of this structure has been given in this journal. The whole will be under the direct supervision of Mr. John T. Windrim, architect, who prepared the drawings.

One of the features of the new Broad Street Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad will be an iron and glass porch, extending around the building on Market and Broad Streets. Councils' Committee on Police granted the company permission to build the porch, which will afford protection from storm to travelers, as well as fulfill the other purposes for which it will be built.

The Atlantic Refining Company has applied to the Bureau of Building Inspectors for a permit authorizing them to erect four buildings at Point Breeze to be used in connection with their large plant. These buildings include two pressing-rooms, a boiler house and mess room, measuring respectively 74.6 x 124, 64.6 by 110.6, 50 x 40 and 16 x 30 feet. The permit was granted, and the work will proceed at once. These new buildings will cost about $125,000.

The decision of Judge Hemphill, of Chester County, against the constitutionality of the law passed at the last session of the Legislature protecting sub-contractors in the right of lien is causing considerable comment in this city and a desire to see the matter speedily settled in the Supreme Court. The law was drawn up at the instance of the Master Builders' Exchange of this city by one of the leading lawyers of Philadelphia, and was generally supposed to be sound.

A. S. Tourison, contractor and builder, of Mount Airy, has received the contract for the erection of a large hotel on Main Street, above Church, Germantown, for Patrick Shields. It will be three stories high, of pressed brick front and will contain twenty rooms, with an oriole bay window. It will be finished in white and hard wood and will be fitted up with all the modern conveniences. The cost of the building will be about $10,000. Operations will be commenced at once.

On Wednesday evening last a number of persons who have been worshipping for some time past in the church on the corner of Forty-sixth Street and Kingsessing Avenue met and organized a congregation, to be known as the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Incarnation. The following were elected vestrymen:—Messrs. E. Heintz, Alice Brown, W. E. Morey, L. C. Maunfeld, F. M. Henke and J. Howard Brown, and a call was extended to the Rev. John W. Horine to become pastor of the new congregation.

Archbishop Ryan has purchased a large lot on the west side of Forty-third Street, north of Wallace, as a site for a new Roman Catholic parish property. The Rev. William Meinen, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, East Mauch Chunk, was requested some time ago to examine the district with the end in view of organizing a new parish for the German Catholics. Finding a sufficient number of families, he reported favorably, and was authorized to secure a site for a new church.

Councils' City Property Committee have acted favorably on the report of the sub-committee appointed to secure a piece of ground for fire purposes in Germantown, the report recommending the purchase of the property at Main and Seymour Streets, occupied by a market building, for $13,000. It will require about $500 to convert the building into a truck house. The ordinance to purchase the property at Twenty-sixth and York Streets, for $5000, for fire department purposes, was reported to Councils favorably.

The ground on the north side of Lehigh Avenue, between Twenty-third and Twenty-sixth Streets, acquired by builder William F. Albrecht has been marked out for five blocks of houses, which the purchaser proposes to erect in the Spring. The five blocks front on Lehigh Avenue, Showaker and Hare Streets, which run east and west, and on Twenty-third, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Streets, which extend north and south. They are to accommodate 200 dwellings. The builder's idea at present is to have these dwellings three stories high, with pressed brick fronts with brownstone trimmings and front porches, after the style of cosy West Philadelphia homes.

Upon petition of the city, filed in the Quarter Sessions Court, Judge Arnold has appointed Michael Nisbet, Robert S. Reed, T. R. Patton, Edward Robbins, John O'Donnel and James C. Shedwick jurors to assess damages for the taking of land and the opening of Stephen E. Fottrell Square. The new pleasure ground is to be situated between Cumberland and York and Eleventh and Twelfth Streets, in the Twenty-eighth Ward. It was placed upon the city plan by ordinance of Councils, approved March 10th, 1892, and on the 23d of last December another ordinance of Councils was approved, authorizing the immediate opening of the square, and directing the City Solicitor to begin such proceedings as were necessary for the condemnation of the land.

The largest transaction in real estate that has been consummated for many months was closed on September 27th, when W. S. P. Shields took title to five hundred acres of land in the Twenty-seventh ward. The property extends from Forty-ninth to Ninetieth Street, south of Woodland Avenue, and is traversed over its entire length and breadth by the tracks of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore, and Reading Railroads. It fronts on the Delaware, the Schuylkill and Darby Rivers, and is the prospective site for a manufacturing district that will rival Kensington in importance. The land ranges in value from $500 to $25,000 an acre and is so divided as to provide dwellings in close proximity to the factory sites, and Mr. Shields proposes to build the dwellings as rapidly as the factories create a demand. It is not proposed to interest manufacturers in the land unless their product is of such a character as to give employment to large numbers of men, so that the necessary municipal improvements can be brought into perfection promptly.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1893.

PRICE 15 CENTS

Architect Notes.

Angus S. Wade, architect, Hale Building, Philadelphia, is preparing plans for an additional story and alterations to the summer house of Geo. S. Graham, District Attorney, at Spring Lake, N. J. These will include electric work, as well as other minor comforts.

John F. Stuckert, architect, 49 North Thirteenth Street, Philadelphia, has made plans for a country house at Overbrook, Pa., for William A. Nicholais, to be stone and frame, three stories high, hard wood, electric work, steam heat, and all modern conveniences. Estimates are being made on the work by contractors.

Horace Trumbauer, architect, 310 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, has made plans for a large stock stable for W. W. Frazer, to be erected at Willow Grove, Pa. The structure to be of stone and frame work, 96 x 225 feet, fitted in interior with many improvements, including electric work, cement floors, finest drainage and plumbing system, and the cost will approximate about $20,000. It is desired to start work about the 15th inst.

E. F. Durang, architect, southwest corner of Twelfth and Chestnut Streets, Philadelphia, has on board drawings for a very fine parochial residence for the Church of St. Catherine, R. C., at Wayne, Delaware Co., Pa., Rev. Father Hand in charge. The structure will be of stone, brick and shingle work, hard wood interior, steam heat and electric work, also best sanitary plumbing, etc. The building will stand east and south of the present chapel, on Lancaster Pike. The same architect will, in the near future, prepare the plans for a large stone church, to be built on the same ground, which we shall note hereafter. Proposals will soon be asked on the dwelling noted above. Same architect has made all plans in detail for enlargement of the parochial school, rear of the R. C. Church, Broad and Susquehanna Avenue. This will be the raising of one story, and giving additional class-rooms, to be of the same stone material as the present structure, and fitted with all improvements and comforts.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

William McCoach has taken title to considerable ground at Forty-seventh Street and Windsor Place.

John Donahue has bought two dwellings, each having 20 feet by 105 feet front on the north side of Market Street, east of Fortieth, which he intends to alter into stores.

Bids will be invited by Addison Hutton for a building to be erected on the grounds of the Pennsylvania Hospital.

The Directors of the Free Public Library will meet the present week to take some action in regard to a site for the proposed building.

William S. Grubler, of Germantown, has a contract to build an $11,000 stone residence at the northwest corner of School and Pulaski Streets.

Chas. E. C. Warfield, builder, will at once begin the erection of thirty-five two-story dwellings on Lippincott Street, east of F, all to be of brick and stone, with best accommodations.

John M. Serrill, builder, will at once erect twelve dwellings on Thirty-third and one-fourth Street, south of Norris, all to be of press brick, stone trimmings and best interior accommodations.

Killbough Bros., builders, are about to start fifteen two-story dwellings on Wolf, Stuart and Dillware Streets, down town, and they will have all modern conveniences, including press brick fronts, stone facings and steps.

C. B. Peacock, 3909 North Fifth Street, will erect a three-story store and dwelling on the northwest corner of Poplar and Alder Streets. It will be 20 x 48 feet, of brick, and will contain modern conveniences and improvements.

The Edwin W. Patton Club, of the Twenty-seventh Ward, has awarded a contract to George Saur to erect a club house at Tincum Road and Eighty-third Street, to be of stone and frame construction, with good interior conveniences.

Jas. H. Stevenson & Son, builders, Thirtieth Street and Ridge Avenue, are about to erect thirty-two dwelling houses on Norris and Page Streets, near Thirty-second, all to be of the finest material, with press brick, stone steps and facings, and test improvements in interior.

John R. Wiggins, general contractor, has taken new offices at 1111 Arch Street, and fitted them in a most comfortable manner, his former rooms at 1536 Seybert Street having proved too small for an increasing business. Mr. Wiggins is now estimating upon several jobs of interior and exterior work.

Brennan & Bro., contractors, 1623 South Seventeenth Street, have secured the contract to erect a three-story dwelling on east side of Broad Street below Moore, for J. Lister Smith. Dimensions 18 x 70 feet. Brick with brown stone trimmings. Modern interior and all latest improvements.

J. R. Wiggins, contractor, laid the plans of the proposed Arnhold & Schaeffer brewery building before the inspectors on the 3d inst. As designed the building is to be a four-story stone structure, 25 by 105 feet, located at Thirty-first and Thompson Streets. This work has been noted before in this journal.

Extensive alterations and additions are to be made by George Payne & Co., contractors, to the type foundry buildings of MacKellar, Smiths & Jordan, on the south side of Sansom Street, east of Seventh. The cost will be about $10,000. This firm was reported some time ago to be looking for a new foundry site. This work was noted in our issue of last week.

James Mann & Co., steam stone works, Thirtieth and Locust Streets, have secured contract for furnishing the brown stone for a handsome four-story dwelling for Dr. L. W. Steinbach, to be erected at 1309 North Broad Street. The entire front of the dwelling is to be of brown stone of very ornamental design. Baker & Dallett, Fifth and Walnut Streets, are the supervising architects.

Next year Thirty-third Street will be asphalted from Montgomery Avenue to Diamond Street, and from Susquehanna Avenue to Ridge Avenue. A number of dwellings will be erected between Diamond Street and Susquehanna Avenue; also between Oxford Street and Columbia Avenue. Councils have been asked to appropriate $180,000 for bridges over the Pennsylvania and the Reading railroads.

In addition to projected brewery buildings already mentioned, a stock house is to be erected for the Louis Bergdoll Brewing Company on the north side of Parrish Street, west of Twenty-eighth. The building is to be of concrete and brick, four stories high, and will cover a ground space of 142 x 89.11 feet. It will cost about $85,000. Frank Sweeney & Co., who have the contract, took out a permit on the 4th inst. to commence operations.

The Board of District Surveyors, at its meeting on the 2d inst., heard additional testimony upon the plans for widening Richmond Street and making it a continuation of Delaware Avenue, and for vacating a number of streets in the neighborhood east of Richmond Street. The plan which was most favorably received by a majority of the large property owners affected provides for widening Richmond Street to 110 feet from Cumberland in a straight line south to a point on Beach Street, north of Palmer, which is not far from the present terminus of Delaware Avenue. The cost of the improvement is estimated at about $400,000. The matter will be considered in executive session by the board before the plan is adopted.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, OCT. 11, 1893.

MR. CHARLES R. DEACON, at present the very capable and affable press agent of the Philadelphia and Reading R. R. Co., will, in all probability, be appointed to a similar position with the Lehigh Valley. This will impose upon him double duties, which to one of his vast resources will be simply an enlargement of his present scope of usefulness to the great pleasure and satisfaction of every newspaper man in the State.

The Lien Law Unconstitutional.

Judge Hemphill, in the case of David McMasters, a sub-contractor vs. the West Chester Normal School, tried recently at West Chester, Chester Co., has emphatically declared the Pennsylvania lien law giving sub-contractors the right to lien, unconstitutional. Davis Pennock was the contractor for the erection of the building known as Recitation Hall. He contracted with McMasters to furnish Indiana limestone and blue stone amounting to $2461.90, which was used in the construction of this building. Judge Hemphill concludes a very able and exhaustive resume of the decisions bearing upon the principles of law and equity involved and concludes by saying that this act of the Legislature violates the fundamental principles of the law of both contracts and agency, eliminating from the one mutuality of assent and from the other the authorization of the principal.

The act trespasses upon those inherent and infeasible rights of property with which the people have never parted, but on the contrary have expressly excepted out of the general powers of government, and declared should forever remain inviolate and is therefore unconstitutional and void.

The case will probably be appealed to the Supreme Court.

The Progressive Cigar Store.

You smoke? Of course you do, and you know, or ought to know, that, inasmuch as most stores are controlled by a uniform standard of prices, the standard of quality is as vagarious as the color of a cat's kittens. Hence the man that will give you the most of that fragrant, satisfying and gratifying bouquet or quality in the cigars you buy, whether your limit be confined to the popular five cent cigar or the more expensive kind, he is the man you will patronize after you have found him out.

The Progressive Cigar Store at the N. E. Corner of Tenth and Chestnut Streets is controlled and owned by Mr. Sam Welsh, who is also the owner of several stores in Buffalo, Washington, D. C., and other places. Mr. Welsh is not only a buyer of large lots of the choicest and most popular brands of high price goods, but he probably manufactures more five cent cigars of a single brand than any retailer in the country. This brand, the Progressive, is now recognized as the leading, as well as the best, five cent cigar in the whole country, owing to its great fragrance, uniform quality and low price.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The permit for the Yarnall paint warehouse, heretofore mentioned, was issued on the 4th inst. It is to be located at 1028 Race Street; cost estimated at $18,000. The building will be three stories front and two back. This work was noted in architect notes of a previous issue. Walter Smedley, 435 Chestnut Street, drew the plans.

Plans have been prepared for the alterations and additions to the Eleventh Baptist Church, Van Pelt and Diamond Streets. The additions comprise a new tower and a one-story structure, 47 x 90 feet, for a Sabbath school. The drawings were made by T. Frank Miller, architect, 1221 Arch Street, and were fully noted in a previous number of this journal.

Mayor Stuart has received a letter from Acting Secretary of the Treasury C. S. Hamlin, saying that the Department has requested the honorable Attorney General to give such instructions to the U. S. Attorney for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania as may be necessary to have proceedings in condemnation instituted against such property embraced as may be necessary for the site for a new mint.

Revised estimates have been invited for the work upon the new administration building for the State Insane Asylum at Harrisburg, and for the Scott building, to be erected at Nos. 1213 and 1215 Filbert Street. These are the two largest, and, in fact, the only important contracts on boards for bids. Addison Hutton, architect for the asylum building, has made material alterations to the drawings, so that the revised bids will be practically new.

Among the ordinances introduced by Councilman Mehan, on Thursday last, was one of $15,000 for the improvement of Vernon Park, and one of $5000 for the grading of Waterview Park, so as to render it suitable at least for a playground for children. The ordinances will have to run the gauntlet of the Committee on Finance. This committee is, however, so frustrated by the big hole in the revenues which the reduction in the price of gas will cause, that many good improvements which once had a fair chance must come to a standstill.

The plans for a new bridge at the Falls of Schuylkill call for a double-deck structure costing $700,000, without including land damages and changes of grades of neighboring streets. A single deck bridge, with supports, etc., massive enough to permit of an upper deck being added, it was stated, would cost $340,000, but the committee decided to inspect the locality before taking action. In regard to the ordinance for a revision of the lines and grades of plan 118, between Norris Street and Susquehanna Avenue and Eighth and Eleventh Streets, which contemplates the abolishing of the Diamond Street grade crossing, it was agreed to refer the matter to a committee to confer with the Reading Railroad Company.

Through Delaware.

At Wilmington, J. Newlin Gawthrop has suggested a plan for improving Washington Street near the new bridge.—the subjects of improvements to the park, including entrances. The estimated cost is $30,000.

Washington, D. C.

The people of Tenleytown will take steps to increase the school facilities.—The sub-committees of the House and Senate Committees have begun the work of determining upon a site for the proposed new printing office.—Superintendent Stevens, of the Free Bathing Beach, has asked Congress for an appropriation of $20,000 for improvements.—Proposals will be received until October 14th for the erection of two buildings at the Government Hospital for the Insane by Wm. H. Sims, Acting Secretary of the Interior.—B. H. Warner will probably erect a large office building on the site now occupied by 930 F Street.—Allen De Cou Mueller has had plans prepared for a building which will be used as a dancing academy and for private entertainments. The dimensions 50 x 150 feet. The interior will be handsomely finished. The upper part will be the private residence of Mr. Mueller.—Major R. H. Montgomery will have a handsome residence erected from plans prepared by W. J. Marsh. The interior will be finished in oak and other woods.—Work is progressing on the dwelling of Mrs. G. W. James from plans by W. J. Palmer. The cost is $17,000.—T. B. Hoffman will erect a dwelling at 1721 N Street, N. W.—Mrs. Mary V. O'Connor will erect a dwelling at Eckington.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Architect Notes.

A site has not yet been selected for the Soldiers' Orphans' Home by the Commission appointed for the purpose, and the matter may be finally settled by Architect Thomas Lonsdale, who has prepared the plans for the proposed structure. Governor Pattison is one of the commissioners.

John Windrim, 1107 Walnut Street, in company with Chiefs Eisenhower and Baxter, made an inspection a few days since of the property at Main and Seymour Streets, Germantown, with a view of ascertaining its adaptability as a fire house. About $2000 will be spent upon necessary alterations in case the property is purchased by the city.

Theophilus P. Chandler, Jr., 328 Chestnut Street, has prepared plans for a handsome church building to be erected by the Calvary congregation, 18th and Madison Sts., Washington, D. C. It will be of the Gothic order of architecture; of stone, with stone pillars and arches on interior of cut granite, with ceiling of oak, tiled aisles, steam heat, stained glass windows, &c. The cost will be about $80,000.

John T. Windrim has finished the plans for the new State Library and Executive Building to be erected at Harrisburg at a cost of about $500,000. The material will be Green River or Indiana limestone, and the two buildings will be joined by a corridor to be used as a museum. The stairs and balustrades will be of marble. The interior will be handsomely finished, and the library will have an iron gallery and shelves. All modern conveniences and improvements will be introduced.

Moses & King, 431 Walnut Street, Phila., have prepared plans for a school building to be erected on Kaigh Avenue, Camden, N. J., by the Property Committee of the Commission of Public Instruction, of which H. B. Francis, City Hall, Camden, is the chairman. The new building will be of brick with stone trimmings, handsome interior finish, and provided with all modern conveniences and improvements. It will contain eight rooms. The plans may be seen at the office of the Secretary, Broadway School building, at Broadway and Clinton Streets, Camden, or at the office of the architects. Proposals for the erection are to be in by Oct. 27th.

Minerva Parker Nichols, 1616 Mt. Vernon Street, Philadelphia, has finished a colonial house for Irwin N. Megargee to be built in the spring at Roseglan, Pa. It is three stories high, frame with large reception hall, two bath rooms, large porches and probably steam heat and electric lights. Also made drawings for a house for Mrs. John O. Keim to be built at Cheltenham, Pa., size 104 x 48 feet with fine porches, colonial finish throughout the interior. There is a large reception hall running through the house, breakfast room, dining room, kitchen, laundry, pantry, sitting room, library, den and parlor on the first floor with a large play room connected by covered porches. The second floor contains two bath rooms, nursery and chambers. Separate stairway communicates with rooms on the second and third floor for the servants. It is to have electric lighting and steam heat.

Joseph D. Austin, 713 Filbert Street, architect for the Board of Education, has finished the plans for the Boys' High School to be erected at Broad and Green Streets, and bids for the erection of the building have been asked by the Board of Education. The size of the lot is about 186 x 395 feet, and the new building will be Norman in style of architecture. There will be two separate four-story buildings the one on Broad Street to be called the main building, and the one on Fifteenth Street the annex, and the two will be connected by an enclosed iron passage-way at the basement, first, second and third floors. A rose window will adorn one of the towers. The hallway will be of marble mosaic and all the ceilings of steel, and the woodwork will be of maple, yellow pine and oak. Four fire escapes will be put up. A feature will be a fine auditorium with stage and gallery and with a seating capacity of two thousand; opera chairs will be used. The fourth floor will be fitted up as a gymnasium. Electric light, steam heat and sanitary plumbing will be introduced.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

William Aab, 233 Fairmount Avenue, will erect a building for store purposes at 1009 Poplar Street.

Revised estimates have been made upon the Heed Building, which will be erected at 1213-1215 Filbert Street.

At Germantown, L. S. Cronwell has sold a lot on Pulaski Avenue to the congregation of Calvary Church. The lot is 35 x 200 feet.

The stables belonging to Mrs. Martha Donnelly at 1313 South Seventeenth Street were partly destroyed by fire last week at a loss of about $3000.

Messrs. Quigg & McLinden, 303 E. Indiana Avenue, will erect ten two-story brick dwellings on the east side of G Street, south of Allegheny Avenue.

A large tract of ground at Monmouth and Amber Streets has been bought by C. C. Moore, who will improve the site by the erection of a number of dwellings.

The Harrison, Frazier & Co.'s new boiler house to be erected on South Street, between Penn and Swanson Streets, will be 90 x 100 feet. Samuel Hart & Sons are the contractors.

The Mayor, on behalf of the City, has filed a petition asking that the Board of Education be allowed to enter upon the lot of ground bounded by Broad, Green, Fifteenth and Brandywine Streets.

Contractor Charles Auchter, 1520 Bailey Street, will erect three one-story brick and stone storage cellars at Thirty-eighth Street and Girard Avenue for the Smith Ale Brewing Company. The cost will be $16,000.

Contractor William R. Dougherty, 1004 Sansom Street, has taken out the permit for the erection of the new building on the grounds of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum at Mount Airy. The structure will be 86½ x 62 feet.

J. E. and A. L. Pennock, contractors for the residence of Dr. L. W. Steinbach, to be erected at 1307 North Broad Street, have had the plans approved by the Building Inspector. The structure will be of brick and stone, four stories high; cost about $30,000.

A number of improvements will be made to the Tasker Methodist Church at Fifth Street and Snyder Avenue. William J. Smith, 1821 South Fifth Street, is the contractor.

The committee appointed by the Mayor to select a site for the proposed new Municipal Hospital, has visited a number of sites in outlying districts, but as yet a decision has not been reached. The committee consists of Drs. William H. York, William Welsh and E. O. Shakespear.

Director of Public Safety Beidler has granted a permit to the Moyamensing and Penrose Ferry Road Passenger Railway Company for the construction of a trolley line under an ordinance passed by Councils last March. The road will begin at Mifflin and Otsego Streets, and run on Otsego to Jackson, thence to Moyamensing Avenue, to Penrose Ferry Road, across Penrose Ferry Bridge to State Island Road, to Bow Creek, thence to place of beginning. Arrangements have been made by the company to connect with trolley lines as far as Wilmington, Delaware. Work will begin in a short time.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, OCT. 18, 1893.

ON MONDAY, October 16th, the handsome new Reading Railroad Station at Twelfth and Market Streets was thrown open to the public. Without doubt this is one of the finest stations of the kind in the country if not in the world, and one of which Philadelphia should be justly proud. President Harris has a suite of rooms on the fourth floor, and on the same floor are the offices of the first Vice-President, General Solicitor, Secretary and Board of Managers. The offices of General Passenger Agent C. G. Hancock occupy six rooms on the sixth floor, in which is also the office of Charles R. Deacon, the Press Agent of the company.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Swarthmore, Delaware Co, three dwellings will be erected on the DeArmond tract.

—At Yardley, Bucks Co, Isaac W. South will have a bath-room and fixtures put in his dwelling.

—At Point Pleasant, Bucks Co, it is said that the Canal Company will construct a new lock the coming Winter.

—At Williamsport, Lycoming Co., the factory of Singer, Cohn & Co. was destroyed by fire on Oct. 13th, at a loss of $30,000.

—At Mahanoy City, Schuylkill Co., M. P. Quinn & Co. have been awarded the contract for the new water works at $98,000.

—At Ridley Park, Delaware Co., Council has passed an ordinance to put in a sewer on Penn Street, and proposals will be advertised for.

—At South Bethlehem, Northampton Co., George Wiggins will erect a store room.—Thos. McD. Hirst will soon occupy his new dwelling.

—At Edgely, Bucks Co., a large barn on the seed farm of David Landreth & Sons, 21 South Sixth Street, Philadelphia, has been destroyed by fire.

—At Pottsville, Schuylkill Co., W. F. Scheerer, chairman of Building Committee of School District, will receive bids until Oct. 24 for curbing on Ninth and Pearce Streets.

—At Reading, Berks Co., Catharine Blatt has made arrangements for the erection of six two-story brick dwellings on Pear Street, between Washington and Walnut Streets.

—There is a probability that a railroad will be constructed to run up Indian Creek Valley. W. D. Rogers, of Connelisville, Pa., or John I. Rogers, of Scottsdale, Pa., can give information.

—At Media, Delaware Co., ground has been broken by Benjamin Brodbelt for a dwelling at Washington and Vernon Streets. It will be three stories, of brick, and will contain modern improvements.

—At Doylestown, Bucks Co., at the next meeting of Council, the subject of a suitable building for the new fire company will be discussed. John Yardley, treasurer of Doylestown Fire Company, can give information.

—At Spring City, Chester Co., D. C. Smith, a morocco manufacturer of Philadelphia, has been looking at sites with a view of moving his factory to Spring City, provided twenty thousand dollars worth of stock is subscribed by residents.

—At Willow Grove, Montgomery Co., the large stock establishment of W. W. Frazier, upon which work will begin in a short time, will cost about $20,000. It will be of stone and frame, fitted with every convenience, and will accommodate forty head of cattle.

—At West Chester, Chester Co., the contract for the Sunday school building of the Westminster Presbyterian Church has been let to Plummer E. Jefferis for $5640. It will be erected at Church and Barnard Streets, and will be of Avondale stone, slate roof, and handsome interior finish. The contract does not include heating, glass or furnishing. Arthur S. Cochran, of West Chester, is the architect.

—At Oxford, Chester Co., a number of secret societies, together with prominent citizens, are agitating the subject of the erection of an opera house. A stock company will probably be organized. The proposed building will cost about $15,000, and it is intended to fit up the lower floor as stores, the second floor as an assembly room for public entertainments, and the other floors for lodge purposes. No plans have been drawn.

—At Morrisville, Bucks Co., Chester Hutchinson is the contractor for the new school building. The contract price is $11,920 exclusive of heating. Edward R. Smith is one of the Board of Directors.

—The lots owned by W. G. Howell will be improved by the erection of a number of dwellings.—Work on the water works will begin next Spring.—Council has passed an ordinance to allow the trolley road to run through the borough.

Through New Jersey.

At Camden, the plot of ground bounded by Sixth, Eighth, Erie Streets and the Delaware River has been selected by the Women's Park Association as a park site.—It is probable that a country club will be organized, and a tract of ground bought upon which to erect suitable buildings for club purposes. The Cope estate, on Cooper's Creek, has been suggested as a suitable site.

At Newark, a large office building will be erected by the Prudential Industrial Insurance Co., adjoining the present structure of the company on Bank Street. The plans have been prepared by George A. Post, of New York, and call for a structure 14 stories high, handsomely finished on the interior, and supplied with all modern conveniences and improvements.

At Gloucester, Camden Co., an iron fence will be put around the new school house on Hunter Street.

At Cramer Hill, Camden Co., Mr. Hooser, of Philadelphia, who is erecting the Roman Catholic Church on Twenty-fifth Street, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the new church for the Bethany congregation at North Cramer Hill, same county.

At Merchantville, Camden Co., Contractors Tilton and Howell have received the contract to erect a power house at Wellwood Station for the Electric Light Company. A new dynamo and engines will be put in.

Through Maryland.

At Baltimore the most important building permits issued to date are as follows: H. E. Cook & Bro., to erect four two-story brick dwellings on Holbrook Street near Lanvale Street; F. E. CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Architect Notes.

E. F. Durang, architect, Twelfth and Chestnut Streets, S. W. corner, has prepared plans for the new R. C. Church of St. Francis Xavier, upon the sites occupied by 2323-25-27 Green Street. It will be of stone, massive in proportion, two stories high, and fitted with the best interior work in hard wood, upholstery, electric work and modern improvements.

Isaac Pursell, architect, 119 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, is engaged on drawings for a dwelling for Rev. Sylvanus Stall at Bala, Penna., near this city, to be of frame and fitted with all modern conveniences. A stable will also be erected in the rear to have all improvements. Same architect has quite a number of preliminary plans under way which we shall note in the near future.

Plans are being prepared in the office of James H. Windrim, architect, 1107 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, for a new electric light plant to be erected at Girard College, Philadelphia, Pa. The location has been selected and the structure will be of stone in keeping with the present buildings, fitted with boilers and dynamos of special power and have all recent improvements. It is expected the contract will be awarded at an early day.

A. W. Diks, architect, 1001 Chestnut Street, has given the contract for alteration and addition to 1919 Spruce Street, to William McPherson & Son, and work will at once be started. A full description of this job was given in a previous number of this journal in architectural notes. Front of Indiana limestone, trimmings with buff brick, four stories high; interior will have every convenience. The same architect has prepared plans for a handsome eight-story office building at 1031-1033 Chestnut Street, on sites occupied by Messrs. Pine and Wilson & Co. The structure will be Indiana limestone first two stories and remaining six of terra cotta work, over a steel frame construction with hollow arches. Two elevators and a freight lift, electric work, steam heat and every modern improvement will be introduced. Estimates will be invited upon the work at once.

F. S. Newman, architect, Springfield, Mass., has been retained to prepare plans for the new office building of the Fidelity Mutual Life Association, 914 Walnut Street. The new structure will be located upon the site owned originally by the Iron Hall Association, Broad above Arch Street, and the foundations are already built. Upon these it is proposed to erect a twelve-story structure, fitted throughout with offices and rooms for other purposes. It will also have several elevators, steam heat, electric work, best sanitary plumbing, dynamos and engines, lavatories, closets, stained, leaded and plain glass, also every minor improvements known in the construction of large office buildings. The material used will be stone, brick and iron principally; considerable concrete and cement work will be introduced, artificial pavement and flooring, etc. When plans are complete a limited number of contractors will be asked to estimate upon the work.

M. Fielding, architect, 110 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, has completed plans for a fine country residence at Berwyn, Pa., for C. Davis English. The structure will be of stone and shingle work, three stories high, interior in hard woods, fancy windows, electric work; heated by hot air; open grates; also best system of plumbing and ventilation. Estimates are being made on the work. A very fine stable will also be erected on the grounds in rear of the above residence, to be stone and shingle treatment, and interior will have all modern improvements. Also plans for a very handsome country house have been completed for Edwin F. Schiveloy at the corner of School and Pulaski Avenues. The contract has been given to William Gruher, and work started. This will be Colonial style of architecture, of stone with shingle roof, interior in hard woods, fancy windows, best of plumbing, hot air heating, electric work, open grates and every modern improvement.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

It is understood all bids for the new Boys' High School will be opened in Board of Education rooms, 713 Filbert Street, on Friday next, the 27th inst.

J. W. Fritzinger, contractor, Roxborough, will begin work on the erection of the new church at Ridge and Manayunk Avenues. It will be of brick and stone construction, two stories high, 56 x 70 feet in size, and has been fully noted previously in this journal.

Wilmer W. Ridge, Somerton, Philadelphia, will at once begin the erection of a public hall and store building, at Poggiessing Avenue and Somerton Pike, Somerton, to be of brick and stone, large windows on first floor and general fittings and furniture for such a building.

The corner stone of the new Baptist Church on Broad Street below Tioga was laid last week, and the work will be pushed to completion. A number of improvements will be made to the Baptist Church at Chestnut Hill, including new furniture, frescoing and painting.

Nesbit & Coder, contractors, Harrisburg, Pa., have been given the contract to erect the new administration building at the State Lunatic Asylum. Addison Hutton, architect, Philadelphia, prepared the plans, which have been fully noted previously in this journal. Work is to be started at once.

We find that considerable improvements will be made to quite a number of properties in the vicinity of the location decided upon for the new U. S. Mint, but all are contingent upon the results of the negotiations now in progress. As yet no persons or owners have formed definite plans for the future.

The plans for the new Bourse building have been approved, and Mr. Rorke, the builder and general contractor, places the total cost of construction at $1,500,000, and size of building as 131 x 363 feet, and eight stories high. It has also been described as to interior work in previous numbers of this journal.

James Parks, ex-councilman living on "No Man's Land," Twenty-first and Wharton Streets, will further improve that location by erecting a three-story extension in the rear for purposes of public meetings, societies, etc. This is the section of ground culled out of the Twenty-sixth and Thirty-sixth Wards when divided two years ago.

In the United States Circuit Court on the 18th inst., District Attorney Ingham presented a petition for the condemnation of fifteen properties included in the site for the U. S. Mint at Broad and Cherry Streets, and asked for appointment of a jury of award. Judge Dallas fixed the 28th inst. for hearing of all parties interested in the location.

The contract for the erection of the stores at Tenth and Filbert Streets, C. C. Harrison, owner, has been given to William C. McPherson & Son, general contractors. This operation covers the site of the old Massey Brewery, and the stores will be twelve in number. Cope & Stewardson, architects, drew all the plans and will supervise their construction. Cost will be about $100,000.

Ground has been broken for the Chester Avenue Baptist Church at Forty-sixth and Chester Avenue. The structure will be of Avondale stone from the celebrated quarry of that company in Chester County, Pa., handsome stained glass windows, and best seating and upholstery will be upon interior, as well as all modern conveniences and improvements. C. W. Bolton, 1510½ Chestnut Street, is the architect, and the building has before been fully described in this journal.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, OCT. 25, 1893.

ON MONDAY, October 23d, the World's Real Estate Congress opened in the Memorial Art Palace, Chicago. The opening address was made by Hon. Chas. C. Bonney. The programmes for the different days are full of interest, and include addresses by foreign delegates, also addresses on "How, and to What Extent can We Attain National or International Uniformity in Realty Laws," "Real Estate the Ideal Asset," and the "Torrens System." A number of Philadelphians interested in real estate and building operations have gone to Chicago and will be present at this Congress.

JUDGES appointed by the officials at the World's Fair at Chicago have made awards to the Joseph Dixon Crucible Co., Jersey City, N. J., for superior products in graphite, lead pencils, plumbago, crucibles, black-lead stoppers and nozzles, dippers, bowls, foundry facings and lubricating graphite. These awards are a very proper recognition of the qualities of these goods, as the Dixon Company is known throughout the world as the pioneer in the graphite industry and its goods are always considered as the standard. The United States Government in its bids for supplies says, "Dixon's, or equal."

DURING last month the extensive terra cotta ware, cement and brick business carried on by McKay & Kahler, at Broad and Glenwood Avenue, Germantown Junction, was removed to the yard formerly occupied by Adam A. Catauach, at Twenty-first and Westmoreland Streets. This extensive establishment, with all the adjacent ground, has been bought by them, and in addition to the already large business done by them in sewer pipe and other clay products they also carry lime, hair, sand, imported and domestic cements, plaster, mortar color, etc., in stock, and are prepared to furnish these articles with promptness in any quantity. They are now engaged in making the necessary repairs to the yard, and intend to make it one of the foremost establishments in this line to be found in this city or country. The lot is about 225 x 250 feet, with elevated track, etc. A specialty which they handle is flue lining, the various sizes of which are constantly in stock, and on which special inducements can be offered. The business is constantly increasing, and at the present time they are, if not in the lead of building material yards, very close to it. They run a large number of teams and employ in the neighborhood of fifteen men in the prosecution of their business.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Architect Notes.

Wm. Bleyden Powell, architect, 423 Walnut Street, has made plans for an addition to the plant of the Northern Electric Company, at Susquehanna Avenue and American Street, to be 61 x 120 feet, and fitted with the usual machinery. Estimates are now being made on the work.

Thos. P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, has made full plans for a residence for I. E. Wilson, of 1031 Chestnut Street, at Ridley Park, Pa. The structure will be of stone and frame construction, three stories high, hard wood finish on interior, electric work and best of modern improvement. Estimates are to be asked at once upon the work.

Benj. D. Price, architect, Lansdowne, Delaware Co., Pa., has made plans for a chapel to be erected on Montgomery Avenue, near Frankford, to be one story high, of stone work, slate roof, a belfry at corner of structure, best material. On interior of church hot air heating by furnace; altar fittings; also organ and other paraphernalia for service. Estimates are being made on the work in the office of William Steele & Son, 306 Walnut Street.

Will H. Decker, architect, has taken a suite of rooms in the Betz Building upon the twelfth floor, which he has fitted in a very comfortable manner, and they are well adapted to the profession. Mr. Decker is preparing plans for the alteration of the buildings 125-127 North Seventh Street, for Freedman, Levi & Co. These properties are to be adapted to manufacturing purposes, as well as salesrooms, and the interior work will include freight lift, electric work and division of rooms and addition of others.

Yarnall and Goforth, architects, 14 South Broad Street, have made plans for four houses at Sixty-third Street and Lancaster Avenue, near Overbrook, one being Colonial in style of architecture, one Gothic and another pair in modern style. These are to be erected by John H. Myers, builder, and are to be of brick and stone, three stories high, shingle and tile roofs, with hard wood interior and all modern improvements, electric work, best sanitary plumbing, etc. Also plans for four houses at Melrose, Pa., for Leon J. Dutton, Dayton Ball, Geo. W. Read and Thos. M. Roberts. These are to be of brick, stone and frame construction, with best improvement on interior.

Carrere and Hastings, architects, 44-46 Broadway, New York City, have completed all plans in detail for the new Paterson City Hall to be erected at Paterson, N. J. The structure will be of Indiana limestone in walls, with brick and steel frame, with fireproof construction on interior. The building will be three stories high, with a large, handsome cupola on top of centre roof. The interior will contain hard woods, mosaic work, electric work, a number of elevators, passenger and freight as well; heat and ventilation upon the most approved methods; cement work in floors and pavements. All materials to be first class. Drawings are now on boards of a number of city contractors.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company will at no distant day remodel the entire front of the original station so as to correspond with the part now being erected, but at the present time definite plans are not being considered.

The State Board of Charities on the 26th inst. held a special meeting at the Executive Office, No. 1224 Chestnut Street. The board was in session for over three hours, the greater part of the time being devoted to the consideration of the report of the Commission appointed by the Governor to select a site for the new asylum for Feeble-minded Children, the Commission's Choice being Polk, Venango County. Lawyer W. C. Haus, of Sharon, and Mr. McGorrough, of Pittsburg, appeared before the Board and protested against the selection, and General Wylie, of Franklin, and two other gentlemen appeared and favored the site. Mr. Haus repudiated the statement attributed to him that the ground did not come up to the requirements of the State, but confirmed the statement that ground adjacent had been sold for $10 an acre, and the price now asked is $30. The Board, after listening to both sides, approved the action of the Special Commission. The plans of the asylum at Harrisburg were also approved.

The New Reading Terminal Station.

One of the sights of the Quaker City is the handsome Terminal Station of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, at Twelfth and Market Streets, which is now fully thrown open to the public, and is without exception the most beautifully appointed railway terminus in the world. The interior decorations are simply superb. Not only are they designed on a scale of grandeur, but they are conspicuous for exquisite taste and comfort. The lower floor entrance lobby is handsome and roomy, with concrete floor and paneled ceiling. A broad stairway and rapid and roomy elevators lead to the waiting rooms above at the level of the elevated tracks. The ticket offices on the first floor are the most conveniently arranged in the country, and are the result of the experience of General Passenger Agent Hancock and his able lieutenants. The screens of grill and brass work inclosing the ticket offices are artistic to a degree that is seldom seen in a public building. But the waiting rooms, restaurant, etc., on the second floor are the features of the structure. They are so daintily decorated and sumptuously furnished that they resemble more the audience halls or reception rooms of some potentate's palace than the public waiting room of a railroad company. Inlaid flooring, velvet carpets, great easy chairs, nickel plated steam pipes, marble furnished lavatories, rich and elegant hangings and daintily tinted walls and frescoed ceilings, make a combination rarely seen except in the palaces of the wealthy and great. The Reading Terminal Station is in every respect a pleasant surprise to the public. Gentlemen who have traveled all over the world state that the new station contains the finest waiting rooms on the face of the globe. Philadelphia is naturally proud of the new edifice, as it is far in advance of anything of a similar kind in this country or abroad. Its ornamentation and handsome furnishings are an attraction to thousands of visitors, and an object lesson in decorative art. The upper part of the building is used by the executive and clerical force of the Company, and nearly all the various officials have already occupied quarters therein. The building is one of the sights of the city.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Reading Railroad will put down a substantial asphalt pavement along its property on Main Street, Manayunk, Phila.

C. P. Grun & Co. have the contract for the construction of a footbridge on Midvale Avenue, over the Richmond branch of the Reading Railroad.

The Select Council Committee on City Property has reported favorably the bill to place the old Liberty Bell in a glass case on a movable platform.

The Grays Ferry Foundry Company will at once begin an addition to their plant, 40 x 75 feet, on Grays Ferry Road and Twenty-ninth Street, to be one-story high brick and stone.

Contractor Lam is to make front and interior alterations to the four-story shoe manufactory of Freedman, Levi & Co., 125 and 127 N. Seventh Street. The building is 36 by 80 feet.

Daniel Neall McQuillen, dentist, 1628 Chestnut Street, has purchased a lot 90 feet front on Up-land Way, Overbrook, and will erect a fine stone residence next Spring at a cost of about $15,000.

The Beth Israel congregation, on Crown above Race Street has decided to build a new structure for a synagogue. Over $5000 have been raised, and a committee appointed to look for a new site.

Beck & Comly, contractors, will make alterations and additions to the Mansion House, on Arch Street west of Sixth. These include a new cafe and a number of toilet rooms as well as some minor work.

The Electric Traction Company of this city has bought a piece of ground on Hutchinson Street below Oxford, and will erect a large power house upon the site, the plans for which are now in course of preparation.

Killough Bros., builders, will at once begin the erection of twenty-eight two-story houses on Stuart, Tenth and Wolf Streets east of Tenth Street. All to be of press brick, stone trimmings and best interior improvements.

Joseph Freedman, the builder who was refused a permit to erect the building at 928 Passyunk Avenue, has presented revised plans, and has been granted permission to erect the structure. Work will be commenced at once.

A new two-story operating room of iron and brick is to be erected for St. Mary's Hospital, at the northeast corner of Frankford Avenue and Palmer Street. It is to be circular in shape, 25 feet in diameter, and to cost about $15,000. Michael McShain has the contract.

Dr. C. F. Bonsall will have extensive alterations made to 927 Spruce Street. Wm. J. Murphy, 723 Walnut Street, contractor.

H. Edward Ficker, 19 West Twenty-third Street, N. Y., has made plans for improvements at 1923 Spruce Street for Miss F. R. L. Welsh.

Franklin M. Harris, 1611 Filbert street, has received the contract for the masonry at the store building, Tenth and Filbert Streets, the property being owned by C. C. Harrison. The general contractor is W. C. McPherson & Sons, as stated in a previous number.

A meeting was held in Germantown on the Twenty-fifth inst. by those interested to consider raising of funds for the repair and refitting of the old Mennonite church on Main Street near Herman. Among the above are Judge Penny-packer, Prof. Seldensticker, J. D. Clark and Rev. D. M. Pfautz.

It is more than probable that the Inquirer will at an early day remove from its present home, and in that event a handsome additional office building will be erected by the City Trust Company on the west which will be constructed so as to be uniform with the present structure. At this time matters have not developed sufficiently to name a time when the above will take place.

The Bureau of City Property has asked for an appropriation of $500,000 for improving, building, and caring for city properties under their charge. An item was also adopted by the Committee of Councils giving $60,000 for a double engine house with all attachments, including water tower truck and a chemical engine; $15,000 was adopted for purchase of a new fire-house in the Eighteenth Ward.

A permit has been granted to Contractors William W. Rea & Son for the construction of the new tower for the Eleventh Baptist Church, Diamond Street, east of Twenty-second, heretofore mentioned. The Sabbath school building is to be of stone, one story high, 42 by 87 feet, and the tower, which is to be erected on the church proper, will be 20 feet by 20 feet and 60 feet high. T. Frank Miller, 1221 Arch Street, is the architect. Previously noted in this journal.

A. J. Drexel, Jr., has just bought the old Wilstach Mansion, at Eighteenth and Walnut Streets, for $175,000. George W. Childs Drexel also takes title to the property at the southeast corner of Eighteenth and Locust Streets. It is understood that both gentlemen will erect palatial houses on the sites just purchased.

A large number of builders and contractors were present at the meeting of the Property Committee of the Board of Education on October 27th, when bids were opened for the erection of the new Boys' High School. The following bids were received; those numbered 1 include the main building under roof; 5, the annex under roof; and 3, both buildings completed: Charles McCaul, 1, $34,671; 2, $188,000; 3, $805,750. F. J. Amweg, 1, $323,813; 2, $109,726; 3, $721,740. J. W. Fritzinger, 1, $125,935; 2, $215,676; 3, $473,700. William R. Dougherty, 1, $412,941; 2, $197,247; 3, $816,700. J. Wenzelberger, 1, $403,000; 2, $191,245; 3, $819,280. H. C. Nichols, 1, $502,343; 2, $192,997; 3, $763,258. Chairman Kavanaugh announced that as the lowest bid was $40,000 in excess of the appropriation the contract would not be awarded at present, and the matter was then referred to Council's Committee on Schools and Chairman Kavanaugh.

The annual report of the Chief of Yards and Docks, which has been presented to the Navy Department, recommends improvements at the League Island Navy Yard, which, if carried out, will raise the efficiency of the yard to a much greater degree than at present. The report recommends that Congress be asked to appropriate $125,000 for improvements during the next year. One of the chief features which it is desired to add is an electric light plant. It is estimated that $10,000 will be necessary for the purpose. There is machinery and power at the yard, but dynamos, wires and lamps are needed. The completion of the east dry dock pier is recommended at a cost of $40,000. The west pier is finished, and the completion of the other will make a channel leading to the dry dock. The need of a large crane on the Broad Street Wharf has been felt for a long time. With it boilers and machinery could be lifted out of vessels and a mast handled. The sum of $15,000 is asked for the purchase of a crane. For a completion of the shears $11,000 is asked. Two additional quarters for officers are necessary, making four in all. For this work $20,000 will be required. It is recommended that $30,000 be asked to continue the construction of the sea wall around the yard, which has already been built for some distance along the Delaware River. The roadways at the yard are being paved and repaired with the unexpended balance of last year's appropriation.

Through Pennsylvania.

—At a meeting of the board the Committee on Normal and High Schools recommended the erection of a high school building in Georgetown, the Fifth Division, as urged by Trustee Jesse Wilson.—The congregation of the E Street Baptist Church will hold a meeting in December, at which time it will be decided when to begin the erection of a new church on a site at Tenth and N Streets. The plans have been prepared.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, NOV. 8, 1893.

Our annual report of building operations presents many surprises. The potency of statistics for detecting causes was never better exemplified than by the figures of our report, showing the wonderful shrinkage in the number of industrial buildings erected this year, and the amount invested, when compared with the results of 1892.

It is evident that influences foreign to the silver question are responsible for the business collapse, for, while the repeal of the Sherman Act was a national question, the cause which has so violently prostrated the industrial interests of our great manufacturing centre possesses more far-reaching influences than were ever attributed to the silver purchase obligations of the Government.

Until the uncertainty as to values is removed our mills and factories, our shops and foundries, will be guided by the demands of trade, normal conditions as to working hours and pay will certainly be controlled by the new tariff schedule when adopted.

Real estate will remain moderately active, because it imparts a sense of security to be found in few other investments.

There is, besides, a definite, continuous revenue from improved property that is foreign to railroad stocks, with few exceptions, for out of over ten billions invested in these securities in the United States alone, less than half yield a revenue to the investors.

It is a noticeable characteristic of investors in real estate that they are seldom disturbed by conditions that drive speculators distracted.

Hundreds of this class have already sold their stock holdings at a serious loss and invested in real estate; thousands of others, with more nerve, will wait until prices approximate the cost of their holdings, when they also will become buyers of houses.

Property owners who are shrewd enough to make all the improvements they contemplate, as far as the weather will permit, during the present depression, will certainly save considerable in the cost, besides which they will keep business moving, and this is now needed more than anything else.

Foreign capital is even now looking for investments in this city, and there is every reason to believe that by the Spring of the coming year there will be considerable buying of real estate for foreign account arising from financial trouble which, it is said, will surely effect Great Britain and which may extend over the greater part of Europe.

HIGHEST AWARD OF HONOR.

The Bergner & Engel Brewing Company Again Carries off the Medal.

American enterprise recently asserted its mastery at the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, where the highest award of honor and two medals were adjudged to The Bergner & Engel Brewing Company, of Philadelphia, for lager beer. This company received two medals at the Centennial Exhibition, and was awarded the Grand Prize, the Grand Gold Medal at the Universal Exposition at Paris in 1878 and again in 1889, and the Highest Award and Diploma of Honor at the Brussels Exposition in 1888. The Bergner & Engel Company has built up an enormous business from the purity of its productions. It never entered a competition that it did not carry off first premium. The Grand Prize, the Grand Gold Medal (the only one of its kind) awarded at Paris was against all comers throughout the world. The product of the company in 1871 was 38,000 barrels, and the output for 1893 will exceed 500,000 barrels.

The Electric Improvement Company, No. 107 N. Front Street, request us to particularly invite attention to their new insulating compound, which makes their work the most reliable and efficient in repairing and renovating traction and stationary motors and dynamos.

Architect Notes.

A. E. Linkinheimer, architect, corner Fifth Avenue and Wood Street, Pittsburgh, Pa., has prepared plans and specifications for a house, 22.6 x 37.6 feet, to be built at Wilkensburg, Pa.

John F. Stuckert, architect, 49 North Thirteenth Street, has made plans for alterations and additions to the house 3208 Chestnut Street. These consist of a new flight of front steps in stone work, a swimming pool in basement, introduce steam heat and electric work, together with other minor details. Estimates have been invited on the work.

THE END
BUILDING SEASON OF

THE REAL ESTATE RECORD'S
 REGULAR ANNUAL REPORT OF BUILDING OPERATIONS
 AND
SALES OF REAL ESTATE IN PHILADELPHIA FROM JANUARY 1 TO OCTOBER 31, INCLUSIVE.

Carefully compiled statistics, with comparative data from reports of former years.

5928 New Buildings of all kinds erected and in course of erection at an estimated cost of $22,092,668, exclusive of the cost of the land.

1065 short of the total number erected during the same months of 1892, representing a falling off in the amount invested of $4,560,428.

2364 Alterations and Additions, costing $4,728,000.

An increase of 8 in alterations and additions, representing an increase of expenditure for these improvements of $16,000.

Grand total of expenditure, $26,820,068.

A careful perusal of the following figures will create surprise among our readers that so much has been accomplished notwithstanding the financial disturbance and the general apathy of business.

It was hoped in business circles that Congress after the repeal of the silver bill, would make some definite legislation on the tariff, as anything was preferable to uncertainty.

That the industries will continue to suffer through fear of coming legislation there can be no doubt, but it is moderately certain that supply and demand will soon start the wheels moving, and that normal conditions are not as far away as many suppose.

The great shrinkage in industrial building construction work in this city during the year is not to be wondered at. It could hardly be otherwise in face of the positive declaration that tariff changes were certain.

Neither is it to be wondered at that the shrinkage in two-story house building has been enormous, for it is from the industries that owners and tenants for this peculiar Philadelphia favorite are obtained.

The figures for this year show that of the $4,560,458, representing the difference in expenditure for new buildings between the same months of 1892 and 1893, $1,992,000 is due to the shrinkage in the erection of two-story dwellings, and while the number of houses for workmen is much less than the number erected last year, the falling off in workshops and factories is in about the same proportion, for only in a single instance—that of breweries and bottling houses—is last year's record outnumbered, while in this instance the shrinkage in the investment amounts to $49,000. To enumerate, it will be seen that the investments this year, when compared with last, are short in warehouses, $33,591; dye and dry houses, $83,770; factories, $456,000; engine and boiler houses, $11,230; foundries and shops, $376,238. In these items alone it will be noticed that the shrinkage amounts to $960,859.

The following table shows the falling off from previous years in industrial buildings:

	1890	1891	1892	1893
Warehouses	29	23	34	32
Dye and dryhouses	28	9	9	7
Factories and mills	72	57	81	63
Engine and boiler	27	24	36	24
Breweries and bottling	39	7	7	32
Foundries and shops	39	60	52	44
Stores (not dwellings)	53	40	31	35

Singular as may seem, three-story dwellings increased in number this year over last year just thirty; while four-story dwellings are only two in number over last year.

Office buildings under two stories are two more than last year, while those over two stories are nine short, unless we include the Philadelphia Bourse, which is not, strictly speaking, an office building, and which is included in our miscellaneous.

There have been five more store buildings erected this year than last, one less school house and the enormous difference in the cost of those erected this year is owing mainly to the $350,000 that was expended last year on the Girls' Normal School. Stables are forty-six short and churches six.

Miscellaneous buildings are about the same in numbers this year as last, although the falling off in their cost is quite serious, amounting, as it does, to $829,900.

The future for two-story houses is, we think, a question of location, for the sentiment is general that there is quite enough of them, particularly in West Philadelphia.

The Twenty-eighth Ward leads the list in the erection of two-story houses this year, the number being 675, to which must be added the 82 erected in the Thirty-seventh Ward, the Twenty-eighth having been divided this year. This will make 757 for the Twenty-eighth Ward against 865, the number erected last year. The next in point of numbers is the Thirty-third, with 581 two-story dwellings, followed closely by the Twenty-fifth with 471, the Thirty-second with 453, the Thirty-sixth, which was taken from the Twenty-sixth, with 236, and the First Ward with 205. West Philadelphia shows the greatest decrease in this class of houses, the number for its three wards—the Twenty-fourth, the Twenty-seventh and the Thirty-fourth—being but 201 against 623 last year; a falling off of 422.

The Twenty-eighth Ward also takes the lead this year in three-story dwellings, the number being 429, to which must be added the 66 erected in the Thirty-seventh ward, which swells the total to 495 against the 458 erected last year.

The transfers of real estate number this year

10,923, against 10,891 for the same months last year, and, while there is an increase of 32 transfers this year, the amount represented falls short $1,739,346.73. From this it will be seen that sales have not fallen off. The fact is, buyers are looking for bargains, while there are few offered. Prices hold notwithstanding the dearth of money in business circles, and there are plenty of houses for sale. In fact, there have been instances where prices have been shaded 10 or 15 per cent. for cash, but these few exceptions express nothing, as they frequently occur in the most prosperous eras.

Suburban owners are expecting much next year from the advent of the trolley system, and, of course, there is some speculation as to the sections that must pay a penalty for improved transportation to the suburbs.

The mortgage incumbrance on the transfers amounts to $13,187,476.09, or 21.1 per cent., while the ground rent incumbrance of $610,077.96 on a six per cent. basis represents a principal of $1,067,966.

The value of the real estate sold at auction was $2,950,522.15, on which there was a mortgage incumbrance of $129,540.44 or about 4.3 per cent., with an additional ground rent incumbrance of $9,015.92.

Messrs. Davis & Harvey, the authors of the new plan for selling real estate at auction which involves no charges of any kind unless a sale is effected, inform us that their business this year is in every way satisfactory, and although the volume is not quite as large as that of last year, yet they have done remarkably well.

This firm also recognizes the firmness with which owners exact full prices, and it is to this alone they attribute the slight falling off in their sales this year. In fact, they give instances where less than a $100 difference between parties have deprived them of sales which, but for the unyielding humor of both sides, would have certainly gone through.

The Davis & Harvey plan is not only an assured success, but its popularity with owners and brokers now renders solicitation unnecessary.

The influence of the Trades League is forcibly expressing itself in almost every phase of business life. It is said that transportation facilities to almost every point of the compass have been greatly increased, to the great credit of this practical and hard-working organization. And while the Mint is to remain in Philadelphia, our citizens are indebted for this fact to the indefatigable efforts of the Mint Committee of the Trades League, of which Mr. Howard B. French, of the firm of Saml. H. French & Co., is the chairman, and we know whereof we speak.

Competition is growing decidedly warm between contractors; this, of course, means lower prices for work, which must influence men of large means to erect commercial buildings of the better class.

There is little demand for factory sites, while there is considerable inquiry for land at low prices with the view of future advance, and possibly building operations under more favorable auspices.

There is already a considerable resumption of big work among architects, many of whom are preparing preliminary sketches; a more hopeful feeling exists, and while factory work is at a low ebb, yet the sentiment points to considerable building, representing heavy investments for next year.

We refer our readers to the following tables for information not embraced in this article:

Architect Notes.

A packing house plant is to be erected for the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Abattoir Company at Pittsburgh, Pa., from plans by Architect J. T. Nicholson, of Chicago. It will consist of a three and two-story packing house, 162 x 250 feet, ice factory, engine and boiler house, to be built of brick, stone and iron, provided with the latest machinery, at a cost of $120,000.

John Fraser & Son, architects, 413 Walnut Street, are engaged on quite a number of preliminary sketches for future work; also busy finishing up a number of operations begun during the current year. This firm are preparing plans to complete the immense hotel at Old Point Comfort, which will be upon a large scale, and contain all the latest improvements and comforts; also completing a fine residence at Hampton, Va., in which much of Philadelphia work will be utilized.

Architect J. E. Allison, Penn Building, Pittsburgh, Pa., has designs completed for a handsome brick and stone church for the First U. P. congregation at Beaver Falls, Pa., with a seating capacity of 500; cost, $15,000. J. C. Devine has the contract. Mr. Allison also reports plans for a public school building of four rooms, to be erected at Bridgeville, Pa.; also a frame church, with seating capacity of 250, and a Sunday school of 200 for the First U. P. congregation at Emsworth, Pa.; cost, $6000.

Contracts amounting to $50,000 have been awarded by the Anthracite Land and Improvement Company, of Carbondale, Pa., for the construction of the Hotel Anthracite in that city. It will be four stories and basement, 130 x 65 feet, in red brick, with red superior sandstone and bluestone trimmings. It will have all modern improvements. Architect, L. C. Holden, Lincoln Building, New York City; contractor, Conrad Schroeder, of Scranton, Pa. E. E. Hendrick is chairman and A. P. Trautwein is secretary of the Building Committee. Contracts are still to be awarded for plumbing, steam heating, electric and gas lighting, elevator, laundry equipment, speaking tubes, electric bells, etc.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

D. P. Bruner, builder, will erect four two-story houses with Mansard roofs, on Stafford Street, south of Morris. They will be brick, with stone trimmings and best conveniences on interior.

Revised bids will be made on the work of building the Boys' High School, as all the recent ones were over the amount appropriated for the purpose. We noted the offers in full in our last number.

Shiner & Barr, 4118 Manayunk Avenue, will at once erect eight two-story houses, 17 x 30 feet in size, on south side of Charles Street, west of Mitchell, all to be of brick, with stone fronts and best interior work.

W. W. Rea, contractor, will at once begin the building of a factory for the John T. Pugh works, on north side of Ludlow Street, west of Thirty-first. The structure will be four-stories high, 70 x 60 feet, fitted with steam and machinery.

Horticultural Society site, Broad, below Locust Street, has been offered to the Trustees of the Philadelphia Free Library, which is to be erected from the Geo. S. Pepper bequest. The price fixed upon by the present owners is $250,000. No definite action has been taken as yet about the matter.

At a meeting of the Commissioners of Fairmount Park, on November 4th, the subject of the erection of a building suitable for an art gallery and museum was discussed. The matter has been put in the hands of the Memorial Hall Committee.

John Loughran, builder, will at once begin the erection of thirteen dwellings two stories high, on the north side of Huntington Street, west of Seventeenth. All to be of brick, with stone facings and steps, best interior work and accommodations.

On the north side of Market Street, west of Forty-second, Thomas C. Sloan is to build four two-story brick dwellings, and George B. Heath is to erect two three-story frame houses on the southeast side of Laycock Avenue, near Eighty-eighth Street.

F. B. Franks, contractor, will at once begin the erection of a factory for D. J. Fow & Co., at Hope and Harrison Streets. It is to be five stories high and cover an area of 40 x 110 feet. It will be fitted with steam, electric work and machinery for woolen manufacture.

Messrs. Wendell & Smith secured a permit yesterday to erect two more houses at their Germantown operation. The structures will be built at the northwest corner of Pelham Road and Phileena Street, and will be of brick and stone, two and a half stories high, 26.7 x 57 feet.

A two-story brick store, 60 x 110 feet, is to be placed on the east side of Ninth Street, below Girard Avenue, by Contractors Ralph & Glegg, and Contractor Oscar Streetmanner is to build a three-story brick tenement house, 16 x 58 feet, on the west side of Hutchinson Street, above Girard Avenue.

Alterations will be made to the residence of Miss F. Welsh, 1921 Pine Street, involving an expenditure of $20,000. The work will be done under the supervision of a well-known architect of New York. The alterations will consist of a handsome stone front, a rearrangement of the interior walls and the addition of a back building.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. has concluded to make a large addition to the present station, and will construct another office building over Fifteenth Street annexed to the main building erected. It will be 50 x 66 feet and seven stories high, of same material as now used, and will cost $125,000 when complete. Civil Engineer Zeigler is in charge of this new work.

Permission was granted on the 2d inst. by the Building Inspectors to Thos. McCarty to place two additional stone and brick stories on the one-story school building at Park and Susquehanna Avenues. The structure is 54 x 76 feet, and the operation will cost about $15,000. Plans for this work were made by E. F. Duray, architect, and fully noted in a previous number of this journal.

Frank Schoener, corner of Thirty-ninth and Atlanta Streets, has purchased a fine business property situated on the northeast corner of Thirty-ninth Street and Fairmount Avenue, and will take possession on or about January 1st next, when he will remodel and improve the building for first-class hotel and saloon purposes, which will necessitate new bar and fixtures, interior decorations, plumbing, painting, electric wiring, tile flooring, etc.

The foundations have been laid for four stores and dwellings on Columbia Avenue, west of Twentieth Street. The buildings will be three stories high, and the fronts are to be of red sandstone and Pompeian brick, and highly ornamental, giving them an odd, attractive effect, in pleasing contrast with the surrounding plain red brick structures. The ground covered is 63 x 85 feet, and was lately transferred by C. Harry Showalter to Mrs. Sara J. Newlin, for $18,000. This operation covers the last vacant lot on Columbia Avenue east of Thirteenth Street, so that all building will be confined to the tearing down or remodeling of old properties. They will be under cover before cold weather.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Architect Notes.

Samuel Milligan, architect, 520 Walnut Street, has made plans for a store building to be erected at 252 South Second Street, and will extend through to Dock Street. Interior fitted with all modern conveniences, and work to begin at an early day, as estimates have been made.

A Stanley Cochran, architect, 140 South Fourth Street, has prepared plans for the Westminster Presbyterian Church of West Chester, Pa. The chapel is now in course of construction. It is of Avondale stone, with slate roof, open truss roof, steam heat, electric light, seats of hard wood and all modern improvements.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 518 Walnut Street, has made plans for a chapel for All Saints' Lutheran Church at Cayuga street and Germantown Avenue, to be of gray stone, trimmed with Indiana limestone. The area will be 60 x 80 feet, one story and basement, heated by steam and have modern conveniences.

Moses & King, architects, 431 Walnut Street, have completed plans for an operation of dwelling houses at Sixty-third Street and Elmwood Avenue, Mt. Moriah Station, P., W. & B. R. R., for E. Tracy Tobin. These are the usual two and three-story structures, of fine brick and stone trimmings and quite ornamental in design. Interior in hard wood and tile work, with best accommodations, etc.

Jackson C. Gott, architect, 1201 East Fayette Street, Baltimore, Md., has completed all plans for the new penitentiary at that place. There will be an executive building 84 x 84 feet, four stories high. Also power houses, kitchens, work and prison cells enclosed in the main buildings, elevators, electric work, heating and ventilating system of the most approved, best plumbing, etc. The entire structure will be of stone principally.

E. C. Kent, architect, 140 South Fourth Street, has purchased a fine lot at Ambler, Pa., and will erect a country residence at once for his personal use. The structure will be of stone and shingle treatment, fitted on the interior with hard woods, hot air heat, also electric work and best sanitary plumbing, etc. The same architect has made plans for a house being erected by John J. Houghton, of Ambler, Pa., at same place. The latter has been under way for some time. It is Colonial in design, and will contain all modern improvements. Also plans for a stone stable at Ambler, Pa., for J. D. Cooper, to be stone and frame, two stories high, and used as a hotel and livery stable, to contain thirty-eight stalls, and fitted with every accommodation; also plans for the Church of the Ascension of Gloucester City who are about to erect on the lot adjoining the church a parish building, which will be used as a Sunday school and meeting place for the various church guilds. The building will be 30 x 69 feet, of gray stone, in the early English Gothic style of architecture. It will be divided, by movable partitions, into three rooms, two of which will be used for Sunday school purposes, and the other as a meeting room for the guilds. As the building will also be used for church entertainments, it will be furnished with a commodious stage. By removing the partitions the three rooms can be converted into one capable of seating 300 people. The cost is to be about $4000. Work will be commenced immediately.

William H. Free, architect, 27 North Juniper Street, will prepare plans for a large "apartment house" to be erected by Mr. Adolf Segal, 307 Drexel Building, and others of a syndicate recently formed. The site selected and purchased is one formerly owned by John Airey, bounded by Chestnut Street, with Woodland Avenue in rear and West of Thirty-third Street. The structure will be of stone, brick and iron construction, fireproof throughout and contain about eighty-five suites of rooms, to all of which baths will be attached. Also a large restaurant, offices, reception rooms, parlors, etc. It will be heated by steam, furnished with elevators, best system of ventilation and every modern convenience. Style of architecture Italian renaissance. As soon as all the drawings are complete bids will be asked and work began. Thus far it is an assured fact and success.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Pemberton & Co. are to build twelve three-story brick houses on the north side of Oxford Street, east of Thirty-second. One is to contain a store. These are to be of press brick, stone trimmings and best interior work.

The Board of Highway Supervisors have granted these permits: To the Reading Railroad to lay a siding into Doyle & Griffith's yards, on American Street, above Somerset; to John W. Sharp to construct a passage way or conduit under Sycamore Street to connect with the Hotel Metropole, and to Hoopes & Townsend, to lay a track across Hamilton Street. An application from the Drexel Institute for a permit to dig a trench across Thirty-second Street was referred to a committee.

The Committee on Property of the Board of Education, on the 8th inst. opened revised bids for the new Boys' High School. The bidders for the main building under roof were as follows: Fred Amweg, $261,574; Charles McCaul, $334,000;

Jacob Wenzleberger, $327,000; Johnson & Byrens, $268,732; Harry Nichols, $313,482; W. R. Dougherty, $348,451. Amweg was the lowest bidder, but owing to some objections the award was not made. The matter was referred to the Chairman of Councils' Committee on Schools, and the Chairman of the Board of Education Property Committee, with power to act. The Committee on Manual Training School met, and it was reported that there was at present 335 pupils in the school. The Committee on Property opened bids for a new school house at Seventeenth and Tasker Streets. The bids were: W. R. Dougherty, $49,000; P. H. Somerset, $49,000; C. O'Nell, $48,841; M. McManus, $48,875; Johnson & Byrens, $48,850. The same action was taken as was followed in the High School bids.

The following may be of interest to our readers and patrons. The action brought by William S. Lane against P. Elmer Weitzel to recover damages for injuries alleged to have been sustained in consequence of Weitzel signing a release of a lien against property belonging to Mr. Lane without authority, was tried before Judge Arnold and a jury in Room H, of Common Pleas Court No. 4 recently. It appeared that in 1888 Mr. Lane purchased five houses on Orianna Street, above Dauphin, from William H. Greenfield, and, in accordance with the usual custom, received a release of liens against the property from Greenfield. He paid the purchase price of the houses, and a few weeks later a claim for lumber was filed by a man named Deacon against the properties. Among the releases received by Mr. Lane from Greenfield was one covering this transaction, and to it were signed Deacon's name and the name of Weitzel, who was in his employ. Deacon, however, said he had given Weitzel no authority to sign his name to the release, and sued it out, making Mr. Lane pay over $500 on it. Mr. Deacon is now dead. Weitzel admitted having signed the release, but said he did so thoughtlessly at the request of Mr. Greenfield, who said that he had a building operation on hand and wanted to take up a note of Mr. Deacon's, which he could not do without the release being signed. It was shown, however, that at the time of the transaction Lane had taken a bond and warrant of indemnity from Greenfield—who was solvent at that time but who has since failed—the bond being as security for liens, and the point was raised whether the action should not have been brought upon this instrument. Judge Arnold left the question to the jury, who, after a short deliberation, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff for $584.43.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, NOV. 15, 1893.

"The Lincoln," an apartment house erected on Locust Street, above Twelfth, is receiving its final touches in detail finish and is ready for occupancy. It is a model in this new departure of building Philadelphia houses, and for its general completeness much credit is due to the care and zeal exercised by Mr. John J. Ridgway, President of the Real Estate Investment Company, whose investment reared the structure. The interior is fitted with every home comfort known to modern housekeeping, and from present prospects will in a short time be fully occupied by the families of many of our leading citizens.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

J. Clark Miller, builder, will at once begin the erection of six two-story dwellings on the east side of Nineteenth Street, north of Tioga. All to be of press brick and stone fronts, with good accommodations on interior.

Wm. E. Carrington & Son, contractors, have received the contract to erect the power house of the Tenth and Eleventh Streets Railway on the east side of Hutchinson Street, south of Oxford, noted in a previous number of this journal.

Stacey Reeves & Sons, 1611 Filbert Street, have contracted with A. J. Drexel, Jr., to make considerable alterations and additions to the newly purchased Wiltach property, at Eighteenth and Walnut Streets. It is understood these include considerable of interior as well as exterior work.

Charles A. Porter said, on the 9th inst., regarding the contract for removing the grade crossings at North Penn Junction, that all the differences with the Reading Railroad have been adjusted and the bond of the contractors would be signed. He said work would be commenced some time next week.

The Commissioners of Public Instruction of Camden have awarded a contract to Charles Wrixford for a new school house at Liberty Park, in the Eighth Ward. The price is $11,950. The building is to be a two-story brick building and contain eight rooms. Previously noted in architectural notes.

Johnson & Byrens have received the contract to erect the new Boys' High School, their bid being $268,732. Also a contract for the new school house to be erected at Seventeenth and Tasker Streets. Also an electric power house at Girard College, all of which have been noted before in this journal in Architect Notes.

The Episcopal congregation at Stanwick, a suburb of Camden, N. J., has been presented with a valuable piece of land by John H. Chestnut, of Philadelphia, on which they will erect All Saints' Episcopal Church. Funds are now being raised for a church edifice, which will be erected in the Spring and will be of modern architecture.

M. A. Dempsey, Eleventh and Fitzwater Streets, will at once begin the erection of a five-story furniture store on Broad Street, below Washington Avenue. It will be 80 x 100 feet and extend to South Marshall Street in rear. The interior will contain a freight lift and possibly passenger elevator, electric work and modern improvements.

Thomas Wilson, of the Department of Internal Affairs, of this State, was at the Builders' Exchange on the 9th inst., looking into the system of apprenticeship and the trades unions. He was shown over the building by Secretary Harkness and Superintendent William Morgan. Mr. Wilson was very highly pleased with what he saw and complimented the members of the exchange.

George W. Trumbore & Co., lime, sand, cement, etc., corner Haines and Hancock Streets, Germantown, have been awarded contracts for supplying lime for brick work for Carpenter Land Improvement Company, Franklin and Main Streets; also hotel for P. F. Shields, Main and Church Streets; dwelling for George E. Weiss, Pulaski Avenue and School lane, and A. M. E. Church, Centre and Wilson Streets.

The members of the Board of Health have inspected the new pavilion for contagious diseases at the Municipal Hospital, and the new disinfecting plant. A proposition will be made looking to the perpetuation of the hospital on the present site, and the construction of additional buildings for the isolation of contagious diseases. The chief difficulty to be met with, in the matter of moving of the hospital, is the opposition of the Councilmen to have it removed to their respective wards.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Architect Notes.

The plans for an eight-story office and business building by A. W. Dilks, architects, 1001 Chestnut Street, have been placed on the boards for estimate. The structure will stand on the site of 1031-33 Chestnut Street, and has been fully described in a previous issue of this journal. The award will be made some time after the 25th of the present month.

William H. MacCollin and Harry Hill Alcock, architects, have formed a partnership in business at 913 Walnut Street, where they have fitted up very handsome offices, and are well prepared to receive clients and friends. Plans have been prepared by them for a large four-story factory for the Hexter Bros., at Tenth and Emily Streets. Structure to be of red brick, stone sills at doors and windows, galvanized cornice; interior fitted with steam heat and power, with freight lifts and modern conveniences, etc. Estimates will soon be asked on the work.

Walter H. Geissinger, architect, southwest corner Twelfth and Chestnut Streets, has made complete plans for a large factory, to be erected for George Miller & Son Company, at 259 to 263 South Third Street. The building on Third Street will be 60 x 78 feet six stories and basement, and the Levant Street part of the same will be 60 x 75½ feet and six stories high, tin roof; interior will be fitted with steam power and freight lifts, electric work and speaking tubes. The walls to be of brick, with stone trimming. Estimates are to be made at once on the work.

Hazelhurst and Huckel, architects, 925 Drexel Building, have made plans, alterations and additions to the house of John B. Stevenson, at Abington. Also alterations and addition to house of James Dobson, at Falls of Schuylkill. Also considerable work will be done, after plans by the same architects, at the home of James Carstenson, Scarsdale, Westchester Co., N. Y. Plans also made by them for a colonial cottage at Atlantic City, N. J., for Mr. John Loughran, builder, of this city. This house will be fitted in hard woods on interior, steam heat, electric work and every modern convenience, etc. Drawings are in course of preparation for a fine church, to be erected by Holy Trinity Baptist congregation, at Eighteenth and Bainbridge Streets. This will be of stone, slate roof, open work on interior, with best seatings and furniture. Quite a number of other minor jobs are being considered by the same firm.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Department of Public Safety wishes to have a fire house erected at Twenty-seventh Street and Highland Avenue. The estimated cost is $25,000.

Saunders & Son, No 22 N. Twenty-second Street, will erect a fire three-story dwelling at Seventeenth and Carlton streets, to have all modern conveniences.

Bids have been asked for the movable truck and glass case to enclose the Liberty Bell. No plans have been made, but bidders have been asked to submit plans with estimates.

Eugene L. Richter, electrical contractor, 2349 North Fifteenth Street, has secured contract for electric lighting for Dempsey Bros., Low & Co.' building, Twenty-first and Columbia Avenue. The contract calls for 300 incandescent lights and 6 arc lights. Mr. Richter is just completing the electric light work at the Wilson Building, 44 North Seventh Street.

Among the recent purchases of real estate is noted one by William H. Wanamaker from Clifford Pemberton, Jr., at Thirty-second Street and Montgomery Avenue, upon which will be erected a Congregational church of considerable dimensions. Further particulars will be noted in this journal, when plans as prepared have been agreed upon and all details arranged.

A number of Philadelphia architects have made plans for the re-building of Beechwood Inn at Jenkintown, Pa., for the syndicate who recently purchased the site. It is understood that a $80,000 building will be erected as soon as definite plans are agreed upon and details arranged. Enough has developed, however, to say that the house will be fitted with every modern convenience and improvements.

The Sub-Committee on Gas Works of the Gas Committee, on the 16th inst. passed upon appropriations asked by Director Windrim, and most of his requests were recommended to the Finance Committee for favorable action. The amount recommended for salaries was $800,000, as against $775,000 of the year before. The appropriation made last year for the purchase of water gas, $500,000, was again asked by the Director and approved, but an increase of $18,412 was made in the amount fixed for materials. The Director was of the opinion that $1,000,000 would be necessary for buying coal, and stated that the increase of $200,000 was for the purchase of a larger stock to avoid the risk of being caught without a sufficient supply on hand. Extensions are anticipated by the Director in the way of a new gas holder and laying a large additional supply of pipe for distribution, and his request for $776,500 was allowed, as was also $15,000 for incidentals.

A number of West Philadelphia people who favor the passage of the ordinance setting apart a portion of the Almshouse grounds for a park, and members of the Board of Charities and Correction, who oppose the passage of this ordinance, which is now pending in Councils, met at the Mayor's office on the 16th inst., and discussed the matter from their different standpoints of view. Messrs. Lambert, Moore and Gardner, of the Board of Charities, were present, as were B. B. Comegys, W. H. Lex, Councilman Goheen and others. The former opposed the ordinances because the Almshouse needed the ground proposed to be taken for the erection of a house for nurses, a children's hospital and other buildings. The West Philadelphia citizens urged the inadvisability of erecting any more buildings on the Almshouse property at any time, and strongly opposed its continuance in West Philadelphia under any circumstances. They felt that this setting aside of land there for a public park would be a preparatory step toward getting rid of the Almshouse entirely. No conclusion was reached.

Councils' Committee of Schools on the 16th inst. considered the annual appropriation to the Board of Education for the year 1894. The total appropriation asked for was $5,089,320.35. Last year's appropriation was $3,549,855. The item of $2500 for the purchase of philosophical instruments for the Girls' Normal School and the School of Practice was increased by $1000. From the item of $19,000 for furnaces in old schools $3000 was trimmed off. An effort was made to cut down the item for repairs from $284,618 to $200,000, but the members of the Board of Education, who were present, made a successful plea for $250,000. An increase from $135,000 to $140,000 was asked for in the item for books and stationery and it was granted. Increases of salary for the clerks in the offices of the Board of Education, in the architect's office and in Superintendent Brooks' department were not allowed. The Department of Superintendence was given a $300 increase in the item for printing, and $4000 was allowed for cooking schools. The request of $40,000 for fire escapes was cut down to $30,000. The item of $40,000 for libraries was reduced to $25,000. The sum of $350,000 for a new Boys' High School was allowed. No deductions were made from the item of $1,540,000 for new school houses and lots. Of the $5,089,320.35 asked for by the Board of Education they secured all but $65,000.

Mr. George J. Rummel, who for the past six years has been the active influence in booming Avalon, N. J., has been named as a candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms of the next New Jersey House of Assembly. CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Skeptical:

One who doubts.--(Webster.)

OF a thousand owners of Aeolians we can say 800 were skeptics. A hearing is the only means of convincing. The Skeptic judges from our ADS that the Aeolian is strictly mechanical—an Organette.

'Tis not. Everybody can play it, but no two play it alike. Some give it more expression than others. Some play Wagnerian Operas or Symphonies with better effect than the average orchestra.

VOL. VIII.—No. 48.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 29, 1893.

PRICE 15 CENTS

Architect Notes.

Richard C. Loos, architect, 1705 Arch Street, Philadelphia, has prepared plans for a fine residence and stable to be erected at Lancaster, Pa., for John F. Brimmer, to be Pompeian brick, three stories high, colonial in style of architecture, fitted on the interior in quartered oak and best modern improvements, steam heat, electric work, etc. Also plans for a stable in the rear, with all accommodations, coachman's quarters included.

Howard Hager, architect, Manhattan Life Building, has made plans for a fine country residence for Samuel Dunn, Esq., to be erected at Me rose, Pa. To be three stories high, of stone and shingle treatment. The interior will be in hard woods, have electric light, steam heat and subdivided on first floor into a large parlor, dining-room, library, pantry, kitchen; also a fine hall at entrance. A conservatory will be located just off the library, which will contain all modern improvements for culture of plants. On the second floor, bed chambers and sitting-room, while the third will have a fine, large billiard-room and servants' quarters. Contract has been given to Chas. P. Nesbitt, 425 Locust Street.

Bailey & Truscott, architects, 136 South Fourth Street, Philadelphia, have made plans for alterations to a house for W. C. Lovrey at Thirty-eighth Street and P. W. & B. R. R., which include new back building and a handsome staircase; also pantry and entire new system of plumbing, etc. Contract has been awarded to Elwood M. Smith; work to be started at once. Also drawings for alterations to house of Mr. Richards at Narberth; a new hall and dining-room, bed-room and pantry in hard wood. Work is being done at residence of E. E. Reed, Cooper Street, Camden, which is nearing completion. Plans have been made for a small power house and drawings revised for stable at Overbrook, Pa., for Percy Simpson. These are to be of stone and are under course of construction.

Thomas P. Lonsdale, architect, Manhattan Life Building, will prepare all plans in detail for the new Soldiers' Orphans' State Manual School, the question of site having been fixed at Scotland, Franklin Co., Pa. The structure will be of stone and brick construction, as near fire proof as possible, and contain all modern conveniences and improvements. It is expected that estimates will be invited at an early day. Also plans for an alteration and addition to the hotel of Louis Goss, Seventeenth and Ridge Avenue. These will include interior and exterior work, including a very handsome wine-room in the old German style of fittings, in oak wood, mosaic floor, open fire places, and all modern improvements and conveniences in the dwelling part of the premises. Estimates are being made on the work.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Councils' Committee on City Property will present an ordinance to purchase a site on the east side of Fifteenth Street near Race for a new police station.

Joseph F. Myers, contractor, 516 Willow Street, has the contract to make an addition to the Widows Asylum, at Belgrade Street and Susquehanna Avenue. This structure will contain all known improvements in such institutions.

A fire destroyed a large portion of 211-213 North Broad Street on the 24th inst. to the extent of about $2000. It is understood that the damage will be repaired at once, being principally on the interior. F. H. Hahn, one of the occupants, is the owner.

Postmaster Carr is again urging the purchase of property in rear and west of the Post Office on Chant Street, and extending through to Market, for wagon space and general outlet to the building. This matter has been urged by his predecessor and others upon the government at Washington, D. C., but nothing definite has been done thus far.

A proposition has been offered in City Councils to sell out absolutely the gas plant of the city and transfer all the land, paraphernalia for making the power, etc. The ordinance is offered by Mr. Cleaver who presents many reasons for his action which has had the effect to attract the attention of many of the leaders in both bodies. It is likely that the works will be purchased by a syndicate should the sale be made.

A six-story building, 36.10 by 89 feet, will be erected on the west side of Tenth Street south of Vine, for S. Loux & Sons, at once. Title to the land has been secured, and the plans for the proposed building have already been approved by the Bureau of Building Inspectors. The properties Nos. 240 and 242 North Tenth Streets, were bought some time since for the purpose. The drawings for the proposed building have been prepared by Architect Emil Clark Trittin, and estimates for the work will be invited at once. Noted some months since in this Journal.

The members of the commission appointed by Mayor Stuart, under an ordinance of City Councils, to secure a site for a New Municipal Hospital, are kept busily engaged in examining different places submitted to them. The majority of these locations are in the suburbs, but no selection has been made, which is due principally to the exorbitant prices, which are far in excess of the amount appropriated for the purpose, at which the most eligible places are held by the owners. It is said that several of the members of the Commission are favorable to the plan of purchasing additional ground surrounding the present institution, and erecting additional buildings thereon.

During the coming year it is more than probable that a Jewish college will be erected in this city for the special education and training of the Hebrew youth, and a trust fund of $150,000 from the estate of Hyman Gratz, will be made available for this purpose. Horace A. Nathan the newly-elected president of the Mickve Israel congregation, to which this large fund has reverted, has appointed a committee to consider the matter and report on this trust estate, and who will soon meet and devise plans and ascertain the most practical way of carrying out the objects to be attained. The members of the committee are Dr. Solomon Solis Cohen, Dr. Cyrus Adler, of New York; Charles J. Mordecai, Samuel Morias Hyneinan, Charles J. Coken, Mayer Sulzberger and David Sulzberger, with President Nathans, Rev. Dr. S. Morals, and Secretary Isaac Feinberg, secretary, ex-officio members.

At a meeting of Councils' Committee on Municipal Government on the 22d inst., the question of condemning and putting upon the city plan 300 acres of land at South Broad Street and Patterson Avenue, in the Twenty-sixth Ward, for a public park was taken up. Councilman Anderson made an appeal to give the children of the poor and middle classes of the southern section of the city a playground such as Jackson Park, Chicago, was before the Fair. He stated that the great distance from Fairmount Park prevented these people from making use of it, and some such recreation ground in the lower section is absolutely needed. Not only base ball and foot ball grounds for the boys would be supplied, but tennis and croquet courts for the girls would be laid out as well. Mr. Meehan followed in advocating the park, while Mr. Hawkes spoke against the playground because he did not believe in putting upon the taxpayers this expense, which in his opinion would amount in the end to at least a million of dollars. On motion of J. B. Anderson it was decided to visit and examine the site before taking any action. Another small park at Tioga Street and Kensington Avenue was reported by Mr. Meehan and favorably referred to Councils.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

A piece of ground at Orthodox and Pierce Streets, Frankford, containing three acres, has been bought by Thomas Gordon for $24,000.

Harry Hagan, builder, will at once erect nine two-story houses at Bristol and Wayne Streets, all to be of press brick, stone trimmings and modern improvements.

James Mole, builder, will erect on Demie Street, near Wayne Junction, about twenty two-story houses, all to be of the usual kind in that vicinity. Ground will be broken at an early day.

Messrs. Wendell & Smith will erect two more houses at Pellman and Phillena Streets, Germantown. They will be two stories in height and will be constructed of brick and stone, with all modern improvements.

Special hearings are taking place in the appeals against increase of taxes on the site rejected recently for the U. S. Mint, as the assessors have returned all at an increased valuation, caused by the prices placed by the owners.

Efforts are now being made by a committee representing Beth Israel Synagogue to purchase the property of the Second Reformed Church, on Seventh Street, near Brown, and offers a goodly price for the Reformed Church, many members of which rather favor a sale.

Lorenzo Taggart, builder, Thirtieth and Chestnut Streets, will at once begin the erection of fifteen handsome three-story dwellings at Twentieth and Spruce Streets. These will be of best brick, with stone facings and steps. Interior work to be of the best, with all modern improvements.

For a consideration of $40,000 W. Frederick Snyder has transferred to Louis Bergdoll two properties at the southeast corner of Twenty-fourth and Chestnut Streets. The two properties measure 50 x 107 feet. It is understood that Mr. Bergdoll will demolish the old hotel now on the site and erect a modern structure in its stead.

A committee composed of Messrs. Robert Heberton, Howard Strause, John Highland, G. W. Rex, Samuel Topham and N. P. Cressman have been appointed by the First Presbyterian Church of Chestnut Hill, to make arrangements for the complete renovation and decoration of the church building. Extensive alterations and improvements are contemplated.

Director Beittler received and opened proposals on the 16th inst. for the new fire house to be erected at Chestnut Hill. No awards are to be made at present, as there is no appropriation to cover the expense of the building, the funds for which will have to be taken from next year's appropriation to the Bureau of City Property. The lowest bidder was Philip H. Somerset, whose bid was for $23,205.

John Lowber Welsh has secured the old home-stand of the Carpenters, in the upper part of Germantown. The price paid is said to have been $110,000, or $11,600 an acre. The grounds surrounding the roomy old mansion comprise about ten acres, upon which several buildings have been erected, none of which are in any way modern. The old house will be refitted throughout, without changing the general appearance or arrangement of the building.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Kennett Square, Chester Co., W. W. Gawthrop will erect four frame dwellings.

—At Village Green, Delaware Co., Jesse G. Smedley has broken ground for a residence on the Chester pike.

—At Allentown, Lehigh Co., James M. Ritter's planing mill has been destroyed by fire, causing a loss of about $10,000.

—At Freemanburg, Northampton Co., $4000 has been donated by Miss Annie Knecht for a Reformed Church.

—At Allegheny, James Nesbitt, the contractor, has purchased a plot, 102 x 100 feet, on Clarissa Street for building purposes.

—At Royaltown, Dauphin Co., the United Brethren Church is well under way, and will probably be ready to occupy by Christmas.

—At Birmingham, Huntingdon Co., Mrs. Elizabeth B. Steel has sold twelve acres of land in Sadbury Township to Zion A. M. E. Church.

—At Hummelstown, Dauphin Co., the handsome dwelling of J. J. Nissley, Esq., is nearing completion. It was designed by Messrs. Grove and Strite, of Harrisburg.

—At Rankin Station, Allegheny Co., the Braddock Glass Company, whose plant at Rankin was destroyed some time since and rebuilt at Elmwood, Ill., will move the works back to Rankin.

—At Oxford, Chester Co., the project for the erection of an opera house is progressing favorably. Walters & Plack, 1414 South Penn Square, Philadelphia, are preparing preliminary sketches.

—At North Wales, Montgomery Co., work is progressing on the handsome colonial residence for Mrs. L. Weingartner.—Charles E. Bean will erect a double brick dwelling on the lot recently purchased of J. W. Wampole.

—At Willow Grove, Montgomery Co., the contract for the large barn for Mr. Frazier has been let to James O'Neil, for $18,000. The structure will be 76 x 158 feet, of stone, and the interior will be furnished with every convenience for the purpose intended. The same contractor is at work on the handsome residence of Mr. Harrison, which is to replace the one recently destroyed by fire.

—At Reading, Berks Co., the lowest bid for construction of house sewers was that of William Grant Cook, of New York, representing the Delafeld Sewer Co. The bid was $179,465. City Clerk Fetter can give information. At the last meeting of the school board the subject of purchasing typewriters for the high schools was considered. Major Ancona was made the chairman of a committee to procure plans and estimates for the renovation and extension of the Girl's High School building.—The Security Building Association has decided to purchase eighteen lots on Twelfth Street and erect dwellings thereon.

—At Chester, Delaware Co., the Beale House property, at Sixth Street and Edgemont Avenue, has been bought by Crosby M. Black, who will divide the land into building lots. The present Beale House will be torn down and a handsome building erected for stores and other purposes. Riley.—The stone and mason work on the new public buildings at Fifth and Welsh Streets has been finished, and work will cease until another sub-contract is awarded by the Treasury Department.

—At Pittsburgh W. A. Herron & Son have sold a lot, 247 x 100 feet, on Harrison and Forty-ninth Streets, to a party who will erect a large manufacturing plant on the site.—Lewis S. Schlapin has purchased from R. S. McDowell & Co. a piece of land upon which he will erect several dwellings.—J. H. CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Skeptic:

One who doubts.--(Webster.)

OF a thousand owners of Æolians we can say 800 were skeptics. A hearing is the only means of convincing. The Skeptic judges from our ADS that the Æolian is strictly mechanical — an Organette.

'Tis not. Everybody can play it, but no two play it alike. Some give it more expression than others. Some play Wagnerian Operas or Symphonies with better effect than the average orchestra.

Æolian Concerts daily.

JOHN N. GALLAGHER, Proprietor.

JOHN F. BRISBANE, City Editor.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, DEC. 6, 1893.

THE scheme for the sale of the city's Gas Works is not dead by any means. A more vigorous effort is now on foot to secure the works than ever before. Of course, the Trades League people, as we'll as those of the Municipal League, are watching matters closely with the view of defeating the project, and, while the sharp, shrewd business men of the former organization are not apt to have dust thrown in their eyes, yet public sentiment is needed to thwart the designs of the schemers, who will not down so long as there is a shadow of hope for its favorable consideration by our City Councils.

That this is likely to happen sooner than most people expect is evinced in the fact that Mayor Stuart's protests against any increase in the yearly purchase of water gas, together with his earnest recommendation for improvements to the city's plant, have been ignored, while increased appropriations for the purchase of water gas are yearly making the city more dependent upon the private concern that sells us the water gas than ever.

Director Windrim, in showing the necessity for the purchase of the Gas Improvement Company's plant, presented this table:

	Cubic Feet.
Aggregate quantity of gas manufactured in 1892	3,584,589,000
Estimated quantity to be manufactured for 1893	3,985,000,000
Maximum quantity of gas to be made by the city from coal during 1893	2,693,108,100
Gas to be purchased from the Philadelphia Gas Improvement Company during 1893	1,891,891,891

In response to these figures he said: "If further extensions of the plant of the Philadelphia Gas Improvement Company be authorized no appropriation will be required to be made by the city, but the company will control 50.8 per cent.

of the city's gas supply, and unless action is taken by Councils to provide facilities for the Bureau of Gas for the city to manufacture for consumers, the percentage to be purchased will be much greater each year, and the control of the company increase and that of the city decrease."

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Alterations are to be made to the house of Thomas P. C. Stokes, on Upsal Street, Germantown, to cost $6000.

Henry Disston, the saw manufacturer of Philadelphia, has awarded contract to George C. Hoopes, of Media, Pa., for the erection of a fine stable at Chestnut Hill at a cost of $7000.

Harry R. Shock, builder, has bought about six acres of ground on Marshall Road, in the Twenty-seventh ward, upon which he will make improvements at an early day by the erection of a number of fine houses.

Director Windrim has awarded these contracts: For macadamizing the Frankford and Bristol Turnpike, to James W. Carey, at $2.35 per cubic yard; single teams per day, $2 70; double teams, $5 10; steam roping, $12 per day. The work will cost about $5000. Repairs to river wall on Delaware river, between Venango and Hedley Streets, L. H. Hathaway & Co., $14,795; regrading and macadamizing the eastern approach to bridge on the line of Marshall Road over to Cobb's creek, M. & J. B. McHugh. The work is to cost about $7000.

Henry C. Dahl, carpenter, 406 South Fifth Street, has been given the contract to build the two large stores on Second, below Dock Street, and extending through to the latter thoroughfare. Both structures are to be provided with elevators and other modern conveniences. The fronts, as shown by the plans of Architect Samuel Milligan, are to be quite attractive, especially in the case of the Second Street store. The material is to be buff or gray brick, with Indiana limestone and terra cotta ornamentation and galvanized iron finishings. There will be plenty of light in both buildings, the doors and corridors being spacious as well as neat in design. Together the buildings will cost about $14,000.

Very little new work of any magnitude is at present being undertaken in the way of new structures, but attention is being paid to pushing to completion the operations started at an earlier day. The greatest now under course of construction are the two immense store buildings at Tenth, Filbert and Market Streets for C. C. Harrison which are approaching the upper floors upon the latter. On the former the foundations only being prepared. Odd Fellows' Temple, Broad and Cherry Streets, well up to fourth and fifth floors. Mercantile Club, Broad, above Master, up to the second floor, and appears to be a massive and well constructed building.

The Hotel Hanover, at Twelfth and Arch Streets, now under roof and ready for interior work. Bank of America is fast being pushed in structural stage, and the Fidelity Building, a neighbor of the latter, is at this writing under roof. Work upon the foundation of the Bourse is also progressing finely under general Contractor Rorke. The immense office building and train shed of the Pennsylvania Railroad are also well on toward being completely covered, and the interior details advanced. The "Lorraine Apartment" is being pushed with much vigor and is now approaching the fourth and fifth floors, under supervision of Mr. Willis G. Hale, the architect. There are also quite a number of minor enterprises in different stages among which may be noted the one at City Line and Overbrook adjoining. Also, a number of operations in smaller dwellings, etc.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Lebanon, Lebanon Co., a new fire company will be organized.

—At Jenkintown, Montgomery Co., it has been decided to widen Cedar Street.

—At Washington, Washington Co., the Citizen's Water Company will sink twelve inch wells.

—At Oil City, Venango Co., a block of business buildings was destroyed by fire last week, causing a loss of about $100,000.

—At Cannonsburg, Washington Co., the Central Presbyterian Church congregation has decided to erect a new church, to cost about $10,000.

—At Moselem, Berks Co., a committee has been appointed by the Lutheran congregation to consider the advisability of erecting a new church edifice.

—At White Haven, Luzerne Co., the Ruhnke Hotel, Smith's Hotel, Drigg's Hotel and several other structures were destroyed by fire last week, causing a loss of $200,000.

—At Lansdowne, Delaware Co., Thomas Hugh, who is erecting a large factory on Baltimore Avenue, intends putting in an engine and boiler. The building will be heated by steam.

—At Stouchburg, Berks Co., the Zion Lutheran congregation has purchased a lot and appointed a committee to see about the erection of a new church. The committee will submit plans to the congregation on December 9th.

—At West Chester, Chester Co., those interested in the new Friends' Home to be established are considering the former residence of C. Wesley Talbot, at the corner of Church and Barnard Streets as a location. It is proposed to lease the building for a time while the fund for a new structure is increasing.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

Wagner's Soul

Of music will infuse itself into the owner of an "Æolian" though it sometimes never touches the heart of a professional pianist.

Wagnerian music grows grander at each hearing. It requires an orchestra—not a piano. The Æolian plays Wagner throughout. You are the leader. It is the orchestra—playing the notes, while you give the tempo and expression by use of stops.

PHILADELPHIA, WED'Y, DEC. 13, 1893.

IN THIS age, when beauty as well as durability is desired in interior decoration, the introduction of any new method or material is interesting, not only to owners, but particularly to architects and builders, who are constantly on the qui vive to discover something new with which to produce those effects which make the commonplace thoroughly artistic, and, at the same time, represent the lowest possible minimum of cost. Dec-co-reo combines all the qualities required by the decorator—strength, durability, an artistic effect similar to that seen in the Alhambra, comparative inexpensiveness and adaptability to color treatment. This material consists of a number of thin layers of wood with the grain running alternately crosswise, thus rendering warping and cracking impossible. Upon this wood the composition for ornamentation is applied in any desired design, after which all the wood not covered with the ornaments is cut through, thus giving to the work the relief afforded by the thickness of the wood, which is about three-sixteenths of an inch. This method is not only well adapted to grill work, as it can be applied equally well on both sides, but also to screens, friezes, festoons, panels, or in fact to any form of wall and ceiling decoration in relief. We should like to call attention to the fine illustration of this work on our first page, as in that way a better idea may be obtained of its artistic excellence than can be had by any description of its merits, however complete. Messrs. Hall & Garrison, the inventors and manufacturers of this material, have spent much time and money in costly experiments, expensive machinery, and the employment of talented designers in order to bring the material to its present excellence. They have also applied for a patent upon the method described and obtained a patent on the name "Dec-co-reo," by which the material is known. Specimens of this work can be seen at their factory and salesroom, 1126 Washington Avenue, this city, and in New York at their salesrooms, 136 and 138 W. Twenty-third Street.

THE new Post Office and Government Building to be erected at Pittsburgh, Pa., for which an appropriation of $400,000 has already been made for the foundations and superstructure, will afford Supervising Architect O'Rourke an opportunity to express his great ability in designing large buildings. That Mr. O'Rourke will prove in every way equal to the task of designing a building of magnificent external beauty and proportions, and at the same time in full keeping with the purposes for which it is to be used, goes without saying, as he is a man of ripe experience and judgment as an architect, besides possessing the most thorough business qualities in exacting from contractors a full compliance with his high standard of excellence as to work and material.

Architect Notes.

G. W. & W. D. Hewitt, architect, Bullitt Building, Fourth below Chestnut Streets, have made plans for a maternity ward for Hahnemann Hospital, Broad above Race Streets. It will be in keeping with the present building, and furnished with all conveniences. Estimates are being made.

A new church building, to be of granite, with lime and red stone trimmings, is to be built at Germantown Avenue and Nineteenth Street for a Lutheran congregation. At present, it is said, about $12,000 will be spent, but ultimately the building will be enlarged at a cost of $60,000.

A. P. Rosser, architect, York, Pa., is engaged on plans for a large addition to be made to the Normal State School at Shippensburg, Pa. The structure will be of brick and stone, slate roof, three stories high, heat and ventilation of the present system, plastered throughout with adamant and furnished with all the most approved appliances for instruction. These drawings are soon to be placed for estimate.

Walter H. Geissing, architect, southwest corner Twelfth and Chestnut Streets, has made plans for a factory for S. P. Wetherill at the northeast corner of Twenty-second Street and the Norristown branch P. & R. R. The structure will be three stories high, of brick, stone and iron construction, fitted with steam heat and power, electric work, speaking tubes, freight lifts and all general conveniences, etc. Estimates are being made on the work at the office of the architect.

Baker & Dallett, architects, southwest corner Fifth and Walnut Streets, have made plans for a five-story addition to the Polyclinic Hospital, Eighteenth and Lombard Streets. It will be of brick, with stone trimmings, and interior as nearly fireproof as possible, and furnished with a freight lift, electric work, speaking tubes, best sanitary plumbing, special heating and ventilation on approved systems, an amphitheatre for clinical and lecture purposes. Also, laboratory building with rooms for professors, offices, parlor or reception room. All modern conveniences will be introduced. Also, plans by the same architects for a fine residence at Castle Point, Hoboken, N. J., for Mr. Stevens, to be of stone, three stories high, interior in hard woods and electric work, also best conveniences.

Horace Trumbaur, architect, 310 Chestnut Street, has made plans for the rebuilding of Beechwood Inn, at Jenkintown, Pa. His plans show a remodeled building of much beauty with four picturesque stone towers, a porte-cochere and pavilions, and other features of a striking nature. The reconstructed and enlarged building is to be four stories high, excepting one of the towers, which is to project a story higher. An exterior feature will be a red slate roof. All the outside work is to be done in a manner which will brighten up the landscape and justify the extensive improvement of the surrounding roads and grounds. The basement under the present frame building will be utilized for a bowling alley, billiard hall, cafe, wine rooms, toilet and barbers' rooms, telegraph office, etc. A new lobby, 40 by 40 feet, will be set in the first floor and be finely finished. Its ceiling will be of paneled oak, the floor will be tiled, and there will be oak panel wainscoting from floor to ceiling. The office will be fitted up in style, behind an ornamental black iron screen. In addition to these changes the ball-room is to be enlarged to 35 by 40 feet; and the dining-room to 40 by 120 feet; 45 new bath rooms are to be added, and two elevators are to be provided for passengers and freight. A new wing is to be put up for the kitchen, together with new plants for electric light, steam heat and water supply. Besides these the plans provide for a new stable for 50 horses, and separate buildings for laundry and power house and ice manufacturing purposes and servants' quarters. Work is to be started on the improvements as soon as possible, and is to be completed by May 1st, when the inn is to open under the direction of S. B. Hillman, the former proprietor. The inn property was recently purchased from the Richard J. Dobbins estate, for about $120,000, by a party of gentlemen, who now constitute the Beechwood Inn Improvement Company. They include Beauveau Borie, W. W. Frazier, W. W. Harrison, Clement Newbold and C. H. K. Curtis.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

Charles McCaul, contractor, will make extensive alterations to the warehouse, 242-46-48 North Broad Street. Work to start at once.

Quigg & McLinden, builders, will at once begin the erection of nine two-story dwellings on west side of Potter Street, south of Allegheny Avenue. All to be of press brick, stone steps and sills, with best interior work and conveniences.

LEARY'S OLD BOOK STORE,

No. 9 South Ninth Street,
First Store below Market St.) PHILADELPHIA

McGarry Bros. will build two dwellings on Bass Street, near Church, in the Twenty-second Ward. To have all modern conveniences.

E. White, 2729 Girard Avenue, has contract for painting and glazing new storage house for the chemical works of Theodore J. Goldchmid, 3328 Frankford Avenue. Also two new stores for William T. Gabell, Sedgley Avenue and Diamond Street; has also under way the painting and glazing on new dwelling for Mr. Wambach, at Stratford, Pa.

The contract for the eight-story business and office building, to be erected at 1031-33 Chestnut Street, has been awarded to J. E. & A. L. Penock, contractor s, 305 Walnut Street. The owner is Henry H. Watkins, and the architect, A. W. Dilks, 1001 Chestnut Street. The latter will have entire charge of the erection of the structure, a full description of which has been given in a previous number of this journal.

At a meeting of the Councils' Committee on Schools, held on the 8th inst., it was decided to recommend favorably to Councils the following ordinance: That the land on the southeast corner of Forty-sixth Street and Woodland Avenue be purchased for school purposes, the price not to exceed $15,000. The lot has a frontage of 108 feet on Woodland Avenue and 114 on Forty-sixth Street. Another ordinance that was "recommended" provides for the purchase of No. 3572 Haverford Street. The building is at present leased for school purposes, but it is the desire of the committee to purchase it out right.

A movement has been on foot for some time to erect a manual and training school in connection with the present school system of the city. As sixteen acres of ground is soon to be set aside for that purpose near the Almshouse grounds in West Philadelphia, it is more than likely to be pushed to a consummation at an early day. Daniel Baugh, President of the Art Club, Arthur Biddle and Dr Pepper are three of the gentlemen prominently interested in the plan. Soon after arrangements have been made for the dealing of the property, it is proposed to form a corporation, which shall hold both the exhibits and land as, in a sense, trustees for the city of Philadelphia. An endowment fund of $50,000 is to be raised. The conditions on which the city's land is to be deeded require that the Museum shall always be open freely to all persons who wish to use it, and that the sixteen acres of ground surrounding it shall forever be preserved and kept in order for a public park.

The following figures have been before the Finance Committee of Councils for the current expenses of the year 1894, and will, perhaps, with some modification, be passed. Among the more important items allowed for departments are $100,000 for the new County Prison; a $5000 increase to the "nuisance fund" for the Board of Health; $56,235 for an underground electrical system on Ridge Avenue; for the Bureau of City Property a total of $1,012,000, embracing $600,000 for water, $100,000 additional for coal and eight appropriations for new police stations and fire houses, of which the combination fire house at Twenty-first and Market will cost $60,000; for the Bureau of Highways, $225,000 for paving intersections, $175,000 for repairs to paved streets, $150,000 for grading and $100,000 for resurfacing suburban roads; for the Bureau of Lighting, $214,866 for Maloney lights, $75,000 for new electric lights and $549,376 for lights already erected; for the Bureau of Water, $1,100,000, of which $275,000 is for extensions and $750,000 for the Public Building Commission. The sub-committee also recommended a loan of $1,100,000 to be made for the following purposes: Gas Works extension, $250,000; improved pavements, $110,000; water works extensions, $440,000. Also a new loan of $4,500,000 for the following purposes: School buildings and lots, $750,000; gas works extension, $250,000; branch sewers, $600,000; main sewers, $1,000,000; Falls bridge, $340,000; Queen Lane Water Works, $360,000; improved pavements on streets not occupied by railways, $500,000.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Phoenixville, Chester Co., the Janeway-Logan Gas Company will erect a factory in the Spring.

—At Pittsburgh, Mr. Charles Lockhart has purchased Homewood Park and will cut it up into building lots.

—At Lock Haven, Clinton Co., surveys are being made by Voorhees & Wiltmer, of Buffalo, N. Y., for a sewerage system.

—At Allegheny, R. Swan, city engineer, can give particulars as to the proposed new filtering plant for the new water works.

—At Glenolden, Delaware Co., the residence of William Hingher and J. M. Sharp have been destroyed by fire, causing a loss of about $10,000.

—At Lancaster, Lancaster Co., the Phenix Cork factory was destroyed by fire last week, at a loss of about $30,000. The building was owned by John Best.

—At Chester, Delaware Co., a number of wheelmen are projecting a headquarters for cyclists. A property on Gay Street has been mentioned as suitable for the purpose.

—The four-story grist mill and creamery located at Layfield, New Hanover Township, and owned by J. M. H. Walters, of Pottstown, has been destroyed by fire, causing a loss of about $10,000.

—Tinicum Island has been selected by the State Quarantine Board as a suitable site on which to erect a State quarantine station and disinfecting plant. The owner is William L. Elkins, of Philadelphia.

—At South Bethlehem, Northampton Co., the South Bethlehem National Bank has purchased a lot at Third and Birch Streets, and will erect a handsome building for banking purposes. No plans have been decided on as yet, but the structure will be of brick and stone, three stories high, fine interior finish and all modern improvements.

—At Norristown, Montgomery Co., the Francis Nace farm, in Norristown Township, has been bought by a syndicate, consisting of Elliston M. Daniels, George W. March, Isaac Landis and James A. Hurst, all of Norristown. It is said the syndicate will cut up the ground into building lots for improvements, and a number of men interested will, it is said, erect fine dwellings. Among the number Mr. Daniels will erect a dwelling and stable.

—At Media, Delaware Co., a new club house will be erected by the Media Club. A lot will be bought on Washington Street. The new building will be two stories high, of brick, and the dimensions will be 40 x 75 feet. The first floor is to be fitted up handsomely as a ball-room, and the second as club quarters. The estimated cost is $8000.—George C. Hoops, contractor, has been awarded the contract for the erection of a stable for Henry Disston at Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia. The structure will be furnished with every convenience, and will cost about $7000.

Through New Jersey.

At Deckertown, Sussex Co., the town clerk can give information as to the proposed new water works.

At Long Branch, Monmouth Co., Richard H. Hughes has received contract from B. R. Price for the erection of a dwelling, to cost about $10,000.

At Atlantic City, Atlantic Co., McManus & Kelly, of Philadelphia, have purchased the St. Charles Hotel, on Delaware Avenue, for $120,000, and it is thought that a new hotel will be erected on the grounds.

At Asbury Park, Monmouth Co., ground has been broken for the new Auditorium. All the contracts for different portions of the work have been let. Milligan Bros., of New York City, will do the iron and steel work, Contract for the carpenter work will be awarded to Samuel W. Kirkbride, of Asbury Park. Geo M. Bennett will do the painting, T. P. Summers the mason work, and Fliteroft & Bro. the plumbing work. Frederick T. Camp, No. 114 Nassau Street, New York City, the architect, will superintend the erection of the structure.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Washington, D. C.

Gen. Casey, in charge of the work upon the new Congressional Library, reports that by December 1, 1894, it is expected that most of the masonry, all the roofs, skylights, all interior trimming work will be finished and considerable of the plumbing, electric wiring, &c. About $900,000 will be required for the next fiscal year.

The District Commissioners in their report ask for an appropriation of $100,000 for a municipal building. A site is also being sought for a hospital for contagious diseases.—A bill has been introduced by Senator Peffer to appropriate $1,000,000 for the establishing of an electric light plant for lighting the public building and grounds, and also for supplying light to citizens.—John W. Albaugh has bought a property on the north side of H Street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, as a sight for a new theatre. The plans have been prepared by W. Bruce Gray and Aristides Rodrigue, and call for a handsome structure of the Spanish renaissance with arcades and square towers. The seating capacity will be eighteen hundred, and the heating and lighting will be furnished from a vault outside the building. Steam heat and electric light will be used. The roof will be flat and fitted up as a Summer garden and theatre. Work will begin in a short time so as to finish the building by October, 1894.—Barry & Simpson have prepared plans for a new building for Gonzaga College on North Capitol Street.

All architects are hereby invited to submit plans in competition for a new Court House, to be erected in the City of Baltimore, at a cost of not less than $1,400,000. The whole control and direction of the work is in the hands of a non-partisan commission of seven leading professional and business men, and the Mayor of the city. The commission has secured the services of Prof. William R. Ware, of Columbia College, as consulting architect, and, under his advice, the instructions for architects, the conditions governing the competition and the requirements of the building have been formulated. They are believed to be full, fair, complete and liberal. Wagner's Soul

Of music will infuse itself into the owner of an "Æolian" though it sometimes never touches the heart of a professional pianist.

Wagnerian music grows grander at each hearing. It requires an orchestra—not a piano. The Æolian plays Wagner throughout. You are the leader. It is the orchestra—playing the notes, while you give the tempo and expression by use of stops.

VOL. VIII.—No 51.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1893.

PRICE 15 CENTS

Architect Notes.

Frank R. Watson, architect, 518 Walnut Street, has been engaged to prepare plans for a fine church edifice at Scranton, Pa., and one at Bridgeton, N. J., each to be very handsome in design and furnished with all modern conveniences and comforts. When details are matured we shall note more fully in this journal.

Charles Barton Keen, architect, 132 South Fourth Street, is engaged on plans for a fine country residence at Fall River, Mass., for Mr. Spencer Borden, to be of colonial style of architecture, frame, with pebble dashed treatment; to have large hall and four baths; also about twenty rooms, with all modern conveniences. The entire cost will be about $29,000.

Henry D. Dagit, architect, 706 Walnut Street, has made plans for an alteration in general at 14 South Third Street for John M. Doyle, manufacturer of metal signs. A new front, of iron and glass principally, will be put in, as well as considerable interior work, with all modern conveniences. Also plans for a new house to be erected upon the architect's own account at 919 Spruce Street, and which will be an ornamental brick front, with stone trimmings, and the interior of the best material and workmanship, tiling, best of plumbing, hard woods, electric work, etc. Estimates are being made on the former work, and soon to be asked upon the latter.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

The Clay Improvement Company have purchased a number of lots at Fortieth Street and Girard Avenue, and will improve them at an early day by the erection of a number of fine dwellings.

George T. Thackery will soon erect a two story mill at Lawrence and Venango Streets. To be of brick, with stone sills and steps, and interior fitted with steam and machinery for wood working purposes.

W. A. Margarum, builder, will at once begin the erection of twenty dwellings on south side of Latona Street, west of Twelfth-street. All to be of fine press brick fronts, with stone trimmings and best interior work.

George Lodge, real estate agent, Third and Federal Streets, is now building, at 519 Carpenter Street, an apartment house, and will erect another one at 324-6 German Street upon lots purchased of Downey Brothers.

Milton W. Young, of Overbrook, has bought a lot at the above place, with a front of 160 feet, upon which it is likely he will, at an early day, erect a fine house.—Col. Charles J. Field, merchant, 633 Market Street, has also bought one adjoining, and a very handsome one, but will not build upon it for an indefinite time.

The Tenth and Eleventh Streets Passenger Railway Company is contemplating the purchase of the site of the Cochran mills, lately destroyed by fire at Tenth Street and Columbia Avenue, upon which to erect a power house for the line. The laying of the rails is now approaching completion, and it will likely be decided at an early day where they will locate.

John B. Marie 950 Drexel Building, sole agent for the Staten Island Terra Cotta Lumber Company, of Woodbridge, N. J., has secured the following contracts for fire-proofing material: Academic Building, West Point Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.; State Hospital for the Insane, Harrisburg, Pa.; roof of Broad Street Station head house, Pennsylvania Railroad.

Councils' Committee on Schools met on the 13th inst. and favorably considered two ordinances for the purchase of school property, one, the building No. 3572 Haverford Street, now used for school purposes, and the other, a lot at the southeast corner of Forty-sixth Street and Woodland Avenue. The price of the latter is not to exceed $15,000. A communication was received from the Twenty-seventh Section withdrawing the request for the purchase of property at Forty-fifth Street and Chester Avenue, and requesting the purchase of the property on the southeast corner of Forty-sixth Street and Woodland Avenue.

A number of bids for heating apparatus in the various new school houses and additions to old ones were opened on the 14th inst. at the Board of Education in the presence of Councils' Committee on Property. The items asked for are for next year, out of the 1894 appropriation, and include several buildings not yet finished, which will be completed by that time. The Davis & Gorman Company secured the contract for heating the new addition to the Lynd School, Twentieth Section, for $200; heating new addition to Manayunk School, Twenty-first Section, Philadelphia Steam Heating Company, $1547; heating and ventilating Whitehall School, Twenty-third Section, Philadelphia Steam Heating Company, $3192; heating addition Bellevue School, Twenty-eighth Section, J. A. Welt, $460; heating and ventilating Robert Morris School, Twenty-ninth Section, Philadelphia Steam Heating Company, $3383; heating and ventilating Bayard Taylor School, Thirty-third Section, Thompson Bros., $2272; heating Fox Chase School, Thirty-fifth Section, T. T. Rockett, $400.

McCallum & McCallum's Innovation.

The old-established house of McCallum & McCallum, 1012 and 1014 Chestnut Street, has made considerable of a departure from its past traditions. Heretofore the energies of the firm have been rigidly devoted to the manufacture, importation and sale of rugs and carpets, but now the visitor to its store is greeted by a most elaborate display of beautiful Japanese goods, embracing about everything in the catalogue of artistic productions of this peculiar people; besides which, there is also a collection of odd and fanciful pieces of beautiful furniture, each piece having been selected for its individual richness and beauty.

The display of ceramics, ranging from magnificent vases to the tiny mantel ornament, is certainly one of the finest ever seen in this city.

The collection justly merits a visit, not only from connoisseurs, but from everyone who must buy a Christmas present, for this grand assortment of Christmas goods contains something within the reach of everyone. The stock of carpets, rugs, mats, etc., of this firm remains unimpaired, notwithstanding the above innovation, and visitors will find the self-same rich varieties of these goods on exhibition that have characterized the house for years.

An American Lead Pencil.

The Dixon Graphite lead pencil is not only a thoroughly American product in all that the words imply, but it is so greatly superior to all other lead pencils the whole world over that competition in this country is an unimportant factor.

The popularity of the Dixon Graphite lead pencil is the natural result of the great care exercised in its manufacture, for of all things the average American detests it is a pencil whose lead breaks and continues to break in the process of sharpening. The Dixon pencil of all grades is reliable. Of all uses for which lead pencils are required it has no equal, and this is now conceded by the architect, the artist and the business man everywhere.

The firm of McKay & Kahler, dealers in sewer pipe, fire brick, cements, etc., Twenty-first and Westmoreland Streets, has been dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued at the above address by Mr. Geo. McKay.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

[ENTERED AT THE PHILADELPHIA POST OFFICE AS SECOND CLASS MATTER.]

VOL. VIII.—No. 52.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1893.

PRICE 15 CENTS

Architect Notes.

Herbert Onyx, architect, 27 North Juniper Street, has been engaged to prepare plans for a store and office building to be erected at Newport News, Va. The details will be given in this journal later on.

Yarnall & Goforth, architects, 14 South Broad Street, have completed plans for a brick and frame residence to be erected on lot No. 121, Melrose, Pa. It will be three stories high, and fitted on interior in hard woods and best sanitary work, as well as all modern conveniences. Estimates are being made on the work.

Building and Real Estate Notes.

John Loughran is to build ten two-story brick dwellings on the east side of Colorado Street north of Huntingdon. All to be of press brick stone facings and best modern conveniences.

The property at 1602 Chestnut Street will be at once remodelled for Mr. Charles Vollmer, furniture dealer. This will include plate-glass windows, iron columns, interior fittings and all modern conveniences. Work has been started.

It is said that Henry C. Webster has resigned the presidency of the Jarden Brick Company, and with William Gillespie will establish a brick making plant on Passyunk avenue, west of Twenty-first street, to employ 150 hands. Kilns, dryers and machinery are to be provided on an extensive scale.

Jacob Jachey has in contemplation the building of a large bakery at Sloan and Baring Street. He has also had an ordinance introduced into Council to open a number of streets through land owned by him in this neighborhood, and during the coming season will build several rows of handsome modern dwellings.

The decision in favor of the Northeastern Elevated Railway will now give an impetus to that great work, and practical operation on the line will go on immediately. This means the erection and completion of the line already started north of Arch Street in this city, and extending over the entire length as noted previously in this journal.

The Board of Harbor Commissioners and a committee of the Girard Estate, together with Major Raymond, of the United States Engineers Corps, held a conference on the 22d inst. at the office of the Estate to discuss the advisability of utilizing the $500,000 left by Stephen Girard for the construction of bulkheads on the Girard Estate property on the Delaware River. This action is deemed necessary because of the improvement of the harbor consequent upon the fast approaching removal of the islands in the river, and the question of extending the piers belonging to the Estate lying south of Market Street, was also considered. After much discussion these matters were referred to a committee of the Girard Estate.

An extension of the Sutherland Avenue and Riggs Street power house of the Philadelphia Traction Company is to be erected by Samuel Hart & Sons, contractors. It is to be of brick, and will almost double the capacity of the big downtown plant. The estimated cost is $25,000. The same contractors built the original power house about a year ago, and have just quit work on the big house of the Traction Company at Mt. Vernon Street and Ridge Avenue.

The contract for the William Mann Company's new building, to be erected on the northeast corner of Fifth and Commerce Streets, has been awarded to George F. Payne & Co., builders, who are about to begin operations. The plans for this were prepared by Architect Lonsdale. It is a $100,000 job, and will not be completed until September next. The building is to be eight stories high, and will cover a lot 75 by 160 feet. The walls on Fifth and Commerce Streets will be of buff brick, with terra cotta ornamentation, and the heavy cornices will be what is sometimes called a "telephone color." In its general effect the building will be quite artistic for a business structure. Iron girders and beams are to be used inside, and the work is to be done in as fire-proof a manner as possible. The Mann Company's business is divided now between several buildings, the store and manufacturing department, on Market Street east of Sixth, being insufficient to accommodate them all. It is proposed to centralize the branches in the new building previously reported in this journal.

Through Pennsylvania.

When any of the following are not post office towns they will be so designated.

—At Concordville, Delaware Co., George Drayton, of Chester Heights, is contemplating the erection of a bone-grinding mill on the site of the old Leedom mill.

—At Pittsburgh, Allegheny Co., Messrs. Black & Baird have sold Lots 25-35 to purchasers who will use the site for manufacturing purposes.—Architect Charles Bickel, No. 91 Fifth Avenue, has plans for two stone and frame dwellings for Joseph L. Mitchell; all modern improvements; cost, about $32,000.—George Schwartz has taken permit for the Twenty-sixth Ward School-house. Cost, $30,000.

—At Kennett Square, Chester Co., a movement is on foot favoring the erection of a memorial building to Bayard Taylor, to be used as a public library and reading room. It is proposed the structure shall be one story high, of handsome architectural design. A site has not yet been selected.

—At Chester, Delaware Co., bonds will probably be issued to the amount of $30,000 for improvements.—The estate of the late Adam C. Eckfeldt, in the First Ward, containing about ten acres, has been sold to Messrs. Robert Wetherill, William S. Blakeley and James Garthwaite.—A committee composed of Hon. Wm. Ward, Dr. J. J. Forwood, Messrs. S. Greenwood, J. F. Black and Wm. Appleby, will go to Washington with the Mayor, to endeavor to secure some change in the construction of the Public Building. It is the intention to substitute stone for brick.

—At Pottstown, it is reported that the Pottstown, Boyertown and Reading Railway Company, has awarded contract to Charles E. Eberly, of Philadelphia, for the construction of their line from Pottstown to Boyertown. The road will be about seven miles long, from Hanover Street bridge to Boyertown, by way of Half Way House, Little Oley, Colebrookdale and Moyersville. The grading work will be commenced early next Spring. James B. Craighead, of Philadelphia, is president of the company, and Mahlon G. Taylor, of Pottstown, secretary.—Franklin T. Weller has bought a lot on North Charlotte Street, and will erect a dwelling.

—At Media, Delaware, the school board has awarded contract for the erection of the East Media school building to Joseph C. Seal, for $5793, who has sub-contracted the work as follows: Excavation, Ellsworth Barrett; stone-work, Frank I. Taylor; cut stone, D. McClintock; iron work, Geo. Clapp; lumber, C. R. Williamson & Sons; millwork, J. B. Stand & Co.; plastering, W. A. Seal; painting, Frank Ottey; plumbing and tin work, Carey & Bro.; hardware, Hawley & Snowden.—Messrs. Robert Wetherill, William S. Blakeley and James Garthwaite have jointly purchased the Adam Eckfeldt property for $40,000, for speculative and improvement purposes.—At a recent meeting of the Media Club it was decided that the proposed club house be erected on a large corner lot to be purchased; the structure to be 36 x 75 feet; basement five feet above ground, containing bowling alley, shuffle boards, heating apparatus, etc., the first story to contain a large hall, parlor, reading room; the second story an assembly room, two dressing rooms.

PHILADELPHIA. WED'Y, DEC. 27, 1893.

Judge Arnold's Opinion.

A test case under the act passed by the Pennsylvania Legislature May 19, 1893, requiring the recording of all deeds within ninety days after acknowledgment of the same, and also requiring acknowledgments to be taken before notaries public residing in the county wherein the lands are situated, etc., was recently submitted to Judge Arnold by Charles Davey and C. Wesley Ruffel, the land in question being located in the county of Philadelphia, the plaintiffs' title coming from the Elmwood Mutual Land and Improvement Company, by deed dated and acknowledged June 16, 1888, before a notary residing in Delaware County, and not yet recorded, there being no recorded debts or liens against the property.

The learned Judge in his opinion says that the act of 1893 must be read and construed as an amendment of the Act of March 17, 1875, and must be spoken of as of that date, except so far as those matters in which a change has been made. The title, therefore, is mandatory only as to recording of deeds, and should be construed so as to operate upon that purpose only.

In the title of the act of 1893 the only part in the matter of conveyancing required to be done is the recording of a deed, and the preamble follows up the same purpose by reciting that because such who are ill disposed have it in their power to commit frauds whereof diverse persons may be injured in their purchases and mortgages by prior and secret conveyances and fraudulent encumbrances, and then the enacting clause proceeds to make a change in the time allowed for recording deeds executed within the State from six months to ninety days, and a deed executed without the State from twelve months to six months.

Judge Arnold says the act of 1893 does not disable deeds acknowledged or proved under existing laws, as by the bungling of the author of the act the prohibitory clause applies to the grantor, and does not include either the place of acknowledgment or proof of the officers who are to take it, as the act does not in this respect contain any repealing clause or any repugnant words which would indicate an intent to make the enumeration of a few officers authorized to take acknowledgments exclusive of all others. The act of 1893 also makes a mistake by treating notaries public as county officers, while they are in fact and in law State officers appointed by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, but required to reside within the State, as the Governor by commission directs, and are empowered to demand payment, protest for non-payment, and serve notices thereof anywhere within the State, and outside of it also. The act of 1893 in no manner repeals previous acts appointing officers to take acknowledgments.

The proposed Trades League Jubilee, in the interest of the business men of Philadelphia, is a move in the right direction, and just what one might expect from an organization of practical business men.

The hereditary modesty of Philadelphia, in both its business and social relations, while in itself a refreshing exception to the characteristic boom and brag of other cities, has exercised a baneful influence in imparting to outsiders an unjust impression as to our business methods and enterprise. And while the hoop-la methods of Chicago may be nauseating to our more refined ideas, yet it is self-evident that it is absolutely necessary for us, in the face of modern methods, to inaugurate some system of advertising the city, such as that proposed by the Trades League. What is most needed is a more aggressive spirit, not only among business men but throughout our whole people, a spirit or pride that will express itself upon all occasions, and at every opportunity, individually and collectively.

The Chicago people, rich and poor, are imbued with the single idea of Chicago's greatness, and they are neither too modest nor too negligent to let pass a single chance to make their estimate a fixture in the minds of those with whom they come in contact. The results have been most advantageous to Chicago. The Trades League Book, of Philadelphia, by a single edition of five thousand copies, has paid for itself and been of great business benefit to the city, and even greater results may justly be expected of the second edition, now in course of preparation. There are many advantages enjoyed by Philadelphians which other cities do not possess. Why not herald these advantages, as suggested by the Trades League, in a way that will excite the interest and curiosity of those who never visit the city either for business or pleasure. What we most need is a yearly event of some kind that will bring thousands of visitors who will remain with us long enough to form an honest estimate of our true worth. We have much to interest them, and it is moderately certain that all who get a taste of Philadelphia's generous hospitality, public or private, will want to come again.

WITHOUT doubt the most elaborate display of game ever presented in Philadelphia is that now on exhibition in front of Reisser's restaurants, 22-24-26 South Fifth Street. The collection represents considerable outlay as well as enterprise on the part of the proprietor, for the choicest specimens have not only been gleaned from the forests and fields of America, but most of the European countries have been made to contribute their best varieties. The exhibition is well worth a visit.

Through Pennsylvania.

—At Huntingdon, Huntingdon Co., the knitting mills of Messrs. Swayne, Ballinger & Co., have been destroyed by fire.

—At Allegheny, Allegheny Co., C. M. Driver has purchased a lot in the Washington Place plan, which he will improve in the Spring.

—At Lancaster, Lancaster Co., at the February election a vote will be cast on the question of borrowing $300,000 for improvement purposes.

—At South Bethlehem, Northampton Co., Council has done nothing as yet about the heating of the new market house. Mr. Wilt is chairman of the committee.

—At Tamaqua, Schuylkill Co., Philadelphia capitalists have purchased the Citizens Gas Company, and will enlarge the plant and introduce incandescent electric lights.

—At Phoenixville, Chester Co., it is reported that the Schuylkill Valley Illuminating Company will remove their electric light plant from its present site and locate at Cromby.

—At Boyertown, Berks Co., the Board of Trade at a recent meeting decided to form a stock company with a capital of $30,000. Dr. Rhoads, president of the board, or John Sobold, can give particulars.

—At Bethlehem, Northampton Co., The Bethlehem Iron Company has decided to increase its capital stock from five million to ten million dollars. The rail mill will be entirely remodeled and enlarged.

—At West Chester, Chester Co., Joseph N. Marshall has sold his large mill property to the West Chester Stocking and Knitting Factory Company, who will take possession January 1, and fit it up for a stocking and knitting factory.

—At Lansdowne, Delaware Co., the water company has given notice that on and after January 1st the price of water will be about double the present cost, and many subscribers intend putting in wind mills and steam pumps. —Contractors Robert K. Ingram & Bro. have broken ground at the corner of Union and Alden Avenues for the erection of a fine stone and frame dwelling and store for B. Charles Fuhr, of Philadelphia.

LEARY'S OLD BOOK STORE,
No. 9 South Ninth Street,
(First Store below Market St.) PHILADELPHIA

—At Norristown, Montgomery Co., Richard Markley, Jr., assistant steward at the Hospital for the Insane, has completed surveys for the reservoir which will supply the institution with drinking water. The reservoir will be 225 feet in circumference and 10 feet deep, and will have a capacity of about 350,000 gallons. The excavation will be made by the mildly insane patients. The basin will be constructed of concrete, for which no contracts will be let until the next State Legislature has made an appropriation.

—At Reading, Berks Co., Ross D. Hoffman, of Reading Court House, has leased a tract of land containing ten acres, which lies partly in Berks, Chester and Lancaster Counties, which contain fine beds of calcimine. Mr. Hoffman intends forming a stock company to operate the land.—Contractor William Grant Cook, who will construct the house sewers in District No. 1, will remain in Reading until the work is completed. No sub-contracts have yet been let, and no materials purchased. The work is to be completed in two hundred working days.

Through New Jersey.

At Bloomfield, Essex Co., a movement is on foot favoring the construction of a water works system.

At Jersey City, the corner stone of the new Fourth Regiment Armory is to be erected on Bergen avenue, Jersey City Heights.

At Asbury Park, Monmouth Co., William Larabee is interested in the Glendala Water Company, incorporated with a capital of $150,000, to construct a water works.

At Camden, the premises No. 9½ Market Street, occupied by M. C. Lamar, as a paint and glass warehouse, has been damaged by fire, causing a loss of about $8000.

At Cape May, Cape May Co., it is reported that James Mooney, of Philadelphia, owner of the new Columbia Hotel property, has sold the ground to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for a new depot.

At Newark, the Technical School managers have accepted plans for the new building to be erected on a plot of ground recently purchased on High Street. The structure will cost about $30,000.

The Philadelphia and Camden Elevated Bridge Company, of which Thomas S. Speakman is president, will ask the next New Jersey Legislature for authority to construct a bridge over the Delaware between said cities.

At Plainfield, Union Co., a two-story frame and shingle finished cottage 30 x 50 feet will be erected at a cost of about $6500, for George F. White, from plans prepared by Architect Charles H. Smith, of No. 116 Broadway, New York.

At Elizabeth, Union Co., J. Russ & Sons will erect a two-story brick Casino, 50 x 100 feet in the rear of the present structure on Broad Street. The plans have been prepared by Architect A. F. Licht, of No. 62 Liberty Street, New York.

At Dover, Morris Co., two private cottages, 24 x 50 feet each, will be erected for J. J. Vreeland. They will contain all the latest improvements, and cost about $7000 each. Architects, Hermann and Horenburger, of No. 682 East 159th Street, New York City.

At Atlantic City, Atlantic Co., David C. Johnson has taken permit for the erection of three double frame dwellings, to be erected on Division Street, for James H. Mason.—The St. Charles Hotel has been purchased, so it said, by McManus & Reilly, of Philadelphia, for $120,000.

Through Maryland.

At Frederick, Frederick Co., the contract to erect the new power house of the Boonsboro and Keedysville electric railway has been awarded to Isaiah Moses, of Myersville, Frederick Co., Md.

At Baltimore, at the last meeting of the Court House Commission, nearly the entire session was taken up with discussions questioning the advisability of inviting ten Baltimore architects to submit plans and receive a premium of $400 whether or not any one of their sketches should be accepted. This question was not finally determined, but was laid over until the next meeting, when, it is hoped, there will be a full attendance. Over two hundred and seventy-five letters have been received from architects from different parts of the country requesting that the pamphlet of architects' instructions might be sent to them. The question whether any specific style of architecture had been settled upon by the commission also received considerable attention, and after a lengthy debate and the reading of a letter from Professor Ware on the subject, responsive to a telegram sent by Judge Harlan, it was decided to leave it entirely to the taste of the competing architects. The most important permits issued to date are as follows: To Frank Herbert, to erect six two-story brick dwellings on Chew Street, near Washington Street; to John Kram, to erect four two-story brick dwellings on Fayette Street, and three on Duncan Alley; to August Weber, to erect five two-story brick dwellings on Ann Street, and twelve on Durham Street. Nicholas P. Bond and others have incorporated the Mount Royal Construction Company, with a capital of $60,000.

Washington, D. C.

The Trinity Episcopal Church congregation, at the corner of Third and C Streets, N. W., will erect a parish hall, the plans for which have been prepared by Architect William J. Palmer. The structure will be of brick, two stories and basement. Cost about $20,000. William A. Meloy is chairman of Building Committee. Ground will be broken about April 1st next.—A bill has been introduced in the House appropriating $300,000 for the purchase of all of square 683 except lot 1 and part of lot 11, which are now occupied by the government, the ground to be used for the hall or records for the geological survey, and for such other government buildings as Congress may hereafter require.—George W. Corbett, of Washington, D. C., bid $25,665 for the erection of the St. Albion, Vt., public buildings and will receive the contract.—A committee has made an investigation of the house kitchen, and will submit plans for improvements.

Miscellaneous.

At Sylvania, Screven Co., Ga., a new jail will be erected.

At Conyers, Rockdale Co., Ga., a new court house will be erected.

At Montgomery, Montgomery Co., Ala., a court house will be erected from plans now being prepared.

At Harrison, Tallahatchie Co., Miss., I. A. Beard can give particulars as to a newly incorporated company for the manufacture of agricultural implements.

CONSIDER THE COST

Little can be saved, much may be lost, by using an inferior furnace.

Inadequate house-warming means discomfort and impaired health. Ten dollars saved, perhaps, on a furnace, and ten times ten dollars spent on doctors and druggists. Big coal bills, too. DOES THIS PAY? Sensible people say NO!

Sensible builders, who expect to sell their houses to sensible people, do not forget this. The wisest builders buy the best furnaces.

They do not cost so much more than common ones, if you know how to buy. Specify the

PARAGON STEEL PLATE FURNACE

and ask half-a-dozen responsible dealers to bid on it. The result will satisfy you both as to quality and price. The "PARAGON FURNACE"

INSURES HEALTHFUL HOUSE-WARMING.

Send for our furnace book "HINTS ABOUT HEATING," mailed free upon application.

At East Liverpool, Columbiana Co., a large four-story hotel is contemplated by a stock company. J. A. Adams and H. M. Johnson, of Rochester, Pa., are organizing the company. The estimated cost is $75,000. J. M. Kelley, of East Liverpool, can give information.

At Falls Church, Fairfax Co., Va., George F. McInturf will erect a handsome dwelling. G. A. Brunner and C. D. Church are the contractors. C. A. It is probable that the town will be bonded for $10,000 to aid any responsible company to erect and to equip an electric light plant.

At Westchester, Westchester Co., N. Y., W. J. Harell, architect, No. 66 Liberty Street, New York City, has prepared plans for a three-story and basement addition, 60 x 170 feet, to the boys' building of the New York Catholic protector, to be used for school purposes and dormitories. At Dorchester, Grafton Co., N. H., plans are being made at the office of the city architect for a new school house to be erected on Morton Street, near Norfolk Street. The features of architecture which will be introduced in the structure are novel, the design of the exterior being a reproduction of an old Virginia town house, with the Doric columns, oval windows of the colonial porch and the pyramid roof, surmounted by a cupola. The new building will be constructed of wood, painted yellow, with white trimmings. In the interior there will be a central corridor ten by thirty-five feet, and two schoolrooms twenty-four by thirty-two feet each. Both rooms have independent entrances, and are provided with all conveniences for heating and ventilating. There are ample wardrobe rooms, and in the basement will be provided a large playroom. Especial attention has been paid to the sanitary arrangements.
